Recuerda el Dia de tu Bautizo

Mientras celebramos la fiesta del Bautismo del Señor, será muy bueno para nosotros saber el día en que fuimos bautizados.

El Papa Francisco dijo que es importante conocer el día en que nos sumergimos en esa corriente de salvación de Jesús. Conocer la fecha de nuestro Bautismo es conocer un día bendecido. El peligro de no saber es que podemos perder la conciencia de lo que el Señor ha hecho en nosotros, el recuerdo del don que hemos recibido. Así, terminamos considerándolo solo como un evento que tuvo lugar en el pasado -y no por nuestra propia voluntad.

Remembering our Baptism Date

As we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of the Lord it will be very good for us to find out the day that we were baptized.

Pope Francis said that it is important to know the day on which we were immersed in that current of Jesus' salvation. To know the date of our Baptism is to know a blessed day. The danger of not knowing is that we can lose awareness of what the Lord has done in us, the memory of the gift we have received. Thus, we end up considering it only as an event that took place in the past – and not by our own will but by that of our parents – and that it has no impact on the present. We must reawaken the memory of our Baptism. We are called to live out our Baptism every day as the present reality of our lives. If we manage to follow Jesus and to remain in the Church, despite our limitations and with our weaknesses and our sins, it is

Today we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. This is a great day to meditate upon the importance of Baptism in our lives. The Catechism of the Catholic Church says that : Holy Baptism is the basis of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit, and the door which gives access to the other sacraments. Through Baptism we are freed from sin and reborn as sons of God; we become members of Christ, are incorporated into the Church and made sharers in her mission: "Baptism is the sacrament of regeneration through water in the word."

But what does it all mean? By our Baptism we are set apart, we are different and we are called to appreciate this new way of life. In an article that I read last week, the former archbishop of Philadelphia said that the wearing of the hijab and the burqa among some women says that they belong to a community different and separate from ours. We need to reclaim our uniqueness. We should never be satisfied with mediocre, feel good religion. Let us never ignore our "separateness".

Our Baptism does not make us better than anyone else. Our lives in Christ need to be oriented outward. The faith that we have received is not to make us self righteous, but a duty to gain disciples for Christ.

Baptism is the root of who we are as Christian believers. Its also the cornerstone of the Church as a community of faith.

Hoy celebramos la fiesta del Bautismo del Señor. Este es un gran día para meditar sobre la importancia del bautismo en nuestras vidas. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica dice que: El santo bautismo es la base de toda la vida cristiana, la puerta de entrada a la vida en el Espíritu y la puerta que da acceso a los demás sacramentos. A través del bautismo somos liberados del pecado y renacemos como hijos de Dios; nos convertimos en miembros de Cristo, nos incorporamos a la Iglesia y nos hacemos partícipes de su misión: "El bautismo es el sacramento de la regeneración por el agua en la palabra".

Pero, ¿qué significa todo esto? Por nuestro Bautismo somos apartados, somos diferentes y estamos llamados a apreciar esta nueva forma de vida. En un artículo que leí la semana pasada, el ex arzobispo de Filadelfia dijo que el uso del hiyab y el burka entre algunas mujeres dice que pertenecen a una comunidad diferente y separada de la nuestra. Necesitamos recuperar nuestra singularidad. Nunca debemos conformarnos con una religión mediocre, solo para sentirnos bien. Nunca ignoremos nuestra "separación".

Nuestro bautismo no nos hace mejores que nadie. Nuestras vidas en Cristo deben orientarse hacia afuera. La fe que hemos recibido no es para hacernos justos, sino el deber de ganar discípulos para Cristo.

El bautismo es la raíz de lo que somos como creyentes cristianos. También es la piedra angular de la Iglesia como comunidad de fe.

Food for Thought

There is an old legend about heaven and earth, both have exactly the same tables. Both have exactly the same rich foods But the spoons in both places are much too long. In hell people starve because they try to feed themselves. In heaven they thrive because they feed each other.

Comida para el pensamiento

Hay una vieja leyenda sobre el cielo y el infierno, ambos tienen exactamente las mismas mesas. Ambos tienen exactamente los mismos alimentos ricos. Pero las cucharas en ambos lugares son demasiado largas. En el infierno, la gente se muere de hambre porque trata de alimentarse. En el cielo prosperan porque se alimentan unos a otros.

Sleeping St. Joseph

Since this is the year of St. Joseph, I will take advantage and share some aspect of Joseph's life in every bulletin so that by the end of the year we should have a better relationship with him.

Pope Francis, who has had a statue of a sleeping St. Joseph on his desk for decades, brought the statue he had in Argentina with him to the Vatican when he was elected pope. He told the story of his devotion during his Jan. 16 meeting with families in Manila, saying he places slips of paper under his statue of a sleeping St. Joseph when he has a special problem.

"Even when he is asleep, he is taking care of the church! Yes! We know that he can do that. So when I have a problem, a difficulty, I write a little note and I put it underneath St. Joseph, so that he can dream about it! In other words I tell him: Pray for this problem!" Pope Francis said. "Do not forget St. Joseph who sleeps! Jesus slept with the protection of Joseph."
