Good News Reflection

Pray: Strength I ask from You today, Lord, to face all those temptations that are too difficult for me to resist. Only You can defeat them in me, I only say ‘yes’ to Your will. Amen.

Union with Christ

Jesus’ life is our life if we’re sincere about our faith. We unite ourselves to him by receiving his body and blood in the Eucharist. We meet him in the scriptures and walk with him on the path to heaven.

During Lent, the readings that the Church provides for Sunday and daily Mass will help us with this journey if we listen with an ear that recognizes our personal connections to Christ.

In this Sunday’s Gospel passage, we journey with Jesus into the desert. Consider your own struggles with temptation; reflect on how sin makes your life feel barren and dry like a desert.

When we walk with Jesus, we unite ourselves to his struggle with the devil and to his victory over the devil. Our temptations become his temptations, and in our efforts to remain united to him, we reject Satan and choose the life of holiness. The Church helps us do this by giving us ways during Lent to improve our self-discipline and conquer the self-centeredness that makes us vulnerable to sin: fasting and abstinence, alms-giving, reconciliation services, faith formation events, reading materials, and more.

Every meal and meat that we give up for Lent, every sin that we confess in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, every sacrifice of time that we make to add more prayer and spiritual reading to our daily life, and every other Lenten activity is a practice of self-denial that unites us to Jesus in the desert.

Jesus fasted from food and other physical comforts during his battle with the devil, and this strategy strengthened him and prepared him for the ministry that came afterward. This is what Lent should be for us, too.

Satan is not someone to fear. Jesus already defeated all demons on our behalf, first in the desert and then on the cross. Our battle is really only against temptation and our personal weaknesses that make us vulnerable to succumbing to sin.

We don’t always want to follow Jesus. This is what we must surrender to God during Lent. Then Easter will be far more meaningful, because we will emerge from Lent much stronger in our faith.

QUESTIONS FOR PERSONAL REFLECTION:

What are the temptations that are most pressing in your life? Be honest with yourself! How are you succumbing to the devil, even though he really has no power over you? Don’t be ashamed. Guilt is not what Jesus wants from you. What he does want is your desire to receive his help in overcoming temptation. He’s waiting for you in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

QUESTIONS FOR FAMILY & COMMUNITY FAITH SHARING:

How do you know that the Sacrament of Reconciliation really works? How is it more than just a confession of your sins? How has it helped you grow stronger in following Jesus?

PRAYING THE NEWS | MARCH 10, 2019

“Jesus…was led by the Spirit into the desert”

LUKE 4:1

O Lord, may we follow the same call this Lent. Help us leave behind what we don’t truly need and that deafens us to your voice in today’s world. Help us let go of fear, which fosters prejudice and exclusion; pride that treasures influence and leads to injustice; the anger that can be the source of conflict and violence; and the possessions and habits that endanger the environment. Help us grow instead in your humility, kindness and mercy. We trust in you. Amen. †

Living as Disciples

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT: ADORATION

St. Laurence is blessed to have Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in our Chapel of Divine Mercy. The Adoration Ministry prays for our families, our Church, and our world in the presence of our Lord who is there before our very eyes in the Blessed Sacrament. Praying is done in silence, in whichever manner He calls you to pray: Some pray the Rosary, some the Divine Mercy Chaplet, some sit in silent adoration. Some use their hour to immerse themselves in Scripture in the presence of the Word. It can be a time to praise, to give thanks, to petition Him. He is there, always, to help you discern the direction of your life.

The ministry has over 325 active members. Two persons pray each hour of the day, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. By committing to a regular weekly hour of Adoration, or being a regular substitute, the blessings you will receive are boundless. This opportunity for prayer before His Presence is available to all, not only to our parishioners, but the community of saints from all over Sugar Land. Visitors from afar also stop in to pray.

“How can we come to know Christ,” he asked. “How can we come to know the love of Christ which surpasses all knowledge?” (Eph 3:14)

We urge you to come to know Christ in silent adoration. Stop in the chapel to be with Him anytime and contact Fran Magelssen at adoration@stlaurence.org, 281-224-6122.

Stop by the Hospitality Desk after Mass today to meet with members of our Adoration Ministry!

STEWARDS AMONG US

BEATRIZ FLORES

I am originally from Guatemala. I came to Houston in 1975, and moved to Sugar Land in 1983. I was a parishioner of St. Theresa for a few years when I first heard that a new parish was being built in Sugar Land. Soon after, I began to attend Mass at St. Laurence and from that moment on, this parish became my home. Since the very beginning, I felt welcome in this holy place and my love for the parish has only grown deeper through the years. My love for Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament propelled me to serve in a few ministries. I am part of the Adoration Ministry. I often serve as Sacristan during the daily morning Masses in the chapel and I am a Eucharistic Minister of Holy Communion. Though my participation in these different ministries, I have met amazing people from all over the world and have gained a deeper understanding and appreciation of the different cultures that make up the wonderfully diverse St. Laurence family. I think that there is something for everyone here in St. Laurence. Through its many ministries, one can find a plethora of opportunities to pray, play and serve alongside our brothers and sister in the faith.

Q.
What do I need to know to serve on the Pastoral Council?

A.
The first thing you have to do is attend one of the two information sessions in order to even participate on the Discernment Day. The information sessions are Thursday, March 21, 7:00pm, and Sunday, March 24, at 2:30pm. Next is Discernment Day, Saturday, April 6. You’ll go to 8:30am Mass then over to the AMC. FYI to you, this can take all day, just sayin. You need to know, if you are on the Pastoral Council, it’s a 4-year commitment. Crazy right? The council usually meets the 2nd Tuesday of each month from 6:30pm to 9:30pm. Lets me out, it would interfere with my TV time. If you're wondering why I'm not on the council, I can’t because I work here, and neither can my husband. But if you think it might be for you — check it out.

Paula Savo has been our Parish Receptionist for 21 years and knows the practical answers to (practically) everything. Call 281-980-9812 or email her at psavo@stlaurence.org.

MAR 17: KRIS FRANK’S MISSION APPEAL FOR VAGABOND MISSIONS

Kris Frank returns to St. Laurence, now as the Vice President of Vagabond Missions, to share stories from the mission field of the inner city. Vagabond Missions finds and invites urban teens into a relationship with Jesus Christ, through discipleship and solidarity with the poor. The missionaries meet teens where they are, build relationships, mentor, and introduce them to Jesus. The mission is to break the cycle of hopelessness in the inner-city and replace it with hope through a relationship with Christ and His Church. The second collection next week will support this work. Learn more at vagabondmissions.com. Thank you, St. Laurence, for your generous response!
