Fourth Sunday of Lent ~ March 14, 2021

Pastor

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We've made it about half-way through our semester and Lent! Our students are mostly away, some on mission trips, others getting much needed R&R. There is much in store when they get back: a couple more major speakers this semester, a retreat, and most importantly, Holy Week and Easter!

We're continuing with making plans for renovations, and potential additions, to St. Augustine's. The pastoral council has been brainstorming ideas for facilities that will support our evangelization efforts, the finance council has been providing financial advice, the development committee has been suggesting ways to have a successful capital campaign, and our newly formed design committee is helping coordinate the design process. I've also been setting aside time to get feedback from our staff and volunteers. There will be ample opportunity in a variety of ways to provide feedback as we go through this discernment process over the coming months, including proposed surveys, public discussions, and a review process. Please watch our website and this bulletin for the latest information.

I'll be away in Boise this coming week for priest meetings, the annual Chrism Mass, and development work. Please check the online calendar for the changes to our liturgical schedule. Our office will also be closed on Monday and Friday so that the staff can have some well-earned rest.

Lenten blessings,

Fr. Chase Hasenoehrl
