Pastor

Rev. Matthew Whitehead
Assisting Priest

Rev. Mr. Mark Arbeen
Deacon

Welcome to St. Luke's at Immaculate Conception.
We are delighted to have you with us.

We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter, which was established on January 1, 2012 by Pope Benedict XVI in response to repeated requests by Anglicans seeking to become Catholic. Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and traditions, including liturgical traditions.

MASSES: Sunday—Friday, 8:30 am
CONFESSIONS: Sundays & Wednesdays,

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY
JULY 1, 2018

JULY CORPORAL WORK OF MERCY: MEN'S TRAVEL-SIZED TOILETRIES

This month, we will continue to collect travel-sized toiletries for homeless men. Soap, shampoo, conditioner, body lotion, and disposable razors are most welcome. Bring them to coffee hour or leave them with an usher. At the end of the month, they will be delivered to the Father McKenna Center, which carries on the mission of the late Jesuit Father Horace McKenna (1889-1982), who was known as the “priest to the poor.”

BISHOP'S VISITATION ON JULY 29TH

On the last Sunday of this month, our bishop, the Most Reverend Steven J. Lopes, will make his annual visitation to St. Luke's to confirm our children. This year, our candidates for Confirmation are Jacob Arbeen, Paul Henderson, and Delia Whitehead. Please keep these young people in your prayers as this wonderful day approaches.

KNOW YOUR FAITH

MARIA GORETTI [1890-1902] was a beautiful pious Italian farm girl, the oldest of six children of Luigi Goretti and Assunta Carlini. In 1896, Maria's father died of malaria, and the family was forced to share a house with the Serenelli family and work with them as sharecroppers to survive. In 1902 at age twelve, Maria was attacked by 19-year-old farm-hand Alessandro Serenelli. He tried to rape the girl who fought, yelled that it was a sin, and warned Alessandro that he would go to hell. He tried to choke her into submission, then stabbed her fourteen times. She survived in hospital for two days, forgave her attacker, asked God's forgiveness of him, and died holding a crucifix and medal of Our Lady. While in prison for his crime, Alessandro had a vision of Maria. He saw a garden where a young girl, dressed in white, gathered lilies. She smiled, came near him, and encouraged him to accept an armful of the lilies. As he took them, each lily transformed into a still white flame. Maria then disappeared. This vision of Maria led to Alessandro's conversion, and he later testified at her cause for beatification.

COLLECT Grant, O Lord, we beseech thee: that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy governance; that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

FIRST READING Wisdom 1: 13-15, 2: 23-24

God did not make death, and he does not delight in the death of the living. For he created all things that they might exist, and the creatures of the world are wholesome, and there is no destructive poison in them; and the dominion of Hades is not on earth. For righteousness is immortal. For God created man for incorruption, and made him in the image of his own eternity, but through the devil's envy death entered the world, and those who belong to his party experience it.

APPOINTED PSALM Psalm 30: 1, 3-5, 11-13 Exaltabo te, Domine.

I WILL magnify thee, O Lord; for thou hast | set me | up, * and not made my foes to | triumph | over | me.

3 Thou, Lord, hast brought my soul | out of | hell: * thou hast kept my life, that I should not go | down in- | to the | pit.

4 Sing praises unto the Lord, O ye | saints of | his; * and give thanks unto him, for a remembrance | of his | holi- | ness.

5 For his wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye, and in his pleasure | is _ | life; * heaviness may endure for a night, but joy | cometh | in the | morning.

11 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy up- | on _ | me; * Lord, | be _ | thou my | helper.

12 Thou hast turned my heaviness | into | joy; * thou hast put off my sackcloth, and | girded | me with | gladness:

13 Therefore shall every good man sing of thy praise | without | ceasing. * O my God, I will give thanks | unto | thee for | ever.

SECOND READING 2 Corinthians 8: 7, 9, 13-15

Brethren: As you excel in everything—in faith, in utterance, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in your love for us—see that you excel in this gracious work also. For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. I do not mean that others should be eased and you burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality. As it is written, “He who gathered much had nothing over, and he who gathered little had no lack.”

GOSPEL Mark 5: 21-43

At that time: When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, a great crowd gathered about him; and he was beside the sea. Then came one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and seeing him, he fell at his feet, and besought him, saying, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, stand so that she may be made well, and live.” And he went with him. And a great crowd followed him and thronged about him. And there was a woman who had had a flow of blood for twelve years, and who had suffered much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better but rather grew worse. She had heard the reports about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his garment. For she said, “If I touch even his garments, I shall be made well.” And immediately the hemorrhage ceased; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. And Jesus, perceiving in himself that power had gone forth from him, immediately turned about in the crowd, and said, “Who touched my garments?” And his disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing around you, and yet you say, ‘Who touched me?’” And he looked around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had been done to her, came in fear and trembling and fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. And he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.” While he was still speaking, there came from the ruler’s house some who said, “Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?” But ignoring what they said, Jesus said to the ruler of the synagogue, “Do not fear, only believe.” And he allowed no one to follow him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. When they came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, he saw a tumult, and people weeping and wailing loudly. And when he had entered, he said to them, “Why do you make a tumult and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him. But he put them all outside, and took the child’s father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. Taking her by the hand he said to her, “Talitha cumi”; which means, “Little girl, I say to you, arise.” And immediately the girl got up and walked (she was twelve years of age), and they were immediately overcome with amazement. And he strictly charged them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

BUILDING FUND MITE BOXES

Help us BUILD OUR FUTURE by participating in the Mite Box Collection, our project to collect spare change for the Building Fund. Don't have a mite box? You can get one from the ushers after mass and start collecting. Bring your offering up at the end of communion on the second Sunday of each month. And you can always just bring up whatever spare change you have in your pocket on the day. No contribution is too small to matter.

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK

Those who have asked for our prayers: Barbara Selby, Robert Prada, Sara Jackson, Ann Ellison, Willi Ellison, Morgan Jackson, Thomas Love, Lynn Love, Dallas Love, JoAnn Lewis, Doris Johnson, J.D. Ruff; and all who are sick and all caregivers who minister to the sick.

Please call or email the office to add a name to the prayer list. Before calling, please be sure you have spoken to the person [or a member of his family] about adding the name—we do not want to inadvertently disregard someone's desire for privacy.

Names of those who are sick or injured will be kept on the list for 3 weeks unless you specifically request a shorter period of time or call to ask that the name be removed.

Names added this week will appear in boldface type.

THOMAS THE APOSTLE (also called Didymus which means “the twin”) was one of the Twelve Apostles of Jesus. He is often called “Doubting Thomas” because he at first doubted Jesus' resurrection (followed later by his confession of faith, “My Lord and my God,” on seeing Jesus' wounded body).

He is said to have travelled to present-day India to preach the Gospel. According to tradition, Thomas reached Kerala in AD 50 and baptized several people, founding what today are known as Saint Thomas Christians or Mar Thoma Nazranis. He is often regarded as the patron saint of India, and the name Thoma remains quite popular among Saint Thomas Christians of India.
