Prayers & ReadingsPenitential Act

I confess to Almighty God, and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Reading 1:

God put Abraham to the test. He called to him, "Abraham!" "Here I am!" he replied. Then God said: "Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you."

When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. Then he reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son. But the LORD's messenger called to him from heaven, "Abraham, Abraham!" "Here I am!" he answered. "Do not lay your hand on the boy," said the messenger. "Do not do the least thing to him. I know now how devoted you are to God, since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son." As Abraham looked about, he spied a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. So he went and took the ram and offered it up as a holocaust in place of his son. "I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing—all this because you obeyed my command."

Responsorial PsalmR. (116:9) I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

I believed, even when I said,
"I am greatly afflicted."

Precious in the eyes of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

O LORD, I am your servant;

I am your servant, the son of your handmaid;
you have loosed my bonds.

To you will I offer sacrifice of thanksgiving,
and I will call upon the name of the LORD.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

My vows to the LORD I will pay

in the presence of all his people,

In the courts of the house of the LORD,
in your midst, O Jerusalem.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.Reading 2:

Brothers and sisters:

If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who acquits us, who will condemn? Christ Jesus it is who died—or, rather, was raised—who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

Gospel

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them.

As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven of earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God,
Born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
True God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
Through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven,

All bow

and by the Holy Spirit was Incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
He suffered death, and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His Kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
And I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
And the life of the world to come. Amen

Acclamation After Consecration: We proclaim your death O Lord, and profess your Resurrection, until you come again.

Lamb of God: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us, Lamb of God you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Prayer in Time of Covid-19:

Lord Jesus, you heal the sick. We pray that the Corona Virus that has affected so many in our world can be contained, controlled, and cured. We lift to your mercy all those affected, all those working hard to study and cure this illness, and all health care professionals and emergency management teams that are working day and night to keep us safe.

Help us Lord. We trust in you.

Holy Mary Mother of God pray for us.

St. Joseph pray for us.

About the Laudato Si' Ministry at St. Teresa

The Laudato Si' ("Praise be to You") ministry offers an opportunity for St. Teresa parishioners to respond to the moral and spiritual challenge of the social, economic and environmental crises that face the world. As a parish we are called to care for Our Common Home that has been created for us. Our goal is to raise awareness of these issues as presented by Pope Francis in the encyclical letter, Laudato Si' and develop ways in which to implement changes that will preserve and protect our planet.

We welcome all interested in taking action as individuals and as community to raise awareness, educate and motivate others to take better care of creation and create a "climate of life" in which all can thrive.

To expand your knowledge and find ways you can become involved please log onto catholicclimatecovenant.org or laudatosigeneration.org

Homebound Ministry: This is a difficult time for people, especially those who are isolated at home, separated from their family, friends and yes our parish. Our homebound parishioners can become socially and spiritually isolated. Ministry of the sick and homebound members make weekly calls to other parishioners who are homebound to talk and share what is happening in our parish community. Is there someone you know who would welcome a call? If so, call the parish office at 530-889-2254 or you may email to: barbara_freuler@stteresaauburn.com.

Confidential "Census" Form

Welcome to our Parish:

If you are new to our parish, please take the time to complete and return this parish census form. With the names of your family members, their ages, etc., we have a more complete picture of who belongs to our parish community—indeed, a better way of knowing who makes us the blessing we seek to be for one another...

Respectfully yours in Christ,
