REMEMBER AND HONOR

Excerpt of a Memorial Day Recollection by Msgr. Charles Pope | May 24, 2015

For many, Memorial Day means the beginning of summer. To others, it is a day off to go shopping. But as I am sure you know, Memorial Day is really a day to honor those who have died in the service of this country.

The word “memorial” comes from the Latin memorare, which has an imperative meaning “Remember!” So Memorial Day is “Remember!” Day. To remember something is to allow it to be present in our minds and hearts such that we are grateful, sober, aware, and different. This is a day to remember that there are men and women who have died so that you and I are able to live with greater security, justice, and peace. May these fallen soldiers rest in peace. We owe them both a debt of gratitude and our prayers.

What is honor? The full etymology of the word is debated. But what seems most likely is that it comes from the Latin honos, which, though translated as “honor,” also points to the word “onus,” which means “weight” or refers to something that is heavy. Hence, to “honor” someone is to appreciate the weight, significance, or burden of something he has done. It is to acknowledge that he carried a great burden well, that he withstood a heavy load, that what he did was weighty, significant.

Our soldiers, police officers, and first responders are deserving of our honor, for they put their lives on the line so that others can live, be more free, and experience abundance. None of us can fail to appreciate the burdensome weight that some carry so that we can live well, freely, and comfortably. Freedom is not free; it is costly.

The Love of one’s country (patriotism) is related to the fourth commandment. The Catechism teaches:

It is the duty of citizens to contribute to the good of society in a spirit of truth, justice, solidarity and freedom. The love and service of one’s country follow from the duty of gratitude and belong to the order of charity (CCC # 2239).

The Lord Himself makes it plain: “No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends” (John 15:13).

FORUM TOWARD CHRISTIAN MINISTRY SUMMER INTENSIVE

Do you want to feel secure that you know the basic teachings of the Church and can correctly answer questions that come your way?

We know that it can be a challenge to find time to commit to formation during the school year. Why not make some time this summer to grow in your knowledge of the faith?

Join us at St Laurence as we offer the Formation Toward Christian Ministry (FTCM) program. This program offers basic theology and spiritual development to Catholic adults who want to deepen their commitment to Jesus and more fully answer their baptismal call to service as a mature disciple. All Catholic adults are invited who are seeking greater understanding of their faith, who are already engaged in ministry, and those discerning their call to church ministry. FTCM provides the theological content courses required for diocesan certification as a catechist, is a pre-requisite for catechetical leadership preparation, and youth ministry leadership training.

Anie offers this advice to her fellow parishioners: “Ask God in prayer to reveal his purpose for you in this life and be open to his directive.” But be prepared for an adventure! Here’s Anie’s story: “My husband, Innocent, is a cradle Catholic and I was Methodist. Worshiping in different denominations did not offer our family, with six children, the spiritual union we desired, but my impression of Catholicism was no prayers, no bible studies and worshiping Mary, and that really did trouble me. But God, being always faithful, blessed me with a wonderful sponsor, Agnes Fernandes, who made it her mission to prove my fears groundless. With the help of my sponsor and RCIA, I discovered the spiritual richness of the Catholic Church and I regret not converting sooner (but grateful I am in it now). Today, I serve on the Discipleship Council, the African Catholic Community, Altar Linens, Adoration, and the Hearts of Jesus & Mary Healing Ministry. While it is good to go to Mass every Sunday, participating in these ministries helps me fulfill our calling at the end of each Mass when the deacon says, ‘Go and glorify the Lord with your life.’ To me, that means we are being sent out into our different communities as God’s disciples to serve in whatever capacity we find ourselves. Serving in these ministries has kept me close to God and is the higher and best use of my time.”

Mary, Virgin of #Fatima, we are certain that each one of us is precious in your eyes and that nothing in our hearts has estranged you. Guard our life with your embrace, guide us all on the path to holiness.

— Pope Francis

Q.
Where should I park our baby stroller at Mass?

A.
All strollers should be parked over by the Hospitality Desk in the narthex. I don’t know if you were at one the two Masses a couple of weeks ago when the fire alarm went off? It wasn’t a fire (just the Knights cooking bacon in the parish hall), but there were several parents with strollers standing by the exit doors. We need to keep all exit doors clear, just in case we have a real emergency. Just sayin. At several Masses there are parishioners with walkers and wheelchairs and they are sitting in handicapped-marked pews. (We don’t have pews marked strollers, right?) Don’t car seats nowadays have the seat that just pops out? Maybe you can bring your baby in that and then you guys can sit in a pew? We want all children in the church, not hanging in the narthex, right?
Hope does not disappoint because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit.
Romans 5:5

It is as if Jesus is saying to each of us: “Breathe in hope. Breathe out despair. Even in the struggles of your life, the Holy Spirit is present. I have given my life for you so that you will experience Living Hope that does not disappoint.”

The St. Laurence Women’s Retreat Team invites all women of the parish to our 12th Annual Women’s Retreat, Living Hope, at Holy Name Retreat Center.

Ministry with Persons with Disabilities
Are you ready to make an impact? Buddies play a pivotal role in welcoming God’s children and young people into the religious education programs at St. Laurence. A Buddy provides support to a child with special needs so that they can successfully be included in CCE, Edge, and Life Teen. Buddies commit to working 1:1 with a student as they learn about their faith. Buddies may serve as a guide to a child with a visual impairment, remind a learner with high functioning Autism to wait their turn to speak, or break down instructions for a learner with Down Syndrome. This opportunity is open to adults and mature high school students. Previous experience is not required. The only requirement is the safe environment training and an open heart to serve. Please contact Cindy Martin for more information. cindymartin@stlaurence.org. Complete the application on our website. stlaurence.org/buddy-application
