Dear St. Agnes Family,

I pray all of you are well. I have been more grateful than ever for our online Masses during these times I have been away. To see our space, to pray with all of you virtually, to listen to a Fr. Eric's homily has been a grace. For some reason, I was mostly struck as we prayed the Creed together. The words seemed to echo in my heart and in my mind as our faith was professed. I realized once again the treasure our Catholic faith is for us – and for a world in need - and how concretely that faith is lived out here in this community. May we all continue to further the mission to which we are called, furthering God's work in the world so that as Fr. Eric offered "all creation will know the Glory and splendor of God ... and draw all things to himself."

Once again, if you know of anyone who is interested in learning of the goodness of our Catholic faith, please let me know as our classes will begin in September.

Have a blessed week all!

In peace,

Mary
