PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

St. Kevin is a multi-cultural church committed to being an example of gospel values in our community, as shown to us by Jesus Christ, through our outreach to children, youth, young adults, seniors, the sick, the grieving and the poor. We do this with prayer, friendship, charity, and social justice through the programs we offer with a welcoming spirit and by showing respect and dignity to all.

DECLARACION

San Kevin es una iglesia multi-cultural comprometida a ser un ejemplo de valores evangélicos en nuestra comunidad, a ejemplo de Jesucristo, por medio de servicios a niños, jóvenes, adolescentes, ancianos, enfermos, personas de luto y a los pobres. Lo hacemos con oración, amistad, caridad y justicia social a través de los programas que ofrecemos con un espíritu de bienvenida y mostrando respeto y dignidad para todos.

JUNE 13, 2020 - JUNE 21, 2020

FIRST READING

"Not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the LORD." (Dt 8:3)

PSALM

Praise the Lord, Jerusalem. (Ps 147) or Alleluia

SECOND READING

Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf. (1 Cor 10:17)

GOSPEL

"For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." (Jn 6:55-56)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

It is no wonder that followers of Christ are called the Body of Christ. After all, sharing in the same spiritual food and sacred meal, they become what they eat and reveal the Divine Image. There is so much power for healing in the community of believers. Through the Eucharist, Christ becomes as present in those who have partaken of his Body and Blood as he has the elements themselves. The very presence of God touches the depths of the human soul and visits a part of us that no human being can ever hope to explore. We are God's. The sacred Eucharistic meal is a celebration of intimacy, the reunion of two loves in constant search of and longing for the other.

The community of believers receives the power and the presence to touch and heal in the name of the One they have welcomed within. It is now within their grasp to change the way life is lived and to more intentionally put into practice the Beatitudes that the Divine Guest has revealed. We are asked to be like Christ and work to create a world of sufficiency, where the greed of some no longer creates the want of others but where all of God's children can find a home and a place at the table of life. The One who makes a home within calls us to live a life that transforms. We are changed ourselves and now become agents of change for others. We are the Body of Christ. God is with us. We have been nourished.

Sadly, many are afraid to try. We know what we are called to do, but we struggle with feelings of doubt as to whether God really is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Do our systems have to change? Is it possible that we somehow missed the mark when we put all of our social networks in place and established the business of our lives? Perhaps we have to radically rethink our approach and that can scare us. We might have to give something up or change, and we don't want to. As long as want, injustice, division, prejudice, and scarcity still exist, there is tremendous work for the Body of Christ.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO –
14 de junio de 2020
El Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo

JUNE 14, 2020 – HEY, KIDS!
THE MOST
HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

“Whoever eats this bread will live forever.”

El Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo es un signo de unidad y es un alimento salvífico. Muy diferente al pan que bajaba del cielo para alimentar a los hebreos por su paso en el desierto. Quien come el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo vivirá para siempre. “Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo. El que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre”. (Juan 6:51). Las lecturas de hoy invitan al creyente a despertar a este hermoso regalo de Jesús en la Eucaristía. Apreciar su presencia viva al recibirlo sabiendo que es el único medio indispensable de participación de lo divino. No cabe la menor duda, lo necesitamos para la jornada de fe.

“Ver que diariamente se humilla, como cuando desde el trono real descendió al seno de la Virgen; diariamente viene a nosotros. Él mismo en humilde apariencia; diariamente desciende del seno del Padre hasta el altar en manos del sacerdote. Y como mostró a los santos apóstoles en carne verdadera, así también ahora se nos muestra a nosotros en el pan consagrado. Y lo mismo que ellos, con la vista corporal, veían solamente carne; pero, con los ojos que contemplan espiritualmente, creían que Él era Dios. Así también nosotros, al ver con los ojos corporales el pan y el vino, veamos y creamos firmemente que es su santísimo cuerpo y sangre vivos y verdaderos”. (Francisco y Clara de Asís Admoniciones 1,16-21). La generosidad de Dios no tiene límite en la Eucaristía, por lo tanto, cabe la siguiente pregunta. Si comulgo frecuentemente, ¿Cómo es mi generosidad para con los demás?

Living forever sounds like a pretty amazing thing. We are promised this as long as we believe in Jesus Christ. Our belief is that we will go to heaven when we die and live forever with God. Jesus spoke of this on many different occasions and when he sat down with his disciples for the Last Supper, he really wanted them to understand the importance of coming together and remembering him by this beautiful ritual.

Let’s think about how we live for a moment. What are some things you must do every day? We eat food, we drink water and we sleep! Don’t we? If we don’t eat and drink, we will get very sick and could possibly die if we go too many days without food and water. It is important to feed our bodies so that we can live. If we skip a day or two, we might feel weak, get a headache and not feel well. It is important to take care of our bodies so that we can be happy and healthy.

Let’s think about our faith. Don’t you think that our faith is the same way? If we don’t remember to pray to Jesus every day, isn’t it like we aren’t feeding our soul? When we pray, we feel closer to God and it helps keep our faith strong. Learning about Jesus reminds us how to behave and inspires us to be better people. Just like food keeps us strong, praying keeps our souls strong and brings us closer to God.

In today’s reading (John), Jesus is reminding everyone that these things he was teaching them were so important that they needed to be done daily, just like we eat, drink, and sleep. Jesus wants us to live with him forever; not just our time on earth....FOREVER! If you have ever lost someone you love, it is nice to feel and to know that you will see them again in heaven. Isn’t it? Jesus promises us this. He promises us peace, forgiveness of our sins and to live forever with Him in heaven. We must be strong in our faith and remember this. Let us pray: Father in heaven, help me to remember how important it is to know that I can live with you forever in heaven. Amen

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow charity;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is error, the truth;
Where there is doubt, the faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light; and
Where there is sadness, joy.
O, Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying to ourselves that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Oración de San Francisco de Asis

Señor, hazme un instrumento de Tu paz, donde haya odio, lleve yo el amor
donde haya injuria, tu perdon Señor;
donde haya duda, lleve yo la fe.

Hazme un instrumento de Tu paz, donde haya pesar, lleve yo esperanza donde haya obscuridad Tu luz, Señor donde haya trizteza, lleve yo alegría.

Maestro ayudame a nunca mentir,
a ser consolado, sino consolar
a ser entendido, sino entender
a ser amado, sino yo amar.

Por eso es que en dar nosotros recibimos;
en perdonar, nosotros somos perdonados;
y en morir nacemos a la vida eterna.
