Confesiones de Martes a Jueves a las 4:30 pm (Favor de llamar para apuntarse)

Sacrament of Baptism

The parish would like to help you prepare for the baptism of your child. We offer a pre-baptismal class once on the 3rd Sunday of each month from 2-7 pm. Please call the office for the time of the next class. The child's baptism will be scheduled after parents and sponsor have attended the class. Baptisms are generally celebrated on Saturday after 5:00 pm Mass or Sunday after the 11 Mass.

Sacrament of Marriage

In order to give couples adequate time to prepare for their wedding, we ask that couples call the parish office to schedule an appointment with the pastor six months prior to the anticipated wedding date.

Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

When a family member is ill, please call the parish office to invite the pastor to come and celebrate this sacrament with your family member.

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, every 1st Friday of the Month and Third Thursday of the Month from 2:30 to 4:30 pm.

Religious Education

Classes are held from September through May. Registration are on weekends during August. Visit the parish website for more information.

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time
Aug 29, 2021

Albert Einstein said that the “true measure of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination.” Being a disciple of Jesus Christ requires a great deal of imagination. It is not enough to simply attend to facts, rules and rituals and consider the job done. Quite contrarily, the Gospel demands creativity, of trying to discern how to put flesh on the Beatitudes and properly serve God’s children. Jesus never doled out a top-down agenda. Not once did he ever demand conformity over conversion or sacrifice over mercy. The Gospel is always about putting people in touch with their compassionate, forgiving, and unconditionally loving God and meeting them where they are. For Jesus, it often meant breaking a few rules. Well respected and time-honored traditions had to be set aside in order to attend to what really mattered. God’s compassion, mercy and true conversion were always the trump cards. The story of the Good Samaritan, healing on the Sabbath, and bypassing of purification rituals all display this theme. Human beings can get too hung up on protocol and tradition. This is so much so that often preserving all of these things is of greater concern than the beggar knocking on our door or the sinner looking for mercy. It is no wonder, then, that we can easily become hypocritical. Many can see us on our knees in prayer while our true heart and actions, rooted in judgment and self-preservation, are hidden from others. It is a trap into which we can easily fall. Who cares how we live our lives as long as our hands are properly washed! Here enters the need for imagination and the distinction of truly being a wise and intelligent person. It takes a good measure of creativity and a lot of guts to really be a doer of God’s word and not merely a hearer. Being a person who doesn’t just tell people about God but shows people God requires courage and ingenuity. That’s why people like St. Francis of Assisi and St. Teresa of Calcutta are timeless. Their genuineness speaks volumes generation to generation. It’s risky business taking the step to allow God into our hearts. Permitting God to release us from the grip of our evil thoughts, infidelity, greed, malice, sexual improprieties, licentiousness, envy, arrogance, folly, and the like takes courage. That’s why we prefer to spend our energy rearranging the future rather than take measures to secure a foundation that is most certainly crumbling.

Volunteers who have a class/classes pending are required to complete them by August 31st or their status will become Inactive.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Give it all Back

Pop culture has given us a unique idea of the term justice. Justice, we often think, is about taking. Taking what’s owed. Taking revenge. Taking what we deserve. This worldview tends to make mincemeat of our Catholic social teachings. Seeking the good of the poor, a call to community and participation, solidarity — on the face of it, in a society where everything must be earned and we are encouraged to hoard for ourselves whatever success we can achieve, these principles look a lot like highway robbery. But when you remember the presence of an omnipotent, all-loving and all-merciful God, it turns our gunslinging sense of justice on its head. For how does justice inhabit the same universe as a God who is so quick to give and indeed to forgive? Well, very easily, when we remember Who exactly is the source of every good and perfect thing in this world. There is no law that cannot be traced back to the Word. And the Word saves our souls. Is that justice? No, that is a gift. It is the reckless, indulgent gift of a father whose love is greater than His anger. What is justice in the Biblical sense? The answer is simple. Look at your life. See the hours in your day? See your spouse, your kids, your grandkids? See the house they live in, the money in your wallet, the food in your fridge, the breath in your lungs? Calling it all your own, refusing to share any of it — that’s robbery. Giving it all back to the One who gave it to you — that’s justice.

¡FELIZ CUMPLEAÑOS PADRE GLEEN!

Recuerde la fiesta de cumpleaños del Padre Gleen es este domingo 29 a la 1 pm en la iglesia. Traiga su platillo favorito para compartir. ¡Los esperamos!

VIRTUS

La clase de Virtus de 3 horas será el domingo 19 de septiembre de 2 a 5 pm en el cuarto de los ángeles. Este entrenamiento es para las personas que van a comenzar un ministerio.

Los voluntarios que tienen una o más clases pendientes de ambiente seguro tienen hasta el 31 de agosto para completarlas, de lo contrario su estatus cambiara a ser INACTIVOS (que no pueden servir en ninguna parroquia.)

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Devuélvelo todo

La cultura pop nos ha dado una idea única del término justicia. La justicia, pensamos a menudo, se trata de tomar. Tomando lo que se debe. Tomando venganza. Tomando lo que nos merecemos. Esta visión del mundo tiende a hacer picadillo nuestras enseñanzas sociales católicas. Buscando el bien de los pobres, un llamado a la comunidad y la participación, la solidaridad, a primera vista, en una sociedad donde todo debe ganarse y se nos anima a acumular para nosotros cualquier éxito que podamos lograr, estos principios se parecen mucho a un asalto. Pero cuando recuerdas la presencia de un Dios omnipotente, amoroso y misericordioso, pone de cabeza nuestro sentido pistolero de la justicia. Porque, ¿cómo habita la justicia en el mismo universo que un Dios que es tan rápido en dar y en perdonar? Bueno, muy fácilmente, cuando recordamos Quién es exactamente la fuente de todas las cosas buenas y perfectas en este mundo. No hay ley que no se remonte a la Palabra. Y la Palabra salva nuestras almas. ¿Eso es justicia? No, eso es un regalo. Es el regalo indulgente e imprudente de un padre cuyo amor es mayor que su ira. ¿Qué es la justicia en el sentido bíblico? La respuesta es simple. Mira tu vida. ¿Ves las horas de tu día? ¿Ves a tu cónyuge, a tus hijos, a tus nietos? ¿Ves la casa en la que viven, el dinero en tu billetera, la comida en tu refrigerador, el aliento en tus pulmones? Llamarlo todo tuyo, negarte a compartir algo de eso, eso es robo. Devolvérselo todo a Aquel que te lo dio, eso es justicia.

XXII Domingo Del Tiempo Ordinario 29 de agosto de 2021

Estamos viviendo un contexto social muy difícil, muchas personas, a estas alturas del año, todavía no tienen trabajo y su salud es muy precaria. Las injusticias están a la orden del día. Gracias a la Palabra de Dios que nos guía, nuestro corazón se fortalece en la esperanza. Litúrgicamente, hoy regresamos al Evangelio de Marcos, ciclo B, después de haber escuchado el capítulo 6 de San Juan, donde se da el discurso del Pan de Vida. Iniciamos la lectura de Santiago, después de haber escuchado la de los Efesios. Hoy las lecturas apuntan a una misma dirección. ¡Hacia la coherencia en la propia vida! Hacer y vivir lo que decimos es una tarea de todos los días. Seguir los mandamientos con fidelidad es lo que pide el Señor. La enseñanza de Dios de vivir moralmente es el objetivo desde la creación del mundo. “Y ahora, Israel, escucha las normas y los mandamientos que yo te enseño, para que los pongas en práctica” (Deuteronomio 4:1). La Carta de Santiago lo describe de la siguiente forma: “Hermanos muy queridos, no se equivoquen: son las cosas buenas y los dones perfectos lo que proceden de lo alto” (Santiago 1:16). Y en el Evangelio, Jesús lo pone más claro todavía explicando la manera de ser coherentes: “Ninguna cosa que de fuera entra en la persona puede hacerla impura; lo que hace impura a una persona es lo que sale de ella” (Marcos 7:15-16). Jesús habla un lenguaje desconocido para la gente de su tiempo, muchos de ellos eran muy apegados a la ley. Por lo tanto, no podían comprender lo que es la verdadera pureza. ¿Tú lo comprendes? ¡Vivir como Dios manda es lo ideal!
