PRAYING THE NEWS | DECEMBER 18, 2016

Joseph her husband, …unwilling to expose her to shame...
Matthew 1:19

O Lord, you know all that we do not know. You said, “Judge not…” St. Joseph lovingly refused to subject your mother to shame, though he did not yet know the full truth of your divine conception. We pray for all those - in the news and unknown - who suffer from bullying, shaming and fake news. Please bring a renewed commitment to empathy and treating others as we wish to be treated. St. Joseph, pray for us!
Amen. †

A Prayer for Preparation

St. Francis,
You spent many hours preparing a Nativity scene that would remind the world how the Infant Jesus came to us in poverty. Please help me find time to prepare well for the great feast of Christmas. Show me how to clean out my heart – sweeping away envy, unrealistic expectations and activities that distract me too much from the true purpose of Advent. Guide me in making good decisions about how I spend my time and my dollars during these days of waiting and preparing. As I look upon the empty manger where Christ was born, inspire me to live humbly and simply. Intercede for me, so my preparations this Advent make a lasting difference in my life.

Amen.

Merry Christmas!
In today’s Gospel we hear of the coming of Emmanuel, which means “God is with us.” We celebrate three Advents: the birth of Christ, his Second Coming, and his presence in the world today. Our daily lives are attended by God’s presence. Indeed, “God is with us.” The Good News of Christ’s Incarnation is that we are the sign, “sacrament,” of Christ’s presence in the world. People are supposed to see us, see how we love one another, see how we treat the stranger among us, give comfort to the poor and afflicted, share the Good News with joy. They see how good stewards are the light of Christ. And there can be no possible response except to say: “God is here!”

STEWARDS AMONG US

MARINA FLORES

Marina and her husband Art moved here from the Rio Grande Valley, making their home in Sugar Land and at St. Laurence for nearly 30 years. Marina tells her story: “I became involved with the Cancer Support Group after my personal encounter with kidney cancer. I was blessed with great doctors and a hopeful outcome; however, I was changed. I was suddenly unsure of myself, sad. I did not want to worry my family, so I felt I could not speak freely about what I was feeling. I saw the note in the bulletin about Cancer Support and started attending meetings… I told my story… I felt I was standing still while everyone whizzed by me. I cried at every meeting until one day, I just stopped. The Cancer Support Group had wrapped its arms around me and prayed for me and with me. They helped me heal, my heart and my mind. Now, I am one of the group that is there for others, to listen and pray. I give my phone number to new members and ask them to call whenever they need an ear. I am also a memory keeper, as the group’s photographer.” Marina invites others affected by cancer to join them. You’ll discover the journey is easier in community.

I repeat forcefully: it is neither a culture of confrontation nor a culture of conflict which builds harmony within and between peoples, but rather a culture of encounter and a culture of dialogue; this is the only way to peace.

Ask Paula

Q. What days will the church office be closed for holidays?

A. Okay, so we are closed Friday, Dec 23, Monday, Dec 26, Friday Dec 30, and Monday, Jan 2. WOW! Of course, I always take the rest of my vacation in December, so I’m off starting Dec 19, just saying. I’m not going to list all the Christmas Mass times like I always do, ‘cause by now you guys know them, right? But wait, you know I always have something to say, so here it is: We all know how crowded the Christmas Masses are! Last year I stood up while a small child played with a toy in the pew. Another time I stood because a lady had her mink coat folded in the pew. Maybe this year we all can make room so people can actually sit? Thanks. Merry Christmas!

Saying Yes Together
Matthew 1.18-24

Joseph is trapped in an unthinkable scenario: Mary, to whom he is betrothed, is pregnant. Joseph is faced with a decision. Then he receives a sign from God. In a dream an angel reassures him that the child to be born is part of God’s plan and that Joseph is called to care for him and his mother. When we think of the Annunciation, usually Mary and her response to God come to our minds. In Matthew’s story, Joseph is brought to the forefront. God’s plan depends upon both Mary and Joseph.

Isn’t the same true for us? God’s presence in our world is dependent upon our “yes”; God’s presence is often revealed in our lives through people who are close to us. Often, it is difficult to say “yes,” to be the persons we’re created to be, without the partnership, support, and encouragement of others.

“If God, in the Christmas mystery, reveals himself not as One who remains on high and dominates the universe, but as the One who bends down, descends to the little and poor earth, it means that, to be like him, we should not put ourselves above others, but indeed lower ourselves, place ourselves at the service of others, become small with the small and poor with the poor.”
— Pope Francis, December 18, 2013

POINTS TO PONDER

Have I ever felt guided by angels or by God in making decisions?

When have I said “yes,” enabling God to become present in a very real way in my life or the life of another?

Who are the persons who are/have been intertwined with my holiness, my response to live as a follower of Jesus?
The feast of St. John Kanty (d. 1473), a lesser-known saint, is tucked in just before Christmas, on December 23. As a professor of theology in Kraków, Poland, he was a serious, humble person, totally at the service of the poor. One day, John Kanty was robbed. He replied “no” when the thieves asked if he had more money hidden that they were not finding. Later that day, he discovered a few coins buried deep within his pocket. He quickly set out to find the robbers, giving them these remaining coins. Experiencing this mind-boggling generosity, the robbers’ response was to return all that they had originally taken.

Be excessive this week, not in purchasing more gifts, additional decorations, or more food, but in the giving of your time, presence, and response to the needs of others.

3 Ways to Practice Advent Joy

Place the word “yes” on your nightstand, your refrigerator, etc., to remind yourself how you say yes to God.

Write a letter of thanks to someone who has walked with you in your journey of the Catholic faith.

Do you know someone who is grieving the loss of a loved one, chronically ill, worried, unemployed, or discouraged? Think of some way to include them in your twelve-days-of-Christmas plans.

Christmas doesn’t end on December 25. The Twelve Days of Christmas are the days from Christmas until the Epiphany (traditionally January 6th). These twelve days are an opportunity to continue reflecting on Christ’s incarnation among us, celebrate several important feast days, and celebrate family rituals. Take time this week to decide on something you will do on each of the days. For example, read a book about the Christmas story; visit a living Nativity; picnic next to the Christmas tree; go through your Christmas cards, praying for each person by name; visit an elderly person; or take Christmas bread to a shut-in.

Advent Prayer

God of Love, thank you for the people in my life who support my relationship with you. Together may we continue to answer “yes,” bringing your love to our world at Christmastime and each and every day.

Catechism CONNECTION

“Only when Christ is formed in us will the mystery of Christmas be fulfilled in us. Christmas is the mystery of this ‘marvelous exchange’: ‘O marvelous exchange! Man’s Creator has become man, born of the Virgin. We have been made sharers in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share our humanity’ (Liturgy of the Hours).”

— Catechism of the Catholic Church, 526

NEED A NEW YEAR’S RESOLUTION?

Consecrate Yourself to Mary! At the 2016 Heart of Worship, Bishop Cahill encouraged us to consecrate ourselves to Mary. The Spiritual Growth Ministry will facilitate this DIY Retreat beginning early January and ending Feb 11, the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. The preparation book, 33 Days to Morning Glory, by Fr. Michael Gaitley, tells us how to do this based on the wisdom of St. Louis De Montfort, St. Maximilian Kolbe, St. Teresa of Calcutta and St. John Paul II. The 6-week sessions start Thursday, January 5 (10:00-11:30AM, Corpus Christi Room) OR Monday January 9 (6:30-8:00PM, AMC Room 201). Each session includes a video presentation, group discussion and the daily readings. The book may be purchased from Mary Regina. RSVP to Paul Cranley at pecranley@hotmail.com or 979-236-5906.

YEAR END GIFTS TO YOUR PARISH

As the end of 2016 nears please prayerfully consider making a financial gift before December 31, to gain an additional tax deduction from the IRS:

- Offertory — As our parish continues to grow so do our expenses. No gift is too small and every gift is important.
- Diocesan Services Fund (DSF) — This important program touches lives all over our archdiocese in ways that could never be addressed by one parish alone. Our parish and our parishioners receive many benefits from the DSF.
- Christmas Flowers — Make a donation to the Christmas Flower Fund which allows for our church to be decorated so beautifully during the Christmas season. Give your gift in memory of or in honor of a loved one.

BLACK BAG COLLECTION TODAY!

This Sunday’s black bag collection will be used for our People in Crisis fund which is averaging more than $9,000 a month in financial assistance to individuals who come to Social Concerns for help or are referred to us by our community partners. Thank you for your generous support of these 2nd collections to help so many in need!

IN THANKSGIVING (PART 4)

It takes so many volunteers to accomplish all that we do in the Social Concerns Ministry. There are so many behind the scenes volunteers who so generously give their time and make our job so much easier! Here is Part 4 of our callout to all of these volunteers, with BIG THANKS from Pennie, Melanie and Monica in SCM...

Thank you to one of our largest ministries, the Medical Missionaries of Divine Mercy. Maria Jacobson & Herb Appel and their team of volunteers travel to Laredo every fall to minister to those in need of basic medical and dental care. They served 1,333 patients this year – a record number! Look for information coming soon for their second mission trip to Costa Rica in April of 2017.

Imagine serving your country thousands of miles from home, in the very center of harm’s way every hour of every day. Now imagine receiving a package filled with items such as toiletries, games, magazines and snacks to help make your stay a little bit more bearable. Thanks to your generous donations to our Military Ministry and coordinator, Lisa D’Oliver, hundreds of boxes are shipped each year via Tip of the Spear to servicemen and women.

Every Monday morning, Our Daily Bread volunteers package bread and bagels donated by Panera Bread, Bagel Express and Great Harvest Baking Company, which are in turn donated to Bethel Ministries to be distributed to families in need. Every week, four volunteers pick up the bread and deliver it to Social Concerns. Thank you Terri Leong, Elizabeth Jaros, Melissa Schroer and Chuck Lovelace and to our Monday morning volunteers who help us on extra projects all through the year!

Be a part of Social Concerns! There is a special way for you to serve. Contact Melanie in the Social Concerns office at mhartshorn@stlaurence.org or 281-980-9812.

COORDINATOR NEEDED

SCM is in search of a passionate and energetic individual, dedicated Small Christian Community or group to coordinate the birthday and holiday parties for the elderly residents at Sugar Land Health Care Center in Sugar Land. This coordinator is responsible for coordinating a party every other month (Friday at 2:30pm) for all the residents who have had a birthday, including serving cupcakes or cookies. Contact Pennie DeGroot at pdegroot@stlaurence.org for more info. And THANK YOU to Asumta Affonso for her dedication and for the love she has shown the seniors at SLHC over the past year!

LEARN ENGLISH TEACHERS NEEDED

Find out how rewarding it is to teach English to immigrants from all over the world. We need volunteer teachers to teach adults to improve their English, thereby helping them to get better jobs, parent their English-speaking children and become US citizens, to name just a few benefits. No experience is needed; we will train you and provide teaching materials. For more info and to begin being a part of this ministry, contact Wendy Moore, learnenglishministry.slc@gmail.com.

DEC 28: FEAST OF HOLY INNOCENTS

We invite you to join the Helpers of God’s Precious Infants in a peaceful, prayerful, Mass and Rosary on Wednesday, December 28, the Feast of the Holy Innocents. The Mass for Life will be at 12:10pm at Holy Rosary Catholic Church (3617 Milam, Houston) followed by Rosary at Houston Women’s (4820 San Jacinto), the busiest abortion clinic in Houston. Parking available along Caroline Street.

DID YOU KNOW?

It is estimated that over 500,000 embryos are created every year in the U.S. through the process of in vitro fertilization. For every 100 children created, however, 39 will die outside the womb, 36 will die in the womb, 14 remain frozen and only 11 are born.

SUPPORT AFTER A MISCARRIAGE

If you have suffered the loss of a child through miscarriage, please stop by the parish office to receive a memory bracelet to remember your child, plus a prayer card and contact info if you wish to speak to others who have suffered such a loss. For more info, contact Marie McCoy at 281-265-7749.

GO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

H4H: SPRING BUILD UPDATE

Please think of the St. Laurence Habitat for Humanity Ministry as this year comes to a close. Currently, we are $30,000 short of our sponsorship need in order to build our 12th home this coming spring in Richmond. The family for which we hope to provide a safe, decent home has two young children and is living in a dilapidated rental home. The front door is rotted and does not close, which poses a constant safety issue for the family. They also have mold in the kitchen and bathroom. You may drop your donation of at the parish office or in the collection basket. Please make your check payable to St. Laurence with “Habitat For Humanity” in the memo line. The need is very real and together our Parish family has been an important sustaining sponsor of the Habitat for Humanity mission. God bless you!

TEENS IN TOUCH CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS AT FBFP

The St. Laurence Teens in Touch celebrated Christmas with games and treats at Fort Bend Family Promise on Saturday, December 3. This event was held with the proceeds of the bake sale the teens hosted last spring. The residents enjoyed hot chocolate and cookies while they decorated gingerbread houses, played bingo and had their face painted. Each family received a $10 gift card to a local restaurant. The teens were excited to provide this fun activity and spend time with the residents to brighten up a cold and rainy Saturday afternoon!

WISH UPON A STAR

Christmas Gift Drive

THANK YOU for your continued and overwhelming support of the Wish Upon A Star drive. Due to your generosity and kindness, we were able to provide over 2,000 Christmas gifts to those in need throughout our community. Thanks to Frances Conway and her team of volunteers for time spent sorting, wrapping and boxing the gifts. Thanks to David & Rebecca Wells with Victory Packaging for donating boxes to pack the gifts!

MEDICAL MISSION REPORT & THANKS

On the recent Laredo mission trip, we ministered to 1,333 patients in just under 5 days (not including all the people seen by the spiritual team). Our spiritual team of four worked the longest hours, starting with the Rosary and Liturgy of the Hours for the missionaries at 6:00am and ending at 9:30pm with an evening healing Mass each day. Our dental team of 4 dentists from Sugar Land (plus 2 Laredo dentists and 2 hygienists) saw 430 patients and managed 1,025 procedures. Our vision team, with the help of one optometrist, who was there 1-1/2 days, saw 39 patients. We had an amazing 8 doctors and 6 nurses that went with us and came from as far as Florida. We took numerous donations of medical supplies, walkers, crutches, and wheelchairs, which were all used.

Overall, the bonds and friendships formed are unforgettable. To the people of Laredo, we thank you for welcoming us and allowing us to touch your lives! To all the medical professionals, we thank you and pray that God will bless you for sharing your talents. And to all the missionaries and donors of MMDM you are "good and faithful servants"! May God Bless you! - Maria Jacobson, MMDM
