First Communion Retreat

What a Great Retreat!
Thank You Fr. Eric & Therese Chamblee!

Dear St. Agnes Family,

As I have settled into the quiet of retreat, you have been on my mind. Your faces, your stories, your joys, your sufferings, all that makes you the beautiful people you are as well as the Eucharistic community that draws us together as one, has filled my heart. Each day at Mass has been a grace once again to realize we are always united in the Eucharist – whether we are receiving at a Church, in the parking lot or in spiritual communion. At our 1st Communion Mass last weekend, Fr. Eric reminded all of us present how important this is to us; that something suffers in our lives when we get away from it. It was a great message for our young folks to hear as they now join us at the table each week. Congratulations once again to our five first communicants and thank you to Therese Chamblee for the work she does in preparing the children and their families. It was a joyful occasion.

Do you know of anyone who may be interested becoming Catholic? The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) classes will begin in early September. Is there just one person you can think of to ask? Sometimes being asked stirs something in someone that may be sitting deep within them – and our hospitality in the asking makes them feel welcome and open to explore the possibility (RCIA begins with an inquiry phase and then each person continues to discern along the way, so there is no commitment). RCIA can also be a time for anyone who is already Catholic to learn and go deeper into the teachings and richness of our faith. Please contact me with any folks who may be interested.

Be assured of my daily prayers for you – and I ask for yours as well!

In peace,

Mary
