Welcome to St. Luke's at Immaculate Conception.
We are delighted to have you with us.

We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter, which was established on January 1, 2012 by Pope Benedict XVI in response to repeated requests by Anglicans seeking to become Catholic. THE SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
MAY 13, 2018

MITE BOX COLLECTION

Today is the second Sunday of the month, when we collect the spare change you are gathering for the Building Fund.

Don't have a mite box? You can get one from the ushers after mass and start collecting. And you can always just bring up whatever spare change you have in your pocket. No contribution is too small to matter. Help us Build Our Future by participating in the Mite Box Collection.

OUR NOVENA IS UNDERWAY!

We are looking for guidance from the Holy Spirit for our new parish home. Things are starting to move as we undertake our search. But we will not succeed unless God wills it. So join us in praying daily for the Lord to show us our path. The novena psalm and prayer are on the back of this bulletin. If you wish to receive daily email reminders, let us know at stlukesdcordinariate@gmail.com.

Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it.

MAY CORPORAL WORK OF MERCY: INFANT FORMULA

May is month of Mary. During this month, we honor the Blessed Virgin with special devotions, pilgrimages, prayers, and small sacrifices in her honor. What could be a better way to honor Christ's Mother than by donating baby formula to help a young mother in need? If you can contribute, the Northwest Center's Maternity Home is in need of Similac, Similac Advance, and Similac Sensitive. Bring your baby formula to Mass or coffee hour.

KNOW YOUR FAITH

ISIDORE THE FARMER (c. 1070 – May 15, 1130), known for his piety toward the poor and animals, was born in Madrid of poor but very devout parents, and was christened Isidore from the name of their patron, St. Isidore of Seville. Isidore spent his life as a hired hand in the service of the wealthy landowner Juan de Vargas on a farm near Madrid. He shared what he had, even his meals, with the poor.

The number of miracles attributed to him has been counted as 438. The 14th century codex called Códice de Juan Diácono relates five of his miracles, including—

Once, fellow farm workers complained to their master that Isidore was always late for work in the morning. Upon investigation the master found Isidore at prayer while an angel was doing the ploughing for him.

On another occasion, his master saw an angel ploughing on either side of him, so that Isidore's work was equal to that of three of his fellow field workers. The story of St. Isidore is a reminder of the dignity of work, and that ordinary life can lead to holiness. Legends about angel helpers indicate that his work was not neglected and his duties did not go unfulfilled.

Saint Isidore is often portrayed as a peasant holding a sickle and a sheaf of corn. He might also be shown with a sickle and staff; as an angel plows for him; or with an angel and white oxen near him. In Spanish art, his emblems are a spade or a plough.

FIRST READING Acts 1:15-17, 20a, 20c-26

In those days Peter stood up among the brethren (the company of persons was in all about a hundred and twenty), and said, "Brethren, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand by the mouth of David, concerning Judas who was guide to those who arrested Jesus. For he was numbered among us, and was allotted his share in this ministry. For it is written in the book of Psalms, 'His office let another take.' So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us--one of these men must become with us a witness to his resurrection." And they put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. And they prayed and said, "Lord, who knowest the hearts of all men, show which one of these two thou hast chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside, to go to his own place." And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was enrolled with the eleven apostles.

SECOND READING I John 4: 11-16

Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No man has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his own Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we know and believe the love God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.

I will not leave you comfortless: I go away and come again unto you, and your heart shall rejoice. Alleluia.
- stand GOSPEL John 17: 11b-19
At that time, lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed, saying, "Holy Father, keep them in thy name, which thou hast given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. While I was with them, I kept them in thy name, which thou hast given me; I have guarded them, and none of them is lost but the son of perdition, that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves. I have given them thy word; and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. I do not pray that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil one. They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. Sanctify them in the truth; thy word is truth. As thou didst send me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be consecrated in truth."

Novena to the Holy Ghost

For Guidance Concerning Our Parish Home

The Psalm

Psalm 132: 3-5, 7-9, 14-15 Memento, Domine

I will not come within the tabernacle of mine house, * nor climb up into my bed; I will not suffer mine eyes to sleep, nor mine eyelids to slumber; * neither the temples of my head to take any rest;

Until I find out a place for the temple of the Lord; * an habitation for the Mighty God of Jacob.

We will go into his tabernacle, * and fall low on our knees before his footstool.

Arise, O Lord, into thy resting-place; * thou, and the ark of thy strength.

Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; * and let thy saints sing with joyfulness.

For the Lord hath chosen Sion to be an habitation for himself; * he hath longed for her.

This shall be my rest for ever: * here will I dwell, for I have a delight therein.

The Collect

Holy Spirit, Giver of Life to the Church, grant us wisdom and understanding, enlightening our minds to perceive the path to which you call your people. Give us right judgment and courage, guiding us as we step out boldly into the future you have planned for us. Do a new thing with us and make us docile under your direction. Come, Holy Ghost, and renew the face of the earth. Amen.
