LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR/CARTA DE NUESTRO PARROCO

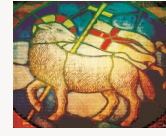

Dear Parishioners,

Today, the Second Sunday of Ordinary Time we begin a journey with Our Lord in his public ministry. We will hear each Sunday from the Gospel according to Matthew or John in the year ahead. St. John Chrysostom, an important early Church Father (+407) wrote eloquently about the Gospel according to Matthew:

“With the help of God we are going to enter a golden city, more precious than all the gold the world contains. Let us notice what its foundations are made of, and find its gates to be composed of sapphires and precious stones. In Matthew we have the best of guides. Matthew is the door by which we enter, and we must enter eagerly... Let us open the gates of our soul, let us open our ears, and as we prepare reverently to cross its threshold, let us adore the King who holds sway therein. What immense splendor shall we not find when we enter!”

St. Matthew was the first to write the Gospel in the year 50. One of the themes of the Gospel is the divine nature of Christ. It affirms that Jesus, the Christ, is the Son of God. As we participate in the Holy Mass throughout the year and hear from Matthew, we can renew our faith in the divine nature of Christ and receive the Holy Eucharist with even greater attention that it is the living presence of Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God.

Your Pastor,
Father David.

Estimados feligreses,

Hoy, el segundo domingo del tiempo ordinario, comenzamos un viaje con Nuestro Señor en su ministerio público. Escucharemos cada domingo El Evangelio según Mateo o Juan en el año venidero. San Juan Crisóstomo, un importante padre primitivo de la Iglesia (+407) escribió elocuentemente sobre el Evangelio según Mateo:

“Con la ayuda de Dios, vamos a entrar en una ciudad dorada, más preciosa que todo el oro que contiene el mundo. Observemos de qué están hechos sus cimientos y encontremos sus puertas compuestas de zafiros y piedras preciosas. En Matthew tenemos la mejor de las guías. Mateo es la puerta por la que entramos, y debemos entrar con entusiasmo ... Abramos las puertas de nuestra alma, abramos nuestros oídos, y mientras nos preparamos con reverencia para cruzar su umbral, adoremos al Rey que domina allí. ¡Qué inmenso esplendor no encontraremos cuando entremos!”

San Mateo fue el primero en escribir el Evangelio en el año 50. Uno de los temas del Evangelio es la naturaleza divina de Cristo. Afirma que Jesús, el Cristo, es el Hijo de Dios. A medida que participamos en la Santa Misa durante todo el año y escuchamos a Mateo, podemos renovar nuestra fe en la naturaleza divina de Cristo y recibir la Sagrada Eucaristía con una atención aún mayor de que es la presencia viva de Jesús, el Cristo, el Hijo de Dios.

Su pastor
Padre David
