Catholic Campaign for Human Development
Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano

Please be generous in this week's special collection for the catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, one in six people lives in poverty. With this collection, you support programs that address the causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those struggling across the country. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect will remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and work on margins. More information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

Today Gospel Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?' And the king will say to them in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me.' Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you accursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, a stranger and you gave me no welcome, naked and you gave me no clothing, ill and in prison, and you did not care for me.' Then they will answer and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison, and not minister to your needs?' what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.' And these will go off to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life."

DID YOU KNOW?

Keeping children safer online

While we continue to develop our understanding of the impact of Covid-19 and social distancing on child safety, we also know that more time online means increased risk of more direct access to children for those intending to harm them. From online enticement to sexting and sextortion, it is critical that we combine efforts to protect children from online risks. The National Center for Missing & Exploited Children in partnership with the White House have launched a new campaign to raise awareness about safeguarding children online. Visit <https://safetypledge.org/> for more information and to learn about the tools available to help parents and other trusted adults keep children safer online.

¿SABÍA USTED?

Manteniendo a los niños más seguros en línea

Mientras seguimos entendiendo el impacto de Covid-19 y el distanciamiento social en la seguridad de los niños, sabemos que más tiempo en la Internet significa mayor riesgo de los niños para que tengan acceso directo a quienes los quieren dañar. Desde la tentación en línea, hasta los textos sexuales y la extorsión sexual, es muy importante que combinemos esfuerzos para proteger a los niños de los riesgos en Internet. El Centro Nacional para Niños Desaparecidos y Explotados, en sociedad con la Casa Blanca, han lanzado una nueva campaña para elevar la conciencia sobre la protección de los niños en línea. Visite <https://safetypledge.org/> para obtener más información y para aprender sobre herramientas disponibles para ayudar a los padres de familia y a otros adultos confiables para mantener a los niños seguros en línea.
