Psalm Response: Ps 22

Readings in Worship hymnal #1042

PROCEDURE: Lk 19:28-40

For Luke, the journey began ten chapters earlier with a similar statement in which we are told that Jesus “resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem,” where he tells us that the days leading to Jesus’ being “taken up” had come to fulfillment.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Mt 21: 9

Hosanna to the Son of David; Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel. Hosanna in the highest.

READING I: Is 50:4-7

A desperate time for the Jewish people. Jerusalem and the Temple had been destroyed, the elite of Judah were deported to Babylon, and their king was killed. In response, the prophet delivers words of divine consolation to the exiles and, occasionally, even oracles of hope, such as we have in today’s reading.

PSALM RESPONSE: Ps 22

(R) My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

We recognize that cry as the fourth of the seven “words” Jesus spoke while hanging on the cross after his crucifixion. But did Jesus really think that God had forsaken him? How could God abandon God? Bystanders thought he was calling on the prophet Elijah for help. Jesus was not calling upon Elijah. Nor did he think that God had forsaken him. He was praying.

Reading II: Phil 2:6-11
Paul encourages fellow believers to rejoice in suffering as Christ suffered for them.

Passion:
Lk 22:14—23:56
The Gospel accounts of Jesus’ arrest, trial, and crucifixion are so compelling that, if we allow them to enter into our hearts and minds, we can find ourselves transported to the emotions surrounding the scene of Christ’s passion. During this Holy Week, let us walk with Jesus on this journey, which will lead us towards a transformed life in God’s kingdom.

Communion Antiphon:
Mt 26:42
Father, if this chalice cannot pass without my drinking it, your will be done.
