Dear St. Agnes Family,

It is all grace to be together each weekend at Mass, united in the Eucharist with one another and with the larger Church, particularly in light of all that swirls around us. It was good to be together in prayer for our evening of Eucharistic Adoration and the praying of the Rosary last week as well. As other opportunities, I invite all to consider attending Morning Prayer, offered each weekday at 8:00. It is a wonderful start to the day! Check out your calendar, see what might work and give it a try ~ all are welcome! There are also still spots open for our series on Prayer, Meeting Christ in Prayer, which will meet eight Wednesday evenings at 7:00 by zoom, beginning February 3rd. I look very forward to being part of this with those who step in! As we deepen our own faith, Fr. Eric reminds us often that we are mission people, not just here for our own needs of faith, but as a beacon of light to all. I am struck by our responsorial psalm this weekend which invites us to learn, to grow, to strive to make all things in our lives reflect the love and choice of our Lord Jesus Christ to the community and people whose lives we encounter.

*Teach me your ways, O Lord.
Your ways, O LORD, make known to me;
teach me your paths,
Guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are God my savior*

In peace,

Mary
