14th & 15th Sundays in Ordinary Time ~ July 4 & 11, 2021

Pastor

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Happy Independence Day! We should especially celebrate the freedom for religion that our ancestors fought to establish and preserve. It is a true blessing, and not one shared by all around the world, to be able to gather and worship as we best see fit.

I'm very happy to be home after a very productive month-and-a-half doing part-time doctoral work at Oxford. Our summer liturgy schedule will begin with daily Masses on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 11:30 a.m. and Saturday at 9:00 a.m. in the Extraordinary Form. On Thursdays, daily Mass will be offered at St. Mary's in Potlatch at 6:30 p.m. As always, check our Google calendar online to stay up-to-date with the latest exceptions.

I'm very happy to announce that we have hired a new Communications Officer. It was truly providential in a number of ways. Anna Kreslins will take up the position and begin on July 19th. Besides coordinating communications and marketing efforts for all the various activities of our parish (including campus ministry, development, religious education, and Monica's Coffee Bar), she will be helping with some of our campus ministry, especially with music and young women's ministry. Anna was a Freshman here at the U of I before discerning a call to Carmel. The Lord ended up having other plans for her, and we're happy to welcome her back, now as a member of our ministry team.

As was previously announced, we also have our new Director of Philanthropy, John Pawelek, beginning this Wednesday, July 7th. The student center and church will be open everyday, from at least 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. until we expand our hours when the Fall semester begins next month.

Finally, we're still looking for baristas for Monica's Coffee Bar. If you or anyone you know are passionate about coffee and Catholicism, please submit the application as found on our website, vandalcatholic.com.

Blessings in Christ,
Fr. Chase Hasenoehrl

PS-We're welcoming newly-ordained Fr. Joshua Falce to offer a Mass of Thanksgiving this weekend. He went to the seminary from our parish a number of years ago, and we're happy to see what the Lord has done with his 'yes'!
