25th Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ September 20, 2020

Deacon Verne Geidl

Dear fellow Saints and Sinners,

Join us for a seven-week Healing Series beginning at 7:00 p.m. Monday, September 21st. Everyone needs healing, and the Church richly provides for healing for each of us. Father Chase originally asked us to present this series last Spring pre-Covid.

The format is a DVD presentation by Church leaders gifted in different areas of healing, followed by discussion and prayer. Topics include "The Healing Power of Forgiveness" by Sister Miriam James Heidland; "The Sacrament of Reconciliation – The Exorcisms That Everyone Needs" by Fr. John Farao; "Healing & Protection of Your Family from Dark Influences" by Dr. Cynthia Hunt; "Called Out of Darkness" by Fr. Robert Spitzer; "Inner Healing and Healing of Memories" by Dr. Mary Healy; "Fearless – Physical Healing" presented by Fr. Matthias Thelen with commentary by Dr. Ralph Martin and Dr. Mary Healy; and "A Bishop Prays the Deliverance Prayers" by Bishop David O'Connell.

Each preceding bulletin will contain expanded information on the upcoming presentation. All are invited to come, be healed, and, in turn, bring healing to our families, our Church, and the world.

Shroud of Turin Debate
Wednesday, September 30 at 7:00 p.m.
Best Western University Inn

Calling all Christians, curiosity junkies, and cacophonous attendees alike. Come one, come all! A show like you have not yet seen before; truly, because it's Vandal Catholic's first annual debate, but more specifically in the profundity of topic selected, the passion of the debaters, the buzzing swarm of the crowd, the rise and fall of emotion, elocution, and enthusiasm as the very authenticity of one of the world's most famous relics is put on trial.

In one corner, a Catholic board certified Emergency Physician, former Stanford Medical School faculty with teaching appointments at the universities of Washington and North Carolina, amongst others, and highly sought after speaker for the Magis Center, R. Scott French, MD, FACEP. In the other corner his opponent, a bestselling author of fiction, nonfiction, and picture books, film producer, director of Camperdown Writer's Kiln, and Fellow of Literature at New St. Andrew's College, N.D. Wilson; in between them a man in a suit with questions and a microphone.

To miss this is to miss much; so don't.

Often when we honestly look within our own hearts we see how the past events of our lives affect us today. We invite you to come and gain insight into the power, the hope, and the complexity of healing through forgiveness.
