Fourth Sunday of Easter ~ April 25, 2021

Pastor

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Easter season continues on for a few more weeks, and I pray that the joy of His Resurrection continues to resonate in your lives. We've celebrated much these last few weeks, the reception of four new Catholics at the Easter Vigil, First Communions, and Confirmations. The Lord is busy at work in our community, and there is much spiritual fruit to be seen! I want to thank all those who've helped to form and prepare those who have received sacraments this Easter season. Your hard work and witness is essential to growing the faith in our parish.

This weekend, after the Sunday 10:30 a.m. Mass, we'll have a coffee hour in honor of Amy McNelly. While she'll continue to practice her faith here at St. Augustine's as a parishioner, she'll no longer be on staff as our Executive Director. We wish her the very best of luck in her new position at Palouse Care Network. Please take the opportunity to thank her for her hard work here these past few years.

This coming week, I'll be out of town for medical appointments at the Cleveland Clinic. As some of you may know, I've had a number of autoimmune symptoms over the last year, and I'm hoping to find some answers from the doctors there. I'll be back in time for next Sunday Mass! Next Sunday, I'll share our plans for staff adjustments as we continue to work to serve all in our university community with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In the joy of the Resurrection!

Fr. Chase Hasenoehrl
