Today we celebrate the feast of Pentecost. Catholics celebrate Pentecost as the descent of the Holy Spirit and the “birthday of the church.” But there is much more to it than that.

The word “Pentecost” comes from the Greek for “the fiftieth day.” Therefore, in the church calendar it comes fifty days after Easter. (including Easter Sunday itself) This celebration of the “fiftieth day” links back to the Jewish festival of Shavuot or the Festival of Weeks, which falls fifty days after Passover.

The fifty days are significant because seven is the perfect number and there are seven weeks of seven days. (49 plus Easter/Passover itself) According to the Jewish-Christian cosmology, God created the world in seven days. Seven weeks of seven days is therefore the symbol of completion and perfection.

The Christians understood this symbolic timekeeping as the fulfillment of the previous age and the beginning of a new dispensation.

Food Pantry- Items Needed

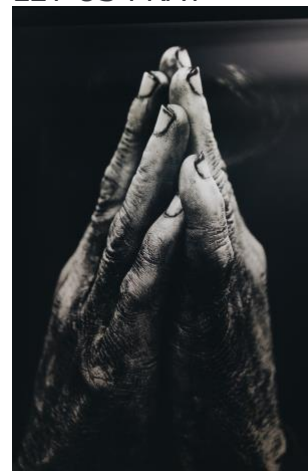

As the St. Bernardine of Siena Food Pantry re-opened this past Thursday, we would like to again designate the last Sunday of every month as Food Pantry Sunday. Basically, the Food Pantry will be accepting donations of items that are depleted and/or low. Sunday, May 30th will be Food Pantry Sunday this month. The Pantry is in need of the following items:

- Pancake Mix and Syrup
- Cake Mix and Frosting
- Corn Muffin Mix
- Instant Oatmeal
- Jelly (Grape or Strawberry)
- Canned Meat (chicken, turkey)
- Mashed Potatoes (instant)
- Cereal (Frosted Flakes, Raisin Bran, Honey Nut Cheerios)
- Canned Greens (Collards)

We would like to welcome the newest member to our team, Mrs. Deborah Washington! Mrs. Washington brings with her an abundance of energy, ideas and superb organizational skills. We are truly blessed to have her assistance. We like to extend a special thanks to Mrs. Blanche Reddes and Katie Jackson for their help in getting the pantry ready so that we can reopen. After being closed for some time, it was quite the undertaking. Finally, we like to thank all who contributed time and effort to special events while the food pantry was closed. Sincerely: Gladys Joyner (Chair of St. Bernardine of Siena Food Pantry).
