Entrance Antiphon: Ps 106:47
Save us, O Lord our God!
And gather us from the nations,
to give thanks to your holy name,
and make it our glory to praise you.

Psalm Response: Ps 71
(R.) I will sing of your salvation.
A prayer of hope and confidence.

Reading I: Jer 1:4-5, 17-19
The call of Jeremiah is a summons to “stand up and tell them all that I command you.” But it is also a promise that God will provide the strength that Jeremiah needs for this mission.

Reading II: 1 Cor 12:31—13:13
The triad of faith, hope, and love belongs to Christian tradition, and occurs elsewhere in the Pauline letters. With no reference to Christology, “the greatest of these is love” may be either God’s love
for human beings,
or our love for God and others.

Gospel: Lk 4:21-30
Jesus elaborates on the statement of his mission (see last Sunday)
and introduces himself as a prophet.
His announcement is not received well.

Communion Antiphon: Mt 5:3-4
Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.
Blessed are the meek, for they shall possess the land.

In honor of Catholic Schools Week, let us prayer for our teachers.

Prayer for Teachers

Lord God,
your spirit of wisdom fills the earth and teaches us your ways.

Look upon these teachers.
Let them strive to share their knowledge with gentle patience and endeavor always to bring the truth to eager minds.

Grant that they may follow Jesus Christ, the way, the truth, and the life, forever and ever.

R/. Amen.
