SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive
You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

St. Cecilia Church Welcomes You

Thank you for coming today!
Whether you are a long time parishioner, just visiting or have recently moved to our area, we are happy that you joined us.

Welcome

The Parish Community of St. Cecilia is happy to welcome our new intern,

Brother Manuel Perez Demetrio

Brother Manuel was born in Zumpango, Guerrero, Mexico. He took his first vows of poverty, chastity and obedience in 2018. Brother Manuel will be here for the next two years as an intern where he will work in different ministerial settings in our parish.

We are confident that this will be a wonderful experience for him and for us.

Bienvenido Hermano Manuel!

BLACK LIVES MATTER

Recently we celebrated a Prayer Service with the theme of Black Lives Matter. It was a very graceful ceremony. There was no negativity or criticism. Fr. Herman gave a clear and simple introduction plus an application from scripture. Also Victor Carter, our parishioner, moved us with his eloquent personal sharing. The music was excellent, provided by Charles Warren, who has helped us with our 150th parish anniversary too. So, our Prayer Service uplifted us and encouraged us.

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: Lessons to be Learned

The miracle of the loaves and fishes is one of the best known in the Gospels. When Jesus performs a miracle, he is not trying to show off his power. He always has a lesson that his action illustrates. This miracle can teach us many things. Let's look at a few of them.

One is the compassion of Christ. He has pity on the crowd and first shows his love by curing their sick. Then he sees they are hungry and feeds them. This reminds us that Jesus knows what we need and cares about us.

The bread reminds us of Jesus temptation in the desert, where he said "man does not live on bread alone." Just as the miracle satisfied the hunger of five thousand families, so his word will satisfy the spiritual hunger of millions. The miracle also reminds us that Jesus will give us himself as Bread and Wine to be our food and drink. So the question is, do we learn from this miracle? Do we trust the Lord to care for all our needs? Do we try to live by God's word? And finally, do we take advantage of the great gift of the Eucharist? The miracle may have happened two thousand years ago, but the lessons are meant for us today.
