Simon said in reply, “Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets.” When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing.

GOOD NEWS REFLECTION

Pray: How beautiful it is to see Your works, Lord, through hearts that are docile to Your will! Give me the grace of following You, trusting You, and being obedient to Your voice. Amen.

THE BIG PICTURE

Very often, the Lord gives us help even when we don't ask for it. We see this in what he did for Simon Peter, James and John in this Sunday's Gospel reading, when he provided a great catch of fish for them.

What's his motive? Was he rewarding these fishermen for lending him one of their boats? Do you think he does good things for you as a reward?

Well, it's not a reward. There's a bigger picture.

Note the pattern of Christ's interaction with us as illustrated by this Gospel story:

- First, the fishermen already know Jesus; they call him "Master" because he's a master teacher and they are his students.
- Second, Jesus helps them in an unexpected way.
- Third, Jesus turns the gift into a calling.

Whenever God intervenes in our lives, he does it to benefit us and others. We belong to a community, God's family; we are not in relationship with God as isolated individuals. By connecting ourselves to God in prayer, in the Eucharist, and in worship, we are connecting ourselves to everyone else and to his concerns for them.

Our prayers for help are never answered only for our sake. God always sees a bigger picture. And he always cares about everyone who's affected.

If it seems like God isn't responding to your pleas, it's because he's working on a bigger plan. He's coordinating how the answer to your prayers will help others — many others.

God cares very much about your personal needs and desires, but he cares about everyone else, too, whether they ask for his help or not. And he is turning your needs into a calling, a ministry designed specifically for you. This means that the moment you begin asking for help, you are called by God to share his help with others.

By thinking beyond ourselves while waiting for our troubles to end, we find peace and hope and value in the hardships we endure. This is the vocation of daily life.

QUESTIONS FOR PERSONAL REFLECTION:

What prayer requests are you still waiting for God to answer? What might God be doing during this delay that could benefit others?

QUESTIONS FOR FAMILY & COMMUNITY FAITH SHARING:

Recall a time when God answered one of your prayers. Identify the four stages of divine intervention that are mentioned in this reflection.

"Put out into deep water and lower your nets..."

LUKE 5:4

Dear Lord, we come to you with the church in Texas having identified hundreds of clergy credibly accused of abusing children, and as your bishops prepare to gather in Rome to address this horrific problem. Please help them put out into the deep — to find empathy for the abused, repentance for past wrongs committed, and the way forward to restore the trust of your flock.

May our prayers personally go deep and sustain our faith.

Jesus, we trust in you. Amen. †

FEB 12 & 13: ELEMENTARY CCE THIS WEEK

How Does Jesus Teach us to Live a Moral Life? (Unit Evaluation/Review)

This week in CCE, we will finish up and review all of the material covered in our morality unit, including our Circle of Grace lessons. We will also announce our Spring service project, so be on the lookout for the details being sent home this week. Collections will be due at our upcoming CCE Masses on Feb. 26-27. As a family, practice the Circle of Grace meditation found on the Elementary CCE webpage of the parish website or visually on YouTube at https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=x4OzF7-VtVA. Practice the meditation with your child and remind them of God’s presence not only within each of us, but also around us in our respective Circle of Grace – i.e. the love and goodness of God that always surrounds each of us as children of God. As a family, consider the question - What would our world look like if we all lived believing and truly knowing that God is that close?

CCE HOME STUDY FAMILIES: Our next mandatory Parent Enrichment and Homework Checkpoint Meeting will be held next Monday, February 18, 6:30-8:30pm in the AMC Marian Hall. Due to the subject matter of this presentation, no children (under 18) will be admitted. For babysitting, please contact Play and Pray. What does primeval mean + what is this about? Primeval means most ancient or origins. We’ll study the first 12 chapters of Genesis from Creation to Babel — reading those chapters in the proper way. They’re not meant to be read as a “historical account” in modern terms, but rather as the history of a human race leading all the way up to and setting the stage for the Covenant with Abraham...

Not convinced this won’t be boring... how does this apply to my life?
Because foundation matters. If we start off on the wrong foot, we will not be going in the right direction. Those of us who want to be faithful to the biblical faith don’t necessarily know how to reconcile the Bible with science. Especially Genesis 1-2.

Austin will show us how Gen 1-2 is NOT incompatible with science. And how the origins of the universe, man and society in Genesis 1-12 set the whole stage for the rest of the bible — Old + New Testament. We’ll see how Pentecost is the undoing of the infamous tower of Babel. This is better than a video series because we have a live person who knows their stuff — more time for discussion.

Austin Cruz has been a parishioner of St. Laurence for over 20 years. He has a Bachelor of Arts in Theology & Philosophy from University of St. Thomas and his M.T.S. Master of Theological Studies from University of Notre Dame (2016). He previously worked in Campus Ministry at UST, and currently works as the Theology Teacher at Incarnate Word Academy.

ARISE

in the Church

“Tilling the Rocky Soil: Overcoming Obstacles to Love”

We are created for love and connection, but all of us have difficulties in experiencing the fullness of God’s love for us and living that vocation to love to the full. In this talk Fr. Sean will reflect on the Theology of the Body and his own experience of healing and conversion to help us find a path to concretely living a joy filled life.

Father Sean will give the first part of his presentation as the homily at all weekend Masses. Come hear the concluding part of his presentation at Arise immediately following Life Teen Mass.

Open to all teens and adults. No registration required.

PARENT WORKSHOP
Monday, Feb 18, 6:30-8:30pm
Marian Hall

“Equipping Families in the Battle Against the Epidemic of Pornography”

In the past, most parents could get away with protecting the innocence of their children with a minimal amount of direct education. Today, because of the increased availability of internet pornography and the lowering of moral standards in all forms of media, every parent must take a proactive role in educating their children about the truth, beauty, and goodness of God’s plan for love. Most importantly, parents don’t have to do this alone.

Fr. Sean will provide a Christ-centered framework for having these difficult conversations and provide resources to help get these conversations started.

Subject matter not appropriate for children.

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT: MARRIAGE PREPARATION MINISTRY SPONSOR COU-

As a married couple, would you like to make a difference in other couples’ lives and enrich your own marriage as well? Consider being a Sponsor Couple as part of the Marriage Preparation Ministry here at St. Laurence. Marriage Preparation is important for engaged couples and the most effective catechists are married sponsor couples who are already living the sacrament of matrimony.

Here at St. Laurence, the Sponsor Couple Program has been used successfully for many years. Here’s how it works: You are matched up with an engaged couple and meet with them at your home, generally for 5-6 meetings and you use materials that are provided. This one-on-one experience encourages sharing on topics that might be overlooked or avoided in a group setting and the bond that is created between the sponsor couple and the engaged couple is a great source of support for the engaged couple after they are married.

Be a Sponsor Couple! To learn more, please contact coordinators Sharon & John Harry at 281-980-8090 or sharanharry@comcast.net.

Meet with some of our Sponsor Couples at the Hospitality Desk today after Mass!

Q.

Why does the Church only allow one Mass intention per Mass?

A.

I went right to Fr. Drew with this one, ’cause I get asked a lot about it. Here’s the bottom line: Canon Law of the Universal Church (not us at St. Laurence or the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston) ordinarily limits us to one intention per Mass. We’re just following the rule and being good stewards, right? I know some of you guys get frustrated because our Masses fill up quickly here. That’s why we limit you to only three per person requesting the Mass. Got it? Next, people always ask how much it is for a Mass. Nothing! If you’d like to make a donation the usual offering is $5, but again, nothing is required. Fr. Drew wants us to make sure we say this.

STEWARDS AMONG US

STELLA NAIK

Stella Naik is known for sharing her God-given gift of hospitality! She and her husband Nicholas and their two daughters moved here from Toronto in 2007, and joined St. Laurence. Like most moms, she first got involved through her children’s school and activities (SLCS, Challenge Club), but that quickly led to other ways to serve in the parish (Bazaar, Pastoral Care to the Sick & Homebound, Indian Subcontinent Ministry, Discipleship Council) and archdiocese (TIPCA-Texas India Pakistan Catholic Association, Asian Mass, Office of Worship). Stella says, “I am blessed with the talent and desire to serve the community, and God has always put me in the places where I needed to be. Being a people person, am able to connect with a diverse community and all age groups, so I feel drawn to share my gifts, wherever needed, for His greater glory. Through interacting with people from all walks of life, I appreciate others for who they are and marvel at the wonder of His works in each one. Each morning when I wake up, my prayer is: Lord, use me as an instrument to carry out your works while I am on this journey. St. Laurence is an awesome parish where we are all part of building God’s kingdom on earth. Let’s build it together, brick by brick, with love, in whatever way we can.”

Here’s the bottom line: Canon Law of the Universal Church (not us at St. Laurence or the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston) ordinarily limits us to one intention per Mass. We’re just following the rule and being good stewards, right? I know some of you guys get frustrated because our Masses fill up quickly here. That’s why we limit you to only three per person requesting the Mass. Got it? Next, people always ask how much it is for a Mass. Nothing! If you’d like to make a donation the usual offering is $5, but again, nothing is required. Fr. Drew wants us to make sure we say this.

Paula Savo has been our Parish Receptionist for 21 years and knows the practical answers to (practically) everything. Call 281-980-9812 or email her at psavo@stlaurence.org.

FEB 17-18: FR. SEAN KILCAWLEY AT ST. LAURENCE

Fr. Sean Kilcawley, a nationally recognized speaker on Theology of the Body, Human Love and pornography addiction, is coming to St. Laurence. He will be the featured speaker at a special Arise Night immediately following the Life Teen Mass next Sunday, February 17, 6:30-8:00pm, in the church. We are blessed to have Fr. Sean preach at all Masses next weekend. His homily will serve as Part 1 of his talk, and Part 2 will be given at Arise Night. So, no matter what Mass you attend, be sure to come back Sunday night! Please note: Fr. Sean’s homily will be suitable for all ages, but his talk at Arise Night is appropriate for teens and adults only.

On Monday, February 18, Fr. Sean will present a parenting workshop, Equipping Families in the Battle Against the Epidemic of Pornography, from 6:30-8:30pm, in Marian Hall.

As moral standards have fallen and availability of internet pornography increases, parents are looking for help. Fr. Sean will provide practical, Christ-centered resources to frame these difficult conversations with your children. This session is not suitable for children. Childcare is available by registering in advance at stlaurence.org/play-pray. There is no charge to attend the Arise Night or parent workshop. Please contact Justin Frato (jfrato@stlaurence.org, 281-265-5774) for more information.

PRAY FOR VICTIMS, PRAY FOR THE CHURCH

On January 31, the Archdiocese published the names of 42 priests credibly accused of sexual abuse of minors. This list and a letter from our bishop, Cardinal DiNardo, may be found at www.archgh.org. The Cardinal emphasizes zero-tolerance for abuse and encourages anyone with knowledge of sexual abuse of minors to report it to the civil authorities immediately. Additionally, the Archdiocese has a Victim Assistance Coordinator, Diane Vines, who may be reached at 713-654-5799. Please pray for all victims of abuse and for our Church.

Seniors enjoying fall treats made by St. Laurence

MGCC Senior Wellness offers programs that result in not just a healthier senior but a happier senior! Fort Bend County seniors 55+ can participate in many programs that include the very popular Creative Aging Program which offers classes taught by an instructor as well as Open Studio for those who like working independently. In addition, seniors can participate in group exercises like Zumba, line dancing, sit and be fit classes, and the fitness center. The Wellness Center includes an area for socializing to play cards, dominoes, puzzles and computer access. MGCC also offers nutritional educational and other educational sessions.

If you are age 60+, you are eligible to register to eat lunch free of charge Monday – Friday in Patti’s Café. MGCC supports seniors in their efforts to stay healthy and active, volunteer, build friendships and live independently. Fort Bend Transit is used by many seniors as a transportation option. Other support offered include loving, listening hearts for hundreds of otherwise-isolated seniors, health and welfare monitoring, case management, referrals for mental health, benefits enrollment and/or restoration, social and spiritual needs, and emergency assistance.

For more information about Senior Services and the Senior Wellness Center, please contact: Jill Cloyd at 281.202.6227 or email at jcloyd@catholiccharities.org. To volunteer, please contact: Dottie Bateman at dbateman@catholiccharities.org

Healing for women suffering after abortion (Spanish)
The loss of a child by abortion can form a hole in one’s heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness. Project Rachel is the confidential and compassionate outreach to women and men who have had an abortion or been involved in an abortion decision. Its purpose is to foster reconciliation and healing between the parent and Christ, His Church, the child and all other significant relationships. The next Project Rachel Retreat is March 1 - 3, 2019 in Spanish. Please contact Julie at 713-741-8728.

Pregnancy Resource Medical Center
The PRC offers women the information and support they need to choose life for their child. They are working on adding testing for sexually transmitted infections. Volunteers are needed, at the Rosenberg center, to be trained as client advocates and in other capacities. Please call 281-232-2375 to inquire about volunteer opportunities.
