The Order of Worship for
The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time / Year C

Readings in Worship hymnal # 1159

Entrance Antiphon:
Ps 68:6-7, 36
God is in his holy place,
God who unites those who dwell in his house; he himself gives might and strength to his people.

Reading I: Gn 18:20-32
Abraham offers an example of persistent prayer. The sad thing, of course, is that God could not find even ten just people in Sodom.

Psalm Response: Ps 138
(R.) Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.
This individual psalm of thanksgiving praises God for hearing the psalmist's prayer and responding to it.

Reading II: Col 2:12-14
The Colossians do not require circumcision for in baptism their whole being has been affected by Christ through forgiveness of sin and resurrection to a new life. The elaborate metaphor here—about how God canceled the legal claims against us through Christ's cross—depicts not Christ being nailed to the cross by men, but the bond, with its legal claims being nailed to the cross by God.

Gospel: Lk 11:1-13
Luke presents three episodes concerned with prayer. The first recounts Jesus teaching his disciples the Christian communal prayer, the “Our Father”; the second, the importance of persistence in prayer; the third, the effectiveness of prayer.

Communion Antiphon:
Mt 5:7-8
Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.
Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God.
