Jesus our God, in these dark hours, when Your Mystical Body is undergoing its own Crucifixion, and when it would almost seem to be abandoned by God the Father, have mercy, we beg You, on Your suffering Church. Send down upon us the Divine Consoler to enlighten our minds and strengthen our wills. You, O Second Person of the Most Blessed Trinity, Who cannot be deceived nor be deceived, Who has promised to be with Your Church until the End of Time, grant us a mighty faith, that we may not falter, help us to do Your Holy Will at all times, especially during these hours of grief and uncertainty.

May Your Most Sacred Heart and the Immaculate and Sorrowful Heart of Your Holy Mother be our sure refuge in time and in eternity. Amen.
