LIGHT IN OUR DARKNESS

In this Sunday’s Gospel reading, we see Jesus reveal the uncreated light of his true identity and we hear the Father say, “This is my chosen Son; listen to him.”

We experience Christ’s deepest identity every time we listen to him and allow the Holy Spirit to enlighten our understanding of his words and guidance.

By listening to him, we let his uncreated light consume the darkness that still lingers within us. Then, the people around us experience more of him, because they meet him in us — in our actions, in our compassion, in our forgiveness, etc. This is evangelization!

Lent is a time of concentrating on our need for Christ to shed his light into our areas of darkness. When we let Jesus enlighten us so that we repent (which means change), seeking and receiving forgiveness and the Holy Spirit’s power to change, we become more like Christ. We shine more brilliantly with him. And we enter more fully into his ministry of redeeming the world. Although there is suffering in this ministry, we know that the pain of Good Friday is always followed by the victory of Easter.

It’s in the trials and sacrifices of life — our own crucifixions — where our holiness changes the world. Do we dare follow Jesus all the way to Calvary? It’s the only way to get to Easter! Our trials are his blood being shed again. Our pains are his pains. We’re already on the cross with Jesus! So why not embrace this extreme intimacy with him for the sake of those who’ve scourged us and betrayed us!

By loving those who don’t love us, forgiving those who mistreat us, and working hard to replace evil with the kingdom of God, we reveal the light of Christ to those who live in darkness.

QUESTIONS FOR PERSONAL REFLECTION:

Think of a redemption you’ve experienced, an area of darkness in your life that Jesus shed his light upon when he inspired you to repent. How has this change increased your holiness? What is he inviting you to change now, something that’s been difficult to look at or hard to overcome? What would you like to hear from Jesus that will help you turn this darkness into holiness? After you figure it out, take this to the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

QUESTIONS FOR FAMILY & COMMUNITY FAITH SHARING:

Why is the Passion of Christ your passion? What crosses are you carrying that you hope will help Christ redeem the world from sin and darkness? How does your cross purify your own holiness?

PRAYING THE NEWS | MARCH 17, 2019

“Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray.”

LUKE 9:28

Dear Lord, when painful events occur, like the Alabama tornados, and the news is full of political and moral crisis, help us come together and pray with and to you. Please bring comfort and aid to those in need, and compassionate, generous wisdom to our church and governmental leaders. Strengthen us in belief that there is good and glory round about us and in the future if we seek it with you. Jesus, we trust in you. Amen. †

Living as Disciples

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT: USHERS

The mission of Ushers is to enhance the sense of community by making all feel welcomed at Mass. Ushers serve their fellow parishioners in a manner which adds to the reverent atmosphere of Mass by providing assistance with seating, collections and the flow of worshippers for communion. Worshipers with mobility issues or who are handicapped, and their caregivers, can rely on ushers to locate reserved seating and have communion brought to their seat. Ushers are also available to provide directions and answer questions as needed.

All that is required in this ministry is a smile and the willingness to serve others at Mass. Youth are welcome! The need for ushers to serve at Christmas and during the Easter Triduum is particularly acute, due to the large crowds of visitors and the number of additional liturgies during these times. Most training is on-the-job, supplemented by written guidelines and an annual refresher meeting. There are no regular meetings to attend and you serve based on your availability and desire.

“Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels (Hebrews 13:2).”

If you’re looking for a fulfilling way to serve your parish community – but your weekdays are already overscheduled – consider joining the Usher Ministry!

Help as an Usher this Easter! Stop by the Hospitality Desk after Mass today to learn what is involved.

STEWARDS AMONG US

ELIZABETH HERNANDEZ

Elizabeth Hernandez is the coordinator of our childcare ministry, Play & Pray. She helped to transform a parish babysitting service into a place that even our youngest children can grow in faith while their parents are at Mass or other parish events. Elizabeth and her husband Jeremiah have three young children of their own, Charlie (6), Stella (4) and Catherine (2). “We have been at St. Laurence since we moved to Sugar Land 6 years ago. There is no doubt that my vocation as a wife and mother has been shaped by my involvement in various ministries that have strengthened my faith. I first joined the Moms GIFT Group to meet new people, and to grow in faith as a new mom. As I met and became friends with more people within the parish, I began to branch out into new ministries. My faith has become the foundation from which I have grown, and I have been able to pass this on to my family.” Elizabeth is also on the leadership team for the Moms & Tots Ministry, which meets Monday mornings, giving moms a chance to meet while their kids play. Elizabeth encourages moms of young children to reach out to her. If the first group you try doesn’t seem to be a fit, “keep trying until you find a ministry that can give you a home here at St. Laurence. When you find the ministry that feels right, both you and the parish will benefit.”

Q.

What is Stations of the Cross?

A.

Stations of the Cross, also known as the Way of the Cross, tells the Passion story starting with Jesus being condemned to death by Pontius Pilate. There are 14 stations. Ours were created by Wiktor Szostalo and are in 14 lighted niches around the church. I remember how excited Fr. John was when they came, just saying. Moving on, Stations are at 7:00pm on Fridays during Lent in the church. Usually a deacon leads the Stations with an Altar Server. We have books out, so you can follow along. Some people sit in the pews and some like to move from station to station with the deacon. It probably lasts about 40 minutes and is good for all ages. FYI, on Good Friday stations are at Noon. You should check them out at least once, right?

Sometimes we may feel we are alone in facing difficulties. But, even if He doesn’t intervene immediately, the Lord walks by our side and, if we keep going forward, He will open up a new path.

Kris Frank returns to St. Laurence, now as the Vice President of Vagabond Missions, to share stories from the mission field of the inner city. Vagabond Missions finds and invites urban teens into a relationship with Jesus Christ, through discipleship and solidarity with the poor. The missionaries meet teens where they are, build relationships, mentor, and introduce them to Jesus. The mission is to break the cycle of hopelessness in the inner-city and replace it with hope through a relationship with Christ and His Church. The second collection today will support this work. Learn more at vagabondmissions.com. Thank you, St. Laurence, for your generous response!

IF YOU SEE THE MOVIE ‘UNPLANNED’

This movie is the true story of Abby Johnson, former director of a Planned Parenthood clinic in Texas who, after participating in an actual abortion procedure for the first time, walked down the street to join the Coalition for Life. Due to graphic imagery and emotionally intense scenes, this movie is rated “R” and is not recommended for children and young teens. Whether or not you choose to see the movie, always proclaim the Gospel of Life. Abortion is wrong, but healing is possible. Please encourage anyone who may be seeking support for a difficult pregnancy or healing after abortion to contact the Archdiocesan Office of Pro-Life Activities, Houston Coalition for Life, Project Rachel, the Pregnancy Resource Medical Center of Fort Bend, or our own Respect Life Ministry (stlaurence.org/respect-life).
