

The Year of St. Joseph, A Year of Virtues

The second Cardinal Virtue is JUSTICE. Justice is the moral virtue that consists in the constant and firm will to give their due to God and neighbor. Justice recognizes God's superiority over us, so to fulfill his will, we owe God every moment of our lives, every breath we take.

Justice recognizes that God made others in his image and likeness. Therefore, others deserve our help, our compassion, and to share in a meaningful relationship with one another. But most of all, others deserve our love. Justice matters because, without GOD we are literally nothing.
