St. Peter's Softball Team

A group of parishioners from St. Peter's are forming a co-ed softball team for the McHenry Christian Fellowship Softball League that runs April 26th through July.

We are looking for men and women, 18-years and older, that enjoy to play competitive and recreational softball on Monday evenings, the earliest game will be 6:30pm. Preferred that you have some experience/knowledge in playing softball or baseball. It is $30.00 a player, let us know if you are interested in playing. Also looking for someone to sponsor t-shirts for our team. If you are interested or have any questions, please contact Rose Lareau at capturedip@gmail.com or 847-602-2430.

More About the League:

The McHenry Christian Fellowship Softball League is a band of brothers and sisters in Christ that loves to come out on Monday nights and enjoy recreational and competitive play. We are a mixed league of men and ladies age 18+ spanning Evangelical, Non-Denominational, Mainline Protestant and Catholic Churches. Founded in 1978, MCFSL has offered an annual summer schedule of softball faith, fellowship and fun! As the world gets crazier every year, for those in ministry or not, the league offers a welcome respite from busy schedules and life's trials.

Regular Season:

Our regular season generally consists of 12 games played on Monday nights only. Our North Conference plays all their games in McHenry/Johnsburg at three locations.

Thank You for Your Support

The Saint Anne's Sodality wishes to thank the entire parish for an enjoyable and very successful Palm Sunday Bake Sale.

Thank you to all the bakers, all the buyers, and all the helpers. May God bless you with a glorious Easter!

Parish Office Closings

The Parish Office will be closed on Good Friday, April 2nd, and Easter Monday, April 5th.

From the Canons Regular of St. John Cantius as well as all the staff here at St. Peter's, we want to wish all of you a very blessed Easter

From Dom Gueranger's The Liturgical Year

Of all the seasons of the liturgical year Eastertide is by far the richest in mystery. We might even say that Easter is the summit of the Mystery of the sacred Liturgy. The Christian who is happy enough to enter, with his whole mind and heart, into the knowledge and love of the Paschal Mystery, has reached the very centre of the supernatural life. Hence it is that the Church uses every effort in order to effect this: what she has hitherto done was all intended as a preparation for Easter. The holy longings of Advent, the sweet joys of Christmas, the severe truths of Septuagesima, the contrition and penance of Lent, the heart-rending sight of the Passion—all were given us as preliminaries, as paths, to the sublime and glorious Pasch, which is now ours.

Eternity in heaven is the true Pasch: hence, our Pasch here on earth is the feast of feasts, the solemnity of solemnities. The human race was dead; it was the victim of that sentence, whereby it was condemned to lie mere dust in the tomb; the gates of life were shut against it. But see! the Son of God rises from his grave and takes possession of eternal life. Nor is he the only one that is to die no more, for, as the Apostle teaches us, 'He is the first-born from the dead.' The Church would, therefore, have us consider ourselves as having already risen with our Jesus, and as having already taken possession of eternal life. The holy Fathers bid us look on these fifty days of Easter as the image of our eternal happiness. They are days devoted exclusively to joy; every sort of sadness is forbidden; and the Church cannot speak to her divine Spouse without joining to her words that glorious cry of heaven, the Alleluia, wherewith, as the holy Liturgy says, the streets and squares of the heavenly Jerusalem resound without ceasing. We have been forbidden the use of this joyous word during the past nine weeks; it behoved us to die with Christ—but now that we have risen together with him from the tomb, and that we are resolved to die no more that death which kills the soul and caused our Redeemer to die on the cross, we have a right to our Alleluia.

The providence of God, who has established harmony between the visible world and the supernatural work of grace, willed that the Resurrection of our Lord should take place at that particular season of the year when even Nature herself seems to rise from the grave. The meadows give forth their verdure, the trees resume their foliage, the birds fill the air with their songs, and the sun, the type of our triumphant Jesus, pours out his floods of light on our earth made new by lovely spring. At Christmas the sun had little power, and his stay with us was short; it harmonized with the humble birth of our Emmanuel, who came among us in the midst of night, and shrouded in swaddling clothes; but now he is 'as a giant that runs his way, and there is no one that can hide himself from his heat.' Speaking, in the Canticle, to the faithful soul, and inviting her to take her part in this new life which he is now imparting to every creature, our Lord himself says: 'Arise, my dove, and come! Winter is now past, the rain is over and gone. The flowers have appeared in our land. The voice of the turtle is heard. The fig-tree hath put forth her green figs. The vines, in flower, yield their sweet smell. Arise thou, and come!'

Baptismal Announcement
