JUNE 17, 2018

Dads, we depend upon you and we love you! You are our protectors, providers, fixers and champions. To your kids, you are larger than life and we look to you for strength, encouragement, unconditional love and support. Your influence on us lasts a lifetime.

This is especially true when it comes to the spiritual life of the family. Studies show that only 2% of children will attend church regularly as an adult if their father did not go to church. This compares to nearly 80% who will attend church as an adult if their father went to church regularly.

You are Your Family’s Spiritual Leader

You can do this. But in order to be a spiritual leader, you must know the faith and be able to explain it. Then like any good leader, your actions must support your words. So, dig into your faith, participate in the Sacraments, engage in parish life and love your wife and children as Christ loves the Church – completely, unconditionally and sacrificially.

How to Be a Spiritual Leader for Your Family

Leading the family spiritually is not the sole responsibility of the father nor the mother. Both are intended to lead together.

- Pray with your wife; bring God into your marriage
- Pray with your children
- Lead your family to Mass each Sunday
- Sing at Mass; singing is praying twice, a visible witness to your engagement
- Lead prayer before each meal
- Discuss faith as a family
- Lead the family in service and outreach; demonstrate the importance of helping others
- Join a bible study or That Man Is You to grow in your faith

Ready to take the next step to be a spiritual leader of your family? Go to stlaurence.org/men to discover what we offer at St. Laurence or contact Roger Peters (713-857-8386), Steve Ewbank (281-703-3873), or Justin Frato (281-265-5774).

“...the kingdom of God...is like a mustard seed that ...springs up and becomes the largest of plants... so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade.”

MARK 4:30-32

O Lord, we mourn because there are more people taking their own lives these days – the famous and those less well known. You alone know their full stories and their hearts. Please protect the suffering from despair. Bring them aid and hope. Jesus, we trust in your great compassion, tender mercy, and the shelter of your kingdom on earth and in heaven. Amen.†

 Formation Toward Christian Ministry Summer Intensive

Monday, July 9–Friday, July 13, 2018, 9 am–4 pm, Ave Maria Center

Do you want to feel secure that you know the basic teachings of the Church and can correctly answer questions that come your way?

Join us at St Laurence as we offer the Formation Toward Christian Ministry (FTCM) program. This program offers basic theology and spiritual development to Catholic adults who want to deepen their commitment to Jesus and more fully answer their baptismal call to service as a mature disciple. All Catholic adults are invited who are seeking greater understanding of their faith, who are already engaged in ministry, and those discerning their call to church ministry. FTCM provides the theological content courses required for diocesan certification as a catechist, is a pre-requisite for catechetical leadership preparation, and youth ministry leadership training.

SEMIESTER 2 TOPICS OFFERED AT ST LAURENCE:

CATHOLIC BELIEFS: Basic concepts in Christian theology and doctrine

CHRISTOLOGY: Who the Church understand Jesus to be

SACRAMENTS: The Liturgy and Sacraments

Religious Freedom Week Begins June 22, 2018

Join Catholics across the country to pray and act for freedom. Learn more at www.usccb.org/ReligiousFreedomWeek

PRAY
Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher, for the protection of religious freedom in America and around the world.

REFLECT
On this feast of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher, we remember these saints who were martyred in 1535 for standing up for the sanctity of marriage and the freedom of the Church in opposition to England’s King Henry VIII. In our country today, the Church faces challenges to her freedom to serve in healthcare, child welfare services, and education. While we seek to be faithful to Christ by serving our neighbors, ignoring conscience cannot be the condition placed on people of faith for service in the public square. Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher show us what faithful service looks like. They loved and served their country. Yet they rightly recognized that they were being forced to choose between the Church and the king. They were faithful to the Church. May their example continue to illuminate the path for us, as we seek to faithfully serve our Church and country.

ACT
What do conscience and religious freedom mean to you? Share with us on Twitter using the hashtag #ReligiousFreedomWeek.
On tap: Gospel Fatherhood. What does it look like for a man to imitate Jesus Christ and lay down his life for his family? Let Gomer walk you through it with wisdom and humor.

A NIGHT FOR MEN TO FEED BODY AND SOUL

July 26, 7-9 pm
Marian Hall, AMC

Men of all ages are invited to St. Laurence on Thursday, July 26, for a BBQ dinner and powerful talk delivered by guest speaker Michael Gormley. Reserve your spot at stlaurence.org/brosandbrisket.

We will take up a free will offering.
In today’s Gospel, Jesus compares the beginning of God’s kingdom to a mustard seed. This tiny seed, which fits in the palm of a hand, can grow to fifteen feet with sprawling branches! Like the mustard seed, the Christian community had a tiny, seemingly insignificant beginning. The church, which began with about 120 followers, added three thousand people on Pentecost Day following the descent of the Holy Spirit. Since then, the number of Christ’s disciples has grown incalculably and continues to grow throughout the world. Good stewards go about God’s business of “planting seeds” among all those whom they encounter. What will we do this week to add to God’s kingdom?

Loving Christ is not a superficial sentiment.
It is an attitude of the heart that we demonstrate when we live as He wants us to.

MESSAGE OF GRATITUDE

Dear fellow parishioners, I want to both sincerely thank you and apologize for what occurred at Mass last month. I wasn’t feeling well and I needed to get home, but as I was leaving, I collapsed. Fortunately, there were so many fellow parishioners coming to my aid. If not for this beyond-generous gesture, it could have been much worse. I cannot stress enough how sorry I am for disrupting the Mass, but from the bottom of my heart, I thank each and every person for saving my life and allowing me more time in this world to spend with my family. I am truly grateful to God and everyone at St. Laurence. —Vicki

As many of you have read from previous bulletins, my husband Ken and I have been facilitators for a NAMI support group since 2005. We have a son Eric who lives with mental illness. The key word here is LIVES. We have met many wonderful people who live with a mental health condition or who live with someone experiencing this tormenting illness. During that time we have seen family after family come to our support group with a loss of hope as to what has happened to their brilliant young son or daughter who went to college in the fall and by Christmas or Spring Break had dropped out of class. So begins the journey of where do we turn and how can this be.

This illness is not an all or nothing kind of illness—there is a broad spectrum of severity. What we do know about mental illness is that 2/3 of individual experiencing mental illness do not seek help. This is due to the STIGMA of mental illness from our society and an internal stigma that individuals carry themselves. Who among us wants to declare I have a mental illness? How much easier it is to share I have diabetes, heart conditions, cancer. Mental illness is a brain condition. How is it that we can have heart attacks but do not have brain attacks? God made us a body, a whole body and that most definitely includes the brain. Those that suffer with this illness are treated differently. It is as if we feel they should be able to pull themselves together and act better. This is not an easy journey, but we know that Treatment works and NAMI has given us the courage and hope to know that we are not alone. Education about the illness is essential, resources are essential, knowing what to do in a crisis is essential. We have lost family members to suicide, death by police, just a pure lack of knowledge of what to do in a mental health crisis. We have a Crisis Intervention Team here in Fort Bend County and they have trained over 1000 officers in our county. Since they began here in Fort Bend County, they have helped thousands of families.

Please call: 911 and ask for Crisis Intervention Team or non-emergency 281-341-8540

We work in units, and is run by the members and volunteers. The only eligibility is an adult with any diagnosis of mental illness. St Laurence Social Concerns has been such a wonderful support to help us get started and we continue to grow. We are learning to garden, cook, type resumes, do budgets, create and develop brochures, newsletters and all other types of office work. We give back to our community by making pillows for Cancer patients and for children who are homeless.

We are living proof that with treatment and community support Mental Illness is an Illness that can be conquered and We Can Thrive! We at NAMI thank the St. Laurence Catholic Community for its commitment to help educate and support the general community of Fort Bend County about Mental Health Conditions by providing us the financial support and emotional support carry on these classes and support groups and the Hope Fort Bend Clubhouse!
