26th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sep 26, 2021

What are the little ones? They are the poor, the marginalized, the women and men at the well, the Zacchaeus' looking for Jesus from a tree, those mired in sin, the blind who want to see, and the lame who want to walk. They are the lepers and the different ones who have been told that they are unclean, and the ones who suffer from abuse and grave injustices and oppression. They are children who want nothing more than to be loved and enjoy celebrating their innocence. These are all the little ones and they are all vulnerable. Life already brings them burdens; we don't need to add to them. St. Oscar Romero said, "When the church hears the cry of the oppressed it cannot but denounce the social structures that give rise to and perpetuate the misery from which the cry arises." Why are so many people still so gravely hurting? We have the resources and the means to make things better. We choose not to. There are still those things called greed, pride, lust, apathy, jealousy, gluttony, and anger that prevent us from seeing each other and people to be loved and not objects to be used. Is this how God intended things to be? God loves what is good and upright. It doesn't matter who did it or where it came from. In God's eyes, the end result is always faith, hope, and love. Those will always unite a person with God. We fill our lives with many things that are not good either for ourselves or for others. All of us have to work to discover what it is, exactly, that leads to the world's brokenness. There are people, systems, and ideologies in place that foster oppression and injustice rather than equity and fairness. Sadly, our complacency can be the greatest evil. Turning a blind eye, ignoring the truth, and believing that we are helpless to fix so great a problem, does little to move us closer to the kingdom of God. As members of the Body of Christ, we cannot condone anything that keeps people in misery. As it is said, charity begins at home. Perhaps a good place to start is with our own households and making sure their foundations are properly laid.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

The View from the Back of the Line

Have you known that person? The one who leaves every person they encounter feeling a little more blessed for having met them? They're the friend you can count on when nothing is going well. They're the one who's always "doing" for others. They're never gossiping or sniping or complaining. We wonder how they do it, how they have it in them. We're a little envious, even if we don't let ourselves acknowledge it. That, folks, is what the view is like from the front of the line, gazing at those suckers in the way back and wondering why they're smiling so much. We've all been at the front of a line and felt no shame about it. We show up early, we put in the time and the legwork, and we "earn" whatever it is we came for — sports tickets, the latest Apple product, whatever. That's how it works here on Earth, where the fastest win the race, the fittest survive and the first shall be first, always. It's exactly why stewardship is such a tall order. Stewardship calls us to play by the rules of another kingdom — one where the richest have the least amount in their bank accounts and the happiest don't seem to have anything to show for it, at least materially. If you have a person in your life who always seems happy "doing" for others, it's because by a boatload of God's grace, they play by the rules of the other place. Watch and take notes — and don't be afraid to join them at the back of the line.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

La vista desde el final de la fila.

¿Conoces a esa persona? ¿El que deja a cada persona que encuentra sintiéndose un poco más bendecida por haberla conocido? Son el amigo con el que puedes contar cuando nada va bien. Ellos son los que siempre están "haciendo" por los demás. Nunca están chismorreando, criticando o quejándose. Nos preguntamos cómo lo hacen, cómo lo llevan en ellos. Sentimos un poco de envidia, incluso si no nos permitimos reconocerlo. Así es, amigos, la vista desde el frente de la fila, mirando a esos tontos en el camino de regreso y preguntándose por qué están sonriendo tanto. Todos hemos estado al frente de una fila y no sentimos vergüenza por ello. Llegamos temprano, dedicamos el tiempo y el esfuerzo, y "ganamos" lo que sea que buscamos: boletos deportivos, el último producto de Apple, lo que sea. Así es como funciona aquí en la Tierra, donde el más rápido gana la carrera, el más apto sobrevive y el primero siempre será el primero. Es exactamente por eso que la corresponsabilidad es una tarea tan difícil. La corresponsabilidad nos llama a jugar según las reglas de otro reino, uno donde los más ricos tienen la menor cantidad en sus cuentas bancarias y los más felices no parecen tener nada que mostrar, al menos materialmente. Si tienes una persona en tu vida que siempre parece feliz "haciendo" por los demás, es porque, gracias a la gracia de Dios, se rige por las reglas del otro lugar. Mira y toma notas, y no tengas miedo de unirte a ellos al final de la fila

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

XXVI Domingo Del Tiempo Ordinario

26 de septiembre de 2021

Hoy encontramos en la Liturgia detalles específicos de la paciencia y pedagogía de Dios con su pueblo. La realidad que pasaba el pueblo en la vida del desierto, es algo muy parecido a la existencia humana de la sociedad de hoy. ¿Quién profetiza? ¿Quién tiene la autoridad para hablar del Señor? ¿Celo apostólico, o envidia! Josué pide a Moisés que Eldad y Medad no fueran catequistas, o evangelizadores por decirlo así. Pero el Espíritu de Dios estaba en ellos --- como lo está ahora en todo bautizado. La respuesta de Moisés fue la siguiente: "Ojalá que todo el pueblo de Yahvé fuera profeta, que Yahvé les diera a todos su espíritu" (Números 11:29). En una de sus tantas catequesis, el Papa Francisco lo explica así: "De buena fe, con celo, se quisiera proteger la autenticidad de una cierta experiencia, tutelando al fundador o al líder de falsos imitadores. Pero al mismo tiempo está como el temor de la competencia, que alguno pueda robar nuevos seguidores, y entonces no se logra apreciar el bien que los otros hacen; no va bien porque no es de los nuestros, se dice (9/30/2018). Por el otro lado, la respuesta de Jesús a Juan es similar a la de Josué y del Papa: "No se lo prohíban, ya que nadie puede hacer un milagro en mi nombre y luego hablar mal de mí. El que no está contra nosotros está con nosotros" (Marcos 9:39-40). Actuar, hacer todo en nombre de Jesús, implica solo una cosa: fidelidad a su mensaje de amor, paz y justicia. Todo lo que se ha hecho, en este tiempo de pandemia, por amor a los demás es ser generosos al estilo de Jesús.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Who are the little ones? They are the many and varied faces of people who see hope in Jesus' message about the Kingdom of God. They have come to believe that there is a different world to be had: a place where everyone has a home, all have an equal opportunity to share in God's bountiful gifts and blessings, where justice reigns, truth presides, and peace fills hearts. The little ones are those who may have left their former views behind, perhaps even their former lives to follow Jesus and believe in the Beatitudes as God's world vision. They are the poor, the marginalized, the women and men at the well, the Zacchaeus' looking for Jesus from a tree, the blind who want to see, and the lame who want to walk. They are the lepers who have been told that they are unclean, and the ones who have learned that suffering and death are nothing to fear. These are all of the little ones. Jesus gathers and protects them as a shepherd guards his sheep. Whoever causes one of these little ones to sin deserves the greatest wrath. Be more concerned about what people are doing than where they came from.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

¿Quiénes son los pequeños? Son los muchos y variados rostros de personas que ven esperanza en el mensaje de Jesús sobre el Reino de Dios. Han llegado a creer que hay un mundo diferente: un lugar donde todos tienen un hogar, todos tienen la misma oportunidad de compartir los abundantes dones y bendiciones de Dios, donde reina la justicia, la verdad preside y la paz llena los corazones. Los pequeños son aquellos que pueden haber dejado atrás sus puntos de vista anteriores, tal vez incluso sus vidas anteriores para seguir a Jesús y creer en las Bienaventuranzas como la visión del mundo de Dios. Son los pobres, los marginados, las mujeres y los hombres del pozo, los Zaqueos que buscan a Jesús desde un árbol, los ciegos que quieren ver y los cojos que quieren caminar. Son los leprosos a los que se les ha dicho que son inmundos, y los que han aprendido que el sufrimiento y la muerte no son nada que temer. Estos son todos los pequeños. Jesús los reúne y los protege como un pastor cuida a sus ovejas. Cualquiera que haga pecar a uno de estos pequeños merece la mayor ira. Preocúpate más por lo que hace la gente que por su procedencia.
