St. Laurence Parish Mission
March 25-27, 2019
9:30-10:30 AM and 7:00-8:00 PM
In the Church

What does it mean to be a disciple of Jesus and how do we live this out, at this particular time in the history of the Church and in the world today?

Over three days this week, Monday through Wednesday, Fr. Joe Creedon will join us at St. Laurence to lead us on a Parish Mission. The purpose of a Parish Mission is to challenge, inspire and offer members of all ages a chance for spiritual growth. But at the same time, it is distinctly a community event, an opportunity for grace and renewal for us as a parish family.

One day leads to the next, although each day has its own unique topic. Talks will be given in the morning (9:30-10:30am) and repeated in the evening (7:00-8:00pm), to make the mission available to as many parishioners as possible. On Monday, Fr. Creedon will help us understand that our lives have purpose and that we all share in the vision and work of this parish. On Tuesday, he will explain how the Sacrament of Baptism unites us in God’s family and invites us to share our unique gifts. On Wednesday, Fr. Creedon will emphasize how we are sent forth as a Eucharistic people to be a Light in the world.

Fr. Joe Creedon travels the country giving parish missions and talks on the topic of discipleship, stewardship and evangelization. He is a regular presenter at the annual conference of the International Catholic Stewardship Council and is a sought-after speaker at conferences, retreats and missions at the diocesan and parish level. He is the author of 14 daily meditation books for Lent and Advent, plus Stewardship: A Life-Giving Spirituality, published in 2018. In addition to his distinguished service as pastor of Christ the King parish in Kingston, Rhode Island, his 48 years of priestly ministry included time as a high school teacher, campus minister, and a year-long sabbatical as a fellow in psychiatry and religion at the Menninger Clinic.

The St. Laurence Parish Mission is free and open to everyone. It is an opportunity for spiritual refreshment, an invitation to deeper engagement, and a chance to get to know one another better. Please take time to stop by the Corpus Christi Room for coffee and fellowship. Childcare is available for the evening sessions by registering in advance through Play & Pray. Get all the information at stlaurence.org/parish-mission.

PRAYING THE NEWS | MARCH 24, 2019

“I am the God of your fathers, …the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob.”

EXODUS 3:6

Dear Lord, how long until all receive each other as brothers and sisters in You? We see the Jewish community in Pittsburgh sending aid to those suffering in New Zealand, reciprocating the support shown them by the Muslim community during their grief last year. May our faith, too, extend our hearts in solidarity with all who seek Truth and Peace — in good times and bad. God, Almighty, we trust in you. Amen. †

People who regularly attend the 9am Mass will recognize Chris Debaillon (and his great voice) as a cantor and member of the choir, but he’s also a part of the That Man Is You ministry, plus he and his wife Jamie serve together in presenting Engaged Encounter weekends. They have three children, Jenna (12), David (7), Samuel (4), and are fostering 15-month-old twins Ian and Ava. Chris says, “Every ministry involves service, yet every ministry ends up giving you more than you have given. I joined Choir because God has blessed me and I want to give those blessings back to Him for His glory – and it has increased my confidence and given me a greater appreciation for the liturgy. I started attending TMIY two years ago because I wanted to be a better spiritual leader for my family – and I have become more prayerful, more mindful of dedicating time and attention to my wife and children, and more aware of the societal pitfalls that can keep men from being everything that God desires for us. We got involved in Engaged Encounter because it is a ministry that we can do together – and it has strengthened our marriage by serving as a check-up every time we help out with a retreat.” Find something that interests you at St. Laurence and you will grow in surprising ways. As Chris says, “There is someone out there who can benefit from your gifts. Ministries make it happen.”

Q. Is there a priest available for a quick confession?
A. First of all, it’s NEVER quick, just saying. Second of all, no. I know everyone wants to go to confession during Lent. We just had our Lenten Penance Service, so if you didn’t go to that, you’ll have to go during the regular scheduled Reconciliation times. There is confession Monday through Thursday at about 8:00am in the chapel, right after the 7:30am Mass. There are no confessions on Friday or Saturday mornings (that stopped a long time ago, just saying). Reconciliation is available on Wednesday evening from 5:30-6:20pm, right before the 6:30pm Mass. (FYI, there are usually two priests there.) Lastly, Saturday from 4:00-4:45pm (and I think all three priests are there) right before the 5:00pm Mass. I’m sure you guys can find a time to go that works for you, right?

Chris Debaillon

The sanctity of human life and the dignity of the human person is a core tenet of Catholic moral teaching. And yet our country loses a million lives a year to abortion, and euthanasia is a growing threat. The work of the Respect Life Ministry involves informing our parishioners about Church teaching on many life issues, from in vitro fertilization, to pornography, to making end of life decisions.

Our ministry facilitates and encourages participation in local events, such as Life Chain and 40 Days for Life, to pray and witness to our community. Our Gabriel Project reaches out to pregnant women in need. We publicize activities that are happening around the Archdiocese such as Project Rachel retreats for post-abortive women and Jerome’s Hope, the new diocesan ministry to support parents with an adverse pre-natal diagnosis.

Please join us after the 11:00am Mass on the 2nd Sunday of each month to pray a Rosary for the preborn who are in danger of abortion and for their mothers. We meet in the Rosary Garden of the Ave Maria Center. To join Barbara Pane in the Gabriel Project, please contact her at 281-734-7413, barbara@panefamily.com. For more information about the St. Laurence Respect Life Ministry, contact coordinator Marie McCoy at 281-265-7749, Marie@ChristianVoicesforLife.

Patty Schneier is a sought-after Catholic speaker featured on numerous Catholic Radio shows and through Lighthouse Catholic Media. Her new book, Love Letters from Mom on What Matters Most, is a compilation of personal letters written to her three children as they mature into adulthood and venture out on their own. On Monday, April 8, Patty will be at St. Laurence to present at the Women’s Prayer Breakfast (9:00-11:30am) reminding women of their true identity as “God’s masterpiece”. Later that night, she will be the featured speaker at Arise Night (6:30-8:00pm) on the importance of and strategies for incorporating prayer into even our busiest days. THANK YOU FROM KRIS FRANK, VAGABOND MISSIONS

Dear St Laurence Parishioners, thank you for welcoming me back this past weekend; it was a blessing that will remain with me for sometime. Further, I wanted to personally thank you for your donations to Vagabond Missions. You are beyond generous. The money you gave will help sustain and support our continued effort to bring the Gospel into the inner-city and end the cycle of hopelessness. This mission would not be possible without people like you. If you ever have questions about Vagabond Missions, feel free to check out our website, VagabondMissions.com or contact me directly at kris@vagabondmissions.com. Again, from the bottom of my heart, thank you for your generosity and please know of my continued prayers. — Kris Frank

NEED NOW: DOCTOR FOR MEDICAL MISSION

There is an immediate need for a general family practice doctor to join the April 27-May 4 Medical Mission to Costa Rica. Two doctors from the mission team had to withdraw unexpectedly, so the mission has an urgent need for at least one more internist or family practitioner to go to Costa Rica. If this is a possibility, please contact Maria Jacobson (713-582-8424, mjacobson1984@yahoo.com) for more information. The Medical Missionaries of Divine Mercy are invited by the Health Ministry of Costa Rica and the Archdiocese of Cartago at this time each year to provide medical and spiritual healing to the indigenous Cabecar Indians and the poor of Grano De Oro. To learn more, please visit stlaurence.org/medical-missionaries. Thank you!
A special thank you to the wonderful group of volunteers who joined us for our Lenten service projects. Volunteers prepared lunches for delivery in Rosenberg, filled Easter eggs and made cards for seniors at MGCC and SLHCC, packed rice and beans for MGCC, packed toiletries for the homeless and Fort Bend Clubhouse, and made posters for Hope For Three.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

The building of our 13th house will soon be underway. Now is the time to sign up if you or your ministry would like to provide lunch for the hungry workers. The lunches are so appreciated by the volunteers, as well as the prospective owners, who also participate in the build throughout the construction period. Monetary donations are also welcome. It takes approximately $110.00 to feed everyone. For more information and to reserve your date, please contact Lawrence Perreau at 832-525-8717 or lperreau@comcast.net.

THANK YOU, St. Laurence!
Over 800 Giving Tree tags were taken and we are well on our way to restocking our workroom shelves. Items are due March 31 and can be dropped in the Social Concerns bin in the narthex, or the parish or SCM office.

RESPECT LIFE NEWS

Spiritual Adoption: Seven Months! As the baby continues to grow, it is getting more crowded in the uterus and the baby’s movements are smaller. He or she may have turned to be head downward. Fat is being deposited under the baby’s skin to help keep him or her warm after birth. The baby is about 14 inches long and weighs over 2 pounds! Please continue to pray, that mom and dad are making good plans to either parent themselves or to provide their child with a stable and loving home through adoption. Some states still allow abortion at this age.

unPlanned Movie: The unPlanned movie will open on March 29! The movie tells the story of Abby Johnson, a former Planned Parenthood employee who eventually left her job and is now actively pro-life. The movie shows America the reality of abortion and Planned Parenthood. The movie is rated R and includes an intense scene showing her experience with a pill abortion. Catholic Daughters Court Aquinas is hosting a screening at the Fountains Thursday evening – the 28th - at 7 p.m. with seating at 6:30 p.m. It’s vitally important for the success of the film that there be a good turnout its first week, so if you can’t make the premier you can still attend March 29th and beyond.

40 Days for Life: This Tuesday, March 26, is our second sponsored day at Planned Parenthood on the Gulf Freeway. Prayers also continue on Mondays and Thursdays in Sharpstown. Please check www.stlaurence.org/respect-life or www.ChristianVoicesforLife.org/40-Days-for-Life for more details and links to the sign-ups.

How would you like to experience in a special way the power and the charismatic gifts of the HOLY SPIRIT? If so, attend the Gifts of the HOLY SPIRIT Workshop, in celebration of the coming Pentecost. This is a hands-on presentation of the charismatic gifts of the HOLY SPIRIT (1 Cor. 12:7-11): the gifts of tongues, interpretation of tongues, prophecy, word of knowledge, word of wisdom, discernment, faith, healing and miracles. Our prayers and expectations are that the HOLY SPIRIT will impart to us or stir in us these gifts that we can use to minister to others. Fr. Drew Wood, our pastor and Fr. Mark Goring, director of the Catholic Charismatic Center, are our main speakers. The Workshop will culminate with a powerful healing service.

Free, open to all and lunch is provided. To register, go to stlaurence.org/holy-spirit-workshop. Walk-ins not allowed.
