

Update on Parish Youth Ministry

As some of you may have already heard, Lorne Plooard our Youth Minister is stepping down from that position to avail himself for new developments in his family. In his letter to the Crossroads youth, parents and volunteers, he shares the joyful news of baby Plooard #4 (due in December). Lorne and Sarah after prayerful consideration has discerned that it is time to take a step back from parish youth ministry and focus on the family.

Lorne started our Crossroads Youth Ministry from scratch back in the summer of 2016. This was a very challenging ministry and Lorne worked very well in recruiting and engaging the youth of the parish. Over time he developed a very dynamic faith filled program, with unique youth events that were well received by our young people and their parent.

On behalf of the Parish, I would like to thank Lorne for his dedication to this ministry, and also thank both him and Sarah for their dedication to our family and youth Alpha activities, and for being a model family in witnessing the faith in our Parish. Lorne has made it know to me that he is willing to continue to make himself available in the parish as a volunteer as time and scheduling permits.

We have been blessed to have had Lorne to help us explore the area of youth ministry.
