Welcome to St. Luke's at Immaculate Conception.

ROGATION SUNDAY

TODAY IS THANKSGIVING SUNDAY

On the last Sunday of every month we observe Thanksgiving Sunday, when we make a return to the Lord for all He has given us. Has the Lord blessed you in this past month? A second collection at the end of communion this morning is your opportunity to make an offering in gratitude.

ASCENSION THURSDAY

This Thursday, May 30th, is the Feast of the Ascension of the Lord. In the Ordinariate, this is a holy day of obligation. Ascension Thursday Mass will be celebrated at here Immaculate Conception at 8:30 am. As there is already an event scheduled at Immaculate Conception that evening, our 7 pm holyday Mass will be celebrated at St. Thomas Apostle Church at 2665 Woodley Road, a five minute walk from the Woodley Park Metro stop. We are grateful to the Oratorian Fathers who serve that parish for opening their church to us that evening.

If you are unable to attend either of our masses, you are obliged to attend a Mass that day at any convenient Catholic parish; it need not be one celebrated for the Ascension.

KNOW YOUR FAITH

THE ROGATION DAYS (the three days before Ascension Day) are days of prayer and voluntary fasting, instituted by the Church to appease God's anger at man's transgressions, to ask protection in calamities, and to obtain a good and bountiful harvest. The word "rogation" is from the Latin rogare, "to ask."

Historically, the faithful observed the Rogation Days by fasting and abstinence in preparation to celebrate the Ascension, and with processions and the Litany of the Saints. Farmers often had their crops blessed by a priest at this time.

In England and America in former times, a common feature of Rogation Days was the ceremony of beating the bounds, in which a procession of parishioners, led by the minister, churchwarden, and choirboys, would proceed around the boundary of their parish and pray for its protection in the forthcoming year. This was also known as "Gang-day" [after the old English name for going or walking] or as "Cross Week."

At the heart of the Rogation Days is the understanding that all things come from God, all times and seasons are in His Hands. As we are granted use of them, we will answer one day for our stewardship of all that we have been given.

Almighty God, whose loving hand hath given us all that we possess: Grant us grace that we may honor thee with our substance and, remembering the account which we must one day give, may be faithful stewards of thy bounty, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

sit FIRST READING Acts 15: 1-2, 22-29

In those days: Some men came down from Judea and were teaching the brethren, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved." And when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and debate with them, Paul and Barnabas and some of the others were appointed to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and the elders about this question. Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men from among them and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They sent Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, leading men among the brethren, with the following letter: "The brethren, both the apostles and the elders, to the brethren who are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, greeting. Since we have heard that some persons from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your minds, although we gave them no instructions, it has seemed good to us in an assembly to choose men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, men who have risked their lives for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ. We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who themselves will tell you the same things by word of mouth. For it has seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: that you abstain from what has been sacrificed to idols and from blood and from what is strangled and from unchastity. If you keep yourselves from these, you will do well. Farewell."

all APPOINTED PSALM Psalm 67 Deus misereatur.

SECOND READING Revelation 21: 10-14, 22-23

In the Spirit the angel carried me away to a great, high mountain, and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God, having the glory of God, its radiance like a most rare jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal. It had a great, high wall, with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and on the gates the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel were inscribed; on the east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. And I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine upon it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb.

HELP WANTED

We need coffee hour hosts.

Hospitality is a very important component of our patrimony. We need more participation by our parishioners in hosting the coffee hours that follow Sunday Mass. It does not have to be complicated: cookies, donut holes, etc. are sufficient. And some juice for the children.

To sign up, email stlukesdcordinariate@gmail.com.

Many hands make light work.

GOSPEL John 14: 23-29
