Readings in Worship hymnal # 1037

Entrance Antiphon: Is 66:10-11
Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exult and be satisfied at her consoling breast.

Reading I: Jos 5:9a, 10-12
On the day that the people ate the food of the Promised Land, the familiar manna ceased. The source of nourishment on which they had relied for many years dried up. They had to wonder: Will we have enough to eat in this new place? Will it sustain us?

Psalm Response: Ps 34
(R) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.
This psalm—or at least its refrain—was one of the Communion songs of the early Church. It is a hymn of thanksgiving praising God and inviting the community to join in giving thanks for some great benefit.

Reading II: 2 Cor 5:17-21
What does it feel like to be a new creation? How does one deal with the fact that “the old things have passed away” and “new things have come”? And then, as this new being, to become an “ambassador for Christ”—that’s quite a challenge!

Gospel: Lk 15:1-3, 11-32
The wayward son certainly knew what it was like to step into a new situation and fail. What must he have felt like walking down the familiar road to home, wondering how he would be received?

Communion Antiphon: Lk 15:32
Jerusalem is built as a city bonded as one together. It is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, to praise the name of the Lord.
