

Mrs. Austin's P5 Newsletter for week ending
November 6th, 2020

Reminders:

- Please make sure you have signed up for conferences. They are next Thursday and Friday via zoom or Google Meet. I have sent the link to sign up via email, and so has Mr. Smith.
- Please consider a donation to The Laurels of Coldwater so we can teach our children the importance of caring for our elderly.
- Reminder that only water is allowed at snack time- no juice or pop. Also, please make sure you are sending a healthy snack.
- Please work with your children at home on putting on their coat by themselves. Also, if they are unable to put on gloves by themselves, please consider sending mittens to school instead of gloves.

A look at some of this week's lessons:

- Learning about the letter I; upper & lower case and sounds (ask your child about Inny Inchworm)
- Learning about number nine; writing and identifying
- Theology- Attending mass virtually for the Feast of Saint Charles Borromeo
- Syllables
- Election/Voting Lesson
- Counting by Tens

Coming up:
