The Very Rev. Fr. Mark W. Lewis
Pastor
pastorstlukesdcordinariate@gmail.com

Welcome to St. Luke's at Immaculate Conception.
We are delighted to have you with us.

We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter, which was established on January 1, 2012 by Pope Benedict XVI in response to repeated requests by Anglicans seeking to become Catholic.
Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and traditions, including liturgical traditions.

If you are visiting,
please make yourself known to
Fr. Mark Lewis and join us for refreshments after the Mass
in the school auditorium.

Masses are Sunday through Friday,
8:30 am

KNOW YOUR FAITH

THE FIRST NOVENA

The novena in honor of the Holy Spirit is the oldest of all novenas since it was first made at the direction of Our Lord Himself when He sent His apostles back to Jerusalem to await the coming of the Holy Spirit on the first Pentecost. It is still the only novena officially prescribed by the Church. Addressed to the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity, it is a powerful plea for the light and strength and love so sorely needed by every Christian.

While meeting with the disciples, Jesus enjoined them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for "the promise of the Father about which you have heard me speak; for John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit." When they had gathered together they asked him, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?" He answered them, "It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." (Acts 1:4)

"Over the next nine days, the Apostles and disciples did as Jesus had commanded and on the tenth day, Pentecost happened, the fiery and powerful gift of the Holy Spirit was given to them. They had prayed the first Christian novena. Since then, novenas, nine days of prayer for a specific intention have been a normal and healthy part of Christian devotion, both personally and communally...If a novena is authentically Catholic and biblical, it will have all the elements we read about in the Scriptures: 1) nine days (or a specific number of days or moments of prayer); 2) asking for a specific grace or gift; and 3) is oriented to growth in faith, or the spread of God's kingdom."

COLLECT

O God, the King of glory, who hast exalted thine only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph unto thy kingdom in heaven: we beseech thee, leave us not comfortless; but send to us thy Holy Spirit to comfort us, and exalt us unto the same place whither our Saviour Christ is gone before; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

FIRST READING Acts 1: 12-14

[After Jesus was taken up into heaven,] the apostles returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away; and when they had entered, they went up to the upper room, where they were staying, Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot and Judas the son of James. All these with one accord devoted themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

cantor

ALLELUIA I Regnavit Dominus [Psalm 47: 8]

Alleluia. Alleluia. God reigneth over the nations: God sitteth upon his holy seat. Alleluia.

SECOND READING I Peter 4: 13-16

Beloved: Rejoice in so far as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed. If you are reproached for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or a wrongdoer, or a mischief-maker; yet if one suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but under that name let him glorify God.

cantor

ALLELUIA II Exivi a Patre [John 16: 28]

I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again I leave the world, and go to the Father. Alleluia.

GOSPEL John 17: 1-11a

At that time: Jesus lifted up his eyes to heaven and said, "Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son that the Son may glorify you, since thou hast given him power over all flesh, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work which you gave me to do; and now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory which I had with you before the world was made. I have manifested your name to the men whom you gave me out of the world; yours they were, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything that you have given me is from you; for I have given them the words which you gave me, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you did send me. I am praying for them; I am not praying for the world but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours; all mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. And now I am no more in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you.

CHARLES LWANGA was a Ugandan convert to the Catholic Church, who was martyred for his faith and is revered as a saint by both the Catholic Church and the Anglican Communion. Lwanga served as a page and later major-domo in the court of King Mwangi II. As part of the king's resistance to foreign colonization, Mwangi insisted that Christian converts abandon their new faith, and executed dozens of Anglicans and Catholics between 1885 and 1887, many of whom were officials in the royal court or otherwise very close to him. The Christian persecutions began in 1885 with the massacre of Anglican missionaries. Joseph Mukasa, a Roman Catholic priest and an official at Mwangi's court, rebuked the king for the deed, and was beheaded for it. Lwanga, who was chief page at the time, took up Mukasa's duties, and on that same day sought baptism from a Catholic missionary priest. On May 25, 1886, Mwangi charged two of his pages with the practice of Christianity, and then condemned them to death. The next day, Lwanga secretly baptized those of his charges who were still only catechumens. The king interrogated his court and demanded that they renounce the Christian faith. Their refusal to apostatize and their ongoing rejection of the king's sexual advances infuriated Mwangi, who had them bound and led to execution. Besides Lwanga, twelve Catholic boys and men and nine Anglicans were then burnt alive on June 3, 1886. As he was burnt, Lwanga said to his executioner, "It is as if you are pouring water on me. Please repent and become a Christian like me."
