Welcome to St. Luke's at Immaculate Conception.
We are delighted to have you with us.

We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter, which was established on January 1, 2012 by Pope Benedict XVI in response to repeated requests by Anglicans seeking to become Catholic. Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and traditions, including liturgical traditions.

MITE BOX COLLECTION

Today is the second Sunday of the month, when we collect the spare change you are gathering for the Building Fund.

Don't have a mite box? You can get one from the ushers after mass and start collecting. And you can always just bring up whatever spare change you have in your pocket. No contribution is too small to matter. Help us Build Our Future by participating in the Mite Box Collection.

EVENSONG FOR THE ANNUNCIATION TONIGHT

The Feast of the Annunciation of Our Lord is such an important feast, marking as it does the beginning of Our Lord's Incarnation as His Blessed Mother welcomed Him into her womb, that it deserves all the glory which we can give it. St. Luke's therefore is celebrating with Evensong and Benediction on the vigil of this great feast. The choir will be offering settings by Thomas Tallis and Charles Wood, as well as works by Hassler, Aichinger, and Allegri. Join us tonight at 7:30 pm for Evensong of the Annunciation.

APRIL CORPORAL WORK OF MERCY: SANITARY PRODUCTS

Our corporal work of mercy for April is collecting feminine hygiene products for the Harriet Tubman Emergency Women's Shelter and Day Program. A spokesman for the shelter says that sanitary products (pads are preferred to tampons) are very welcome. It is important all products be unopened. All contributions will be collected in the vestibule or at coffee hour after Mass on Sundays throughout the month of April.

KNOW YOUR FAITH

EASTERTIDE

For Catholics, Easter is not one day or one solemnity—it is a fifty day celebration, and the fifty days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost Sunday together comprise what the General Instruction terms “the great Sunday.” The first eight days constitute the Octave of Easter and are celebrated as solemnities, of equal liturgical weight as Easter Sunday itself.

At Masses all through the Easter season, our usual practice of reading from the Old Testament is replaced by readings from the Acts of the Apostles. These readings tell the story of the church’s earliest days, and the beginnings of our faith’s spreading throughout the ancient world. These stories of courage, controversies, persecutions, and miracles all testify to the continued presence of the Risen Christ in the world, through the lives of his disciples, and the actions of the Holy Spirit.

Since 2000 the Second Sunday (Octave Day) of Easter is also called Divine Mercy Sunday. The traditional name “Low Sunday,” once common in English, is now used largely in the Anglican world.

The solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord is celebrated on the fortieth day of Eastertide, which is a Thursday. The Sunday preceding the feast of the Ascension of the Lord has traditionally been called Rogation Sunday (the faithful typically observed the rogation days by fasting and abstinence in preparation to celebrate the Ascension, and farmers often had their crops blessed by a priest at this time).

The nine days from Ascension Thursday until the Saturday before Pentecost (inclusive) are days of preparation for the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete, which inspired the form of prayer called a novena. The feast of Pentecost now concludes the Easter season and the week between Ascension and Pentecost should be a time of preparation and expectation for the coming of the Spirit.

INTRODUCTORY RITES Collect for Purity & Summary of the Law

KYRIE Second Communion Service [Healey Willan]

GLORIA Second Communion Service [Healey Willan]

COLLECT Almighty Father, who hast given thine only Son to die for our sins, and to rise again for our justification: grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness; that we may always serve thee in pureness of living and truth; through the merits of the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

FIRST READING Acts 4: 32-35

The company of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had everything in common. And with great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of what was sold and laid it at the apostles' feet; and distribution was made to each as any had need.

APPOINTED PSALM Comfitemini Domino [Psalm 118: 1-4, 15-18, 22-24]

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord, for | he is | gracious; * because his | mercy · en- | dureth · for | ever.

2 Let Israel now confess that | he is | gracious, * and that his | mercy · en- | dureth · for | ever.

3 Let the house of Aaron | now con- | fess; * that his | mercy · en- | dureth · for | ever.

4 Yea, let them now that fear the | Lord con- | fess; * that his | mercy · en- | dureth · for | ever.

15 The voice of joy and health is in the dwellings | of the | righteous; * the right hand of the Lord bringeth | mighty | things to | pass.

16 The right hand of the Lord hath the pre- | emi- | nence; * the right hand of the Lord bringeth | mighty | things to | pass.

17 I shall not die, | but _ | live, * and declare the | works _ | of the | Lord.

18 The Lord hath chastened and cor- | rect-ed | me, * but he hath not given me | over | unto | death.

22 The same stone which the builders re- | fus- _ | ed, * is become the | head-stone | in the | corner.

23 This is the | Lord's _ | doing, * and it is | marvel-lous | in our | eyes.

24 This is the day which the | Lord hath | made; * we will rejoice | and be | glad in | it.

SECOND READING I John 5: 1-7

Beloved: Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God, and every one who loves the parent loves the child. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. For whatever is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the witness, because the Spirit is the truth.

GOSPEL John 20: 19-31

On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." Now Thomas, one of the twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and place my finger in the mark of the nails, and place my hand in his side, I will not believe." Eight days later, his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. The doors were shut, but Jesus came and stood among them, and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side; do not be faithless, but believing." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

"The name 'Doubting Thomas' is unfair. The Risen Lord had shown his wounds to the others, who must then have doubted also. Thomas, brave and desolate, loved too dearly to hope on what might be their delusion. But when he himself saw, his whole being came into focus, and with a brilliant clarity unmatched by any other, he grasped the Messianic secret and uttered the most precise and profound confession of all the gospel." —Sheldon Vanauken, Lent 1989

THOMAS OF THE WAY

[John 11] "They wait to stone you, tear you limb from limb."
—"Men, I must go," said Jesus, firm and brief.
Then Thomas, valiant liegeman of his chief:
"Let us go too, that we may die with him."

[John 14] A different journey, past the world's far rim:
He said, "But if you go without us, Lord,
How shall we know the way?" His eyes implored;
But "I'm the Way" he found obscure and grim.

[John 20] Then darkness. Dead his liege and lost the Way.
He durst not hope, not trust "He lives!" from folk
Who cried they'd seen. His lord was but a clod.
Then, soul alight, he touched the lively clay—
And knew. So Christ's great theologian spoke:
"My Lord," he said, "and (God! I see!) my God."

*Sheldon Vanauken (1914 – 1996) was an American author, best known for his autobiographical book A Severe Mercy (1977), which recounts his and his wife's friendship with C. S. Lewis, their conversion to Anglican Christianity, and dealing with the tragedy of his wife's early death. He never remarried, and eventually converted to Roman Catholicism in 1981.*
