REFLECTION ON TODAY'S LITURGY

"Do you not yet have faith?" Our Lord's question in today's Gospel frames the Sunday liturgies for the remainder of the year, which the Church calls "Ordinary Time."

In the weeks ahead, the Church's liturgy will have us journeying with Jesus and His disciples, reliving their experience of His words and deeds, coming to know and believe in Him as they did.

Notice that today's Psalm almost provides an outline for the Gospel. We sing of sailors caught in a storm; in their desperation, they call to the Lord and He rescues them.

Mark's Gospel today also intends us to hear a strong echo of the story of the prophet Jonah. He, too, was found asleep on a boat when a life-threatening storm broke out that caused his fellow travelers to pray for deliverance, and then to marvel when the storm abated (see Jonah 1:3-16).

But Jesus is something greater than Jonah (see Matthew 12:41). And Mark wants us to come to see what the Apostles saw—that God alone has the power to rebuke the wind and the sea (see Isaiah 50:2; Psalm 18:16). This is the point of today's First Reading.

If even the wind and sea obey Him, shouldn't we trust Him in the chaos and storms of our own lives?

As with the Apostles, the Lord has asked each of us to cross to the other side, to leave behind our old ways to travel with Him in the little ship of the Church.

In their fear today, they call Him, "Teacher." And it is only faith in His teaching that can save us from perishing. We should trust in Christ, and trust like Christ—who was able to sleep through the storm, confident that God was with Him (see Psalm 116:6; Romans 8:31).

We should live in thanksgiving for our salvation, as today's Epistle tells us—as new creations, no longer for ourselves but for Him who died for our sake.

"Then he asked them, 'Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?'" – MARK 4:40

Do you really trust God? Is God your first choice or last resort? Is your faith something you just do on Sunday or do you live the Gospel message every day of the week? Many of us know about God. How many of us have a personal relationship with Him? Start now; open your heart to receive our Lord. Talk and listen to Him throughout the day, in all circumstances.

Pisek Announcements

- The Altar Society can no longer keep up with church cleaning, and the parish is asking ALL PARISH FAMILIES for an annual contribution towards the payments for cleaning. ### REMIND - NEW PARISH ALERT SYSTEM

Our messaging service with Honeywell Instant Alert System for parish notifications has ended. Our new system is called REMIND. You will receive messages on your cell phone or email.

- Please use the symbol or emoji ☺ to acknowledge when you've received a message, especially for Mass cancellations or major notices during the winter months. It's reassuring to know when communications are effective since we no longer have the notifications going out to landlines.
- You can choose to have the sound notifications on or off. This is done from the Settings menu on your phone under your Applications.
- Responses are blocked on church-wide announcements; however, for smaller groups like Altar Society or Faith Formation, you will be able to see the conversation offered by others.
- Even if you are not a member of the tri-parishes, you are welcome to join our REMIND group.

Contact Rachel Bina 701-284-6282 with any questions.

Dates are yet to be announced but the Diocese of Fargo has already begun planning a WYD pilgrimage! Join us for a fun, one-hour virtual info session where you'll hear from diocesan leaders, get a rundown of the trip itinerary by our pilgrimage leader, Verso Ministries, and learn why YOU should plan to sign up for this trip of a lifetime! Past pilgrim, Kristina Lahr, will also be on hand to share her experience of attending WYD.

The WYD Info Session will take place on Tuesday, June 22, at 7:00 p.m. CT via Zoom. To attend (or access the recording at a later date), please register at <https://bit.ly/3ya3CVI>. We hope to see you there!
