Confesiones de Martes a Viernes a las 4:30 pm (Favor de llamar para apuntarse)

Sacrament of Baptism

The parish would like to help you prepare for the baptism of your child. We offer a pre-baptismal class once on the 3rd Sunday of each month from 2-7 pm. Please call the office for the time of the next class. The child's baptism will be scheduled after parents and sponsor have attended the class. Baptisms are generally celebrated on Saturday after 5:00 pm Mass or Sunday after the 11 Mass.

Sacrament of Marriage

In order to give couples adequate time to prepare for their wedding, we ask that couples call the parish office to schedule an appointment with the pastor six months prior to the anticipated wedding date.

Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

When a family member is ill, please call the parish office to invite the pastor to come and celebrate this sacrament with your family member.

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, every 1st Friday of the Month and Third Thursday of the Month from 2:30 to 4:30 pm.

Religious Education

Classes are held from September through May. Registration are on weekends during August. Visit the parish website for more information.

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sep 12, 2021

We need to get our bearings straight and properly lay life's cornerstone. Otherwise, the rest of our journey will be skewed, and our judgment clouded. We can recall Jesus' famous rebuke of Peter, "You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Even he, as one of Jesus' closest friends struggles with understanding things and grasping the big picture. Pierre Teilhard de Chardin (1881-1955) a renowned and learned French Jesuit priest often has these words attributed to him: "We are not human beings having a spiritual experience. We are spiritual beings having a human experience." Whether they were actually from his lips, they certainly mimic his thought. These wise words orient us and capture the essence of who we really are. Many people consider spirituality an option. It is no wonder that they come to this conclusion when they predominantly define themselves using human terms and concepts. Immersed in this world view, they struggle finding any semblance of God because God does not work according to human expectations! This is especially true when suffering and death enter life's picture. If we are only human beings having a spiritual experience, then we wrongly expect our spirituality to serve us as we desire. The human expectation is that my spiritual life is something that is useful in avoiding pain, hardship, and death, not something that gives the courage to live through it! So, when we protest and get upset with God because our journey is becoming difficult, painful, treacherous, disappointing, and even pointing us toward death, Jesus rebukes us as he did Peter and gently reminds us how to see. It is God who inspires and opens hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, the true meaning of things is understood, and we receive a depth of insight and understanding that is not found following purely human paths. It is not our task to understand God, as God is beyond human understanding. Ours is the joyful privilege of simply resting in God's presence simply because God is God and we are who we are. As spiritual beings having an exciting and adventurous human experience, it is in our DNA to do so. Through prayer we can let go and let be. This is how we lose our lives but then save them.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Can You Walk the Walk?

I've met and talked with enough people to feel confident that if you polled 100 fallen-away Catholics about why they didn't want anything to do with the Church, the term "accountability" would pop up in almost all of their answers. And to be fair, a lack of accountability isn't just a Catholic problem. Talking the talk but not walking the walk has been a shortcoming handed down throughout the ages, across all creeds and nationalities. Loving our neighbor, welcoming the stranger, clothing the naked, feeding the poor — it all sounds fantastic, especially when we're the ones saying it. But the doing — well, that's a different story, isn't it? We would do well to remember that Christ calls one of his best friends "Satan" when Peter tries to convince Jesus to stray from his destiny. Have you ever been called Satan by one of your good buddies? I'll bet it's not a great feeling. But think about what Peter was doing. He had just said, "You are the Christ." And now, mere moments later, he's saying: "Don't say these things. Don't say you're going to suffer. Don't say you'll be killed." He was telling Christ to squander what the Lord had given him. He was telling him that having faith was fine, but being faithful? It's just a little too hard. God has a destiny for you, too, and He's asking you to be open to it. Maybe it's not in your comfort zone. Maybe you don't think you can do it. Lord, give us faith — but help us, also, to do the work.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

¿Puedes hacer lo que predicas?

He conocido y hablado con suficientes personas como para sentirme seguro de que si encuestaras a 100 católicos alejados sobre por qué no querían tener nada que ver con la Iglesia, el término "responsabilidad" aparecería en casi todas sus respuestas. Y para ser justos, la falta de responsabilidad no es solo un problema católico. Hablar y no hacer lo que se predica ha sido una deficiencia transmitida a lo largo de los siglos, en todos los credos y nacionalidades. Amar a nuestro prójimo, dar la bienvenida al extraño, vestir al desnudo, alimentar al pobre, todo suena fantástico, especialmente cuando somos nosotros los que lo decimos. Pero el hacerlo ... bueno, esa es una historia diferente, ¿no es así? Haríamos bien en recordar que Cristo llama a uno de sus mejores amigos "Satanás" cuando Pedro trata de convencer a Jesús de que se desvíe de su destino. ¿Alguna vez te ha llamado Satanás uno de tus buenos amigos? Apuesto a que no es una gran sensación. Pero piensa en lo que estaba haciendo Pedro. Él acababa de decir: "Tú eres el Cristo". Y ahora, momentos después, dice: "No digas estas cosas. No digas que vas a sufrir. No digas que te matarán." Le estaba diciendo a Cristo que desperdiciara lo que el Señor le había dado. Le estaba diciendo que tener fe estaba bien, pero ¿ser fiel? Es un tanto demasiado difícil. Dios también tiene un destino para ti y te pide que estés abierto a él. Quizás no esté en tu zona de confort. Tal vez no creas que puedes hacerlo. Señor, danos fe, pero ayúdanos también a hacer el trabajo.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Y ustedes, ¿quién dicen que soy yo? Es la pregunta que Jesús hizo a sus discípulos en su tiempo histórico, y ahora nos la hace a nosotros. Es una pregunta muy importante que debe ser respondida individualmente. Con ayuda de la fe, se puede dar una respuesta más efectiva. Dicho de otro modo, la verdadera fe incluye un compromiso diario de aventurarse en el misterio de la cruz. Es difícil el camino, pero te lleva a la vida. La reflexión del Papa Francisco es de gran ayuda para adentrar en detalle e iluminar a cada uno en el saber dónde está nuestra respuesta ahora. "Pero el Señor quiere que sus discípulos de ayer y de hoy establezcan con él una relación personal, y así lo acojan en el centro de sus vidas. Por esto los exhorta a ponerse con toda la verdad entre sí mismos y les pregunta. ¿Y ustedes, quién dicen que soy yo? Jesús, hoy, nos vuelve a dirigir esta pregunta tan directa y confidencial a cada uno de nosotros" (9/16/018). Puede ser que contestemos como Pedro, quien, lleno de entusiasmo y quizá sin pensar, da una respuesta inmediata: "Tú eres el Mesías" (Marcos 8:29). Pedro, te has sacado un diez de nota, que buena respuesta has dado. Pero enseguida, te equivocaste al querer decirle lo que debería de hacer con respecto a sus padecimientos en la cruz. El Papa Francisco continúa diciéndonos: "Jesús nos dice que, para seguirle, se necesita negarse a uno mismo, es decir, los pretextos del propio orgullo egoísta, y cargar con la cruz". Enseguida, el Evangelio nos dice: "¿De qué le sirve a uno si ha ganado el mundo entero, pero se ha destruido a sí mismo?"

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Rest in the presence of God simply because God is God and you are you. This is all that is necessary. Out of this relationship will come inspiration, understanding, courage, constancy, truth, and virtues of all kind. We will find ourselves knowing the true meaning of things and developing a depth of insight that is not found following purely human venues. It is God who inspires and opens human hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, we understand all of our relationships with a richer appreciation and come to know who Jesus, who speaks of God's kingdom, really is. The trust that is fostered from resting with the Divine One allows us to see that God's ways are not our ways. There is something bigger going on in this picture of life. It is something mystical and magical that seeks to surprise us at every turn. It is not for us to cling to this world and its limitations. Our adventure is to dream bigger and brighter, realizing that it is even in suffering that the radiant light of the dawn will come. God's ways allow for our paths to be rocky, challenging, difficult, and even crippling at times. Purely human eyes cannot understand the 'why' of such experiences. The eyes and mind of God, however, reveal and detail a journey that ends in glorious resurrection joy. When we lose our axis and become too human in our thinking, Jesus rebukes us and gently reminds us how to see.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Descansa en la presencia de Dios simplemente porque Dios es Dios y tú eres tú. Eso es todo lo que se necesita. De esta relación surgirán inspiración, comprensión, valentía, constancia, verdad y virtudes de todo tipo. Nos encontraremos conociendo el verdadero significado de las cosas y desarrollando una profundidad de percepción que no se encuentra siguiendo espacios puramente humanos. Es Dios quien inspira y abre los corazones humanos para ver la verdad y la belleza. En Dios, entendemos todas nuestras relaciones con un aprecio más rico y llegamos a saber quién es realmente Jesús, quien habla del reino de Dios. La confianza que se fomenta al descansar con el Divino nos permite ver que los caminos de Dios no son nuestros caminos. Hay algo más grande sucediendo en esta imagen de la vida. Es algo místico y mágico que busca sorprendernos a cada paso. No nos corresponde aferrarnos a este mundo y sus limitaciones. Nuestra aventura es soñar más grande y brillante, dándonos cuenta de que incluso en el sufrimiento llegará la luz radiante del amanecer. Los caminos de Dios permiten que nuestros caminos sean pedregosos, desafiantes, difíciles e incluso paralizantes en ocasiones. Los ojos puramente humanos no pueden entender el "por qué" de tales experiencias. Los ojos y la mente de Dios, sin embargo, revelan y detallan un viaje que termina en un glorioso gozo de resurrección. Cuando perdemos nuestro eje y nos volvemos demasiado humanos en nuestro pensamiento, Jesús nos reprende y nos recuerda delicadamente cómo ver.
