Happy Fathers’ Day!

A husband, father and son of God

By Greg Rahim, parishioner

In 2015, I found myself in the most tumultuous time of my life. My wife and I were married in March, our first child was born in July, and just a few days later, I lost my mother after her 30-month battle with breast cancer.

Now a new husband, father and emerging from loss of my mother, I felt lost on many levels. Throughout my upbringing, my parents always instilled the importance of faith. I knew there had not been a time in my life where I needed to find my faith more, in order to be the husband, father and son of God that I wanted to be.

My wife and I decided to join RCIA at Saint Laurence, as family.

We started weekly RCIA classes with Justin and Monica and learned so much about the Catholic faith and heard the journeys of others. Fr. Drew spent many Saturday mornings with us, as did so many other great people in the church, including our sponsor couple, Claire and Dan Smith. They all gave us faith and the strength we needed. RCIA gave us a great foundation on the Catholic faith, insight on how to communicate effectively in our marriage, guidance on raising our family and being parents. Mostly, it taught us about being Christians and children of God.

At the 2016 Easter Vigil, our 8-month-old son and I were baptized. Also, my wife Valentina, who had been baptized Russian Orthodox, gave her Profession of Faith and was received into the Church. It was without a doubt the most special moment we had shared as a family.

What overwhelmed us both was the absolute love and support we received from so many people at Saint Laurence. We knew it was only the beginning of our journey as Catholics. What we’ve learned at Saint Laurence has affected not only our direct family, but also how we interact with our extended family, our friends and so many more. We are so grateful and blessed to have found such a wonderful parish to be a part of.

Fathers, if you are interested in growing in your faith – or if you wish to complete your Sacraments or become Catholic, like Greg – contact Justin Frato at jfrato@stlaurence.org or 281-265-5774.

Happy Fathers’ Day!

Contact Sara Sahlezghi at ssahlezghi@stlaurence.org. Confirmation is open to sophomores and juniors in high school. Teens who do not attend Catholic School should attend Life Nights (HS religious education) for at least a year prior to beginning preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation, to ensure they have been catechized and are prepared for the journey to Confirmation.

MEET ANNIE DONOVAN
Annie Donovan joins our parish staff this summer as a Youth Ministry Summer Intern. She will go to Steubenville South next weekend with our 224 teens and be around all summer to assist Kris, Eric and Sarah.

WHO: My name is Annie Donovan, and I grew up going to St. Laurence! My parents are Mark & Diedra, and I have a brother, Drew and sister, Claire.

ST. LAURENCE CONNECTION: I attended the Weekday Children’s Program, CCE, Edge, Life Teen, and received my Baptism, First Communion, First Reconciliation, and Confirmation at St. Laurence. When I was involved with Life Teen in high school, a group of us went to Loaves and Fishes to serve the homeless in downtown Houston. It was one of my first experiences serving others, and it opened my eyes to the person of Christ alive in the poor.

SCHOOL: I’m currently a senior at The University of Texas at Austin, studying psychology. I went to Elkins High School.

ON THE INTERNSHIP: I knew that I wanted to work in ministry in some aspect this summer, but I also wanted to be home with my family. This internship allows me to experience what full-time youth ministry entails, while also allowing me to spend time with my family. I know I will be inspired by the teens here at St. Laurence. They desire to know the Lord deeply, and I truly hope their zeal and eagerness will fuel the fire of my own relationship with Christ.

FAVORITE VERSE: John 21:15-19

FUN STUFF: I love to read, drink good coffee, and listen to the Hamilton soundtrack.

I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: LOVE ONE ANOTHER.

John 21:15-19

See the flyer (opposite) for more info and to register for your free account.

Daily Challenge for Married Couples

Pope Francis’ Amoris Laetitia (Joy of Love) came out on April 8. How much have you read? Join AL Bootcamp, read a small bit from Chapter 4 (Love in Marriage) and ask you to do something related to it for your marriage every day! www.foryourmarriage.org

“Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, with all malice” (Eph 4:31).

Pope Francis: “We encounter problems whenever we think that relationships or people ought to be perfect, or when we put ourselves at the center and expect things to turn out our way. Then everything makes us impatient, everything makes us react aggressively. Unless we cultivate patience, we will always find excuses for responding angrily. We will end up incapable of living together, antisocial, unable to control our impulses, and our families will become battlegrounds” (Amoris Laetitia, no. 92).

Today: How many times do you find yourself frustrated at the imperfections of others in your family? Today, when something doesn’t go your way (and there will always be something!) tell yourself to stay calm and put it in perspective. Will it matter tomorrow?

LIVE TO GLORIFY GOD!
Stewardship Reflection for the 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today’s Gospel Jesus tells his disciples that if they wish to follow him they must deny themselves and take up his cross daily. In Jesus’ time the cross was not something nice or cool that one could hang on the wall or around one’s neck. It was an instrument of torture and execution. His point: We are to lay down our lives and let him take control. Good stewards hand over their lives to Jesus no matter the cost. They realize that all they take with them into the next life is their relationship with Christ Jesus. What are we pursuing? A life that tries to bring fulfillment to ourselves or a life that brings us closer to Jesus?

STEWARDS AMONG US

DANNY KLEIBERT

Danny is a husband and a father of two who moved here from Louisiana in 2009. He says, “God blesses us with the ability to help others and share our spirit with them. The blessing we receive is the satisfaction of seeing the recipients of our efforts share that joy. I am currently a Knight with the St. Laurence Council and Cubmaster of St. Laurence Pack 1828. I also coach youth soccer for the Eclipse Soccer Club recreational program. So often now as parents, we struggle to find the time to dedicate to spending with our families. Cub Scouts is family oriented. We invite the entire family to all of our events! Pack 1828 is the only Catholic Cub Scout Pack in our District and next year we will open our religious award program to other Packs so they can receive their awards at a Catholic Mass as our boys do. Being a Knight helps me grow my Catholic faith as an adult and give back to many groups through community service. I have met so many wonderful families and friends through both ministries.”

Ask Paula

Q.
What’s the difference between an Acolyte and a sacristan?

A.
Our sacristans are employees of St. Laurence. They get to the church about an hour before Mass starts so they can set up the altar, light the candles, and find people to bring the gifts up during Mass (so if you ever want to do this, ask them). Also, if you need communion brought to you at your pew, please let them know. After Mass, sacristans put the Gather books back in the pew holder thing and clean up anything people left in pews, like tissues (yuck) or Cheerios. (So, let’s pickup after ourselves, right?) The Acolytes are the well-dressed men who direct the Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. They tell them where to stand and then reset the altar after Mass. Sounds like an easy job, just saying. They are instituted by the diocese to assist the deacon and minister to the priest, but they are NOT employees.

Paula Savo has been our Parish Receptionist for over 19 years and knows the practical answers to (practically) everything. Call or email her at psavo@stlaurence.org.

5 Ways to Celebrate the Fortnight for Freedom

Pray
Hold a prayer vigil for religious freedom. Eucharistic adoration, the Rosary, and the Divine Mercy Chaplet and all be forms of intercession for our country and our first freedom. The U.S. bishops have made prayer resources available at www.fortnightforfreedom.org.

Learn
Catholic teaching on religious freedom is rich and has much to offer our culture today. Consider getting a study group together to read and discuss what religious freedom is really all about. Resources are available at www.fortnightforfreedom.org.

Or, consider hosting a religious freedom movie night at your house or parish. Films can be a great way to learn about and reflect on our faith. Here are a few suggestions:

- A Man for All Seasons, about the martyrdom of St. Thomas More
- For Greater Glory, about the struggle for religious freedom in Mexico
- First Freedom: The Fight for Religious Liberty, a PBS video about religious freedom
- Becket, about 12th century English martyr St. Thomas à Becket, the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Gather
Get together and celebrate religious freedom with a parish picnic or barbecue. Hand out religious freedom conversation starters as a way to spur discussion about our first, most precious liberty.

Pilgrimage
Join Catholics from all over the country in the nation’s capital on July 4 at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception to pray for our country and for our Church.

Share!
We want to hear from you! Share pictures of Fortnight celebrations in your area on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram using the hashtag #Fortnight4Freedom. Your picture might make it to our website!

PARDON OUR DUST!

This summer, you might notice construction work being done around the parish courtyard and on the main playground at the school. These improvements were identified in the Facilities Master Planning process and we are now remodeling the Music Room to create an improved space and acoustics for our choir rehearsals. Additionally, the courtyard PreK classrooms are getting a much-needed facelift with new flooring and new cabinets. And our school has been raising funds for several years to provide a more versatile playground for the schoolchildren.

GET TO KNOW NAMI

Millions of Americans face the day-to-day reality of living with mental illness. We get it. We’ve been there. We offer hope. NAMI embraces people living with mental illness and their families, who are often isolated. We offer understanding and support unique to those who are affected by these conditions. NAMI improves lives. We take a stand. We know that the path to recovery lies with individual, family and community education, peer support, common sense public policy and the promotion of public understanding.

Pat’s Story

My husband Ken and I have been facilitators for NAMI-Fort Bend since 2005. We have met many wonderful people who live with a mental health condition or who live with someone experiencing this tormenting illness. Our son Eric, was diagnosed with Bipolar disorder after many years of us believing he had ADD. We saw signs of anxiety even as a baby and as he grew, he had his first real panic attack at 13. We began counseling, but as a teen he found his own medication... illegal drugs. Finally after many struggles and at the age of 27, he was diagnosed with Bipolar Disorder. With the correct medication, a psychiatrist, and family support that understands the real physical illness that mental illness is, he lives independently, works and lives a full life. This is not an easy journey, but we know that treatment works and NAMI has given us the courage and hope to know that we are not alone.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

God Makes All Things New

Father's Day isn’t easy for those who have lost a child to abortion… “There is a myth in society that says men don’t care. Or that men are untouched by the experience. My experience of having listened to men’s stories over the years is that the scenarios are much more complicated.” – a post-abortion counselor. But if you give Him the broken pieces, God can make all things new. God never stops loving us, and is always ready to forgive a contrite heart. The Lord is close to the broken-hearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit (Psalm 34:18). For post-abortion healing, call 713-741-8728 for Project Rachel in Houston, or www.TheUnChoice.com/men.

GRIEF SUPPORT MINISTRY

The sadness that comes from experiencing the loss of a loved one can leave us frozen in place, just trying to cope with everyday life. The Grief Support Ministry meets in the Ave Maria Center, every Tuesday night from 6:30-8:30pm, as well as every Wednesday morning from 10:00am-12:00noon. We are a group of compassionate lay people who also have experienced the death of someone we dearly loved. Join us, because no one should grieve alone! Please contact Sandy Barber at 281-633-9090 or help2grieve@hotmail.com.

THANK YOU FROM OUR COSTA RICA MEDICAL MISSION

The Medical Missionaries of Divine Mercy would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to all those who contributed financially and spiritually to make the 2016 Costa Rica Mission a success. We could not do this without your support.

From April 16 to April 23, we established a base of operations in Grano De Oro, a small village in the sub-tropical part of Costa Rica. The team from Houston consisted of 42 medical, dental, spiritual and lay personnel. Local pharmacists, dentists, priest, missionaries, and Cabecar translators joined us and we were so grateful for their support. We treated approximately 600 patients; most were local indigenous Cabecar Indians who travel for hours by foot or horse to arrive at our location. Free services included pediatrics, general medicine, chiropractic, vision screening and new glasses, audiology, and dental services. Our own Dr Cumberbatch assisted a Cabecar mom deliver a new baby girl, christened Sofia. This was a first! Spiritual services included morning daily mass for the mission team, and evening mass and healing prayer services, which were open to the community.

We were all thankful to return home safely, tired, but so spiritually filled. We are thankful for you, our fellow parishioners, and look forward to your continued support so that together, we can continue to minister to people in need and spread God’s word through actions and prayers!

The Medical Missionaries of Divine Mercy are planning their next mission to Laredo, November 5-12. To learn more about this mission trip, please contact Maria Jacobson at 713-582-8424, mjacobson1984@yahoo.com.
