HOW THE PERSECUTION WOULD START

(Here in the United States)

Last week in this bulletin, we examined how our nation and the world might be headed for a persecution of some sort. In this current bulletin, we will discover how this trial may begin here in our country.

Legislators have already been attempted to pass a pleasant-sounding bill called “The Equality Act.” It sounds harmless, but it is quite evil.

Here’s what it would do: bring back lawsuits against the Little Sisters of the Poor to force them to pay for contraception and abortion-causing drugs. Promoters of this legislation hope to use taxes especially from those opposed to abortion to fully subsidize the killing of children waiting to be born. They have sued to bankrupt business owners and shut down small businesses that choose to not celebrate sodomy marriage. They are willing to deny childless heterosexual couples the ability to adopt or foster children unless they agree with the LGBTQ+ or pro-abortion agenda. They seek to compel religious adoption agencies to place children with same-sex couples. Religious adoption agencies have already closed in some states, rather than be forced to violate their beliefs. Religious hospitals are being sued to provide abortion and to perform “sex-change” surgeries, against their religious beliefs.

Private or Christian schools which simply separate boys and girls in classrooms, or which refuse to enroll “transgendered” students, or which do not provide unisex locker rooms, showers, or changing areas, or churches which ordain male-only clergy would be compelled to change their policies under the Equality Act or lose their tax-exempt status, and possibly their ability to fulfill compulsory school attendance laws of the states.

Further, this agenda would include overt support for unrestricted abortion, funding for Planned Parenthood, the repeal of the Mexico City Policy (a pro-life policy which prevents funds from going to non-governmental groups that support abortion) and the Hyde Amendment (another pro-life policy that prevents other funding for abortion), the elimination of religious exemptions that protect employers, medical professionals and others from being forced to violate their deeply held religious principles.

Democrats, including Biden and Harris, want to pass The Equality Act. Republicans, in general, including Trump and Pence, oppose The Equality Act. The new anti-Catholic prejudice targets not baptism, but belief. Joe Biden claims to be Catholic. Archbishop Charles Chaput recently described this transformation of anti-Catholic bigotry in detail. He wrote that in the eyes of today’s Democratic Party, identifying as a Catholic or even donning the trappings of the faith are not a source of objection, but “if you’re the kind of Catholic who seeks to discipline his or her life around Catholic beliefs regarding marriage and family, religious freedom, sex, and abortion — well, that’s a different matter.” In other words, if you are a Catholic who believes and lives the Catholic faith, watch out.

The Marxist leadership of the Democrat Party in Congress appears to be planning to expand the size of the Supreme Court up to 15 Justices and to add at least one or possibly two states (District of Columbia and possibly Puerto Rico) to the Union. Hillary Clinton received 92.8% of the popular presidential vote in 2016 and won DC’s three Electoral College votes. Donald Trump received 4.1% of the vote. Adding these two “states” would increase Leftist Democrat power by adding up to four more Democrat Senate seats, enough to ensure control of future judicial nominations to lower courts and the Supreme Court.

If Democrats hold a majority in the House, win the Senate and win the White House in 2020, Leftist attorneys will become the Supreme Court judges who will interpret the laws that a Leftist Democrat Congress passes, starting with the Equality Act. The goal: to permanently hold majority power.
