Jesus replied, “A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side.” — Lk 10:30–31

Pray: Forgive me, Father, for the apathy I showed in so many suffering situations. I repent of this and I commit myself to seek strength in Your love and mercy and to get involved wherever I see pain and need. Amen.

ENOUGH LOVE TO HEAL THE WORLD

The opposite of love is not hate. It’s apathy: ignoring a need, not caring, and doing nothing when there is something we can do to relieve suffering. In this Sunday’s Gospel reading, Jesus gives us the Parable of the Good Samaritan to explain that if we love God with our whole heart, our whole being, our whole strength, and our whole mind, we naturally care about other people, even those who are strangers, even those whom we’re "not supposed to" like, and even when it costs us something personally.

Many of the problems that exist in our world today are allowed to continue because too many of us Christians — we who through Christ have the power to change the world — do not care enough to sacrifice our time and personal agendas to get involved. Much of the suffering that’s endured in our families and workplaces and parishes would be stopped or relieved if enough Christians loved God enough to care about others enough to risk the cost of intervening.

How much do you love God? The answer lies in how much you’re willing to sacrifice for the sake of loving others, which is the definition of love that Jesus taught us with this parable and with his life.

None of us love God perfectly yet. Purgatory will be a time of painfully regretting our lack of love, while eagerly improving our love for others so we can enter into the fullness of God’s love in heaven. Until then, we have daily opportunities, here and now, to purify our lives less painfully. Daily we’re given tests to improve how well we love others.

So daily ask the Holy Spirit, your teacher, your empowerer, your source of holiness, to help you become more like Christ. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you love all others as Christ loves them.

By doing this spiritual exercise consistently, you will receive a new joy and an enlivened passion in dealing with others. You will feel greater love for God and you will experience his love for you much more intimately.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

Whom do you pass by and ignore when you see suffering? Is there anyone you've recently walked away from because you didn’t want to give up something (perhaps your time, pride, prejudice, feeling of inadequacy, resentment or unforgiveness)? Take it to the Sacrament of Confession to receive God’s grace and help in loving others more fully.

Questions for Family & Community Faith Sharing:

Name a “Good Samaritan” you know or have read about. What did this person give up to serve others? How do such people find the ability to love so well? Describe a situation you’ve witnessed where apathy has contributed to someone’s suffering. How could love make a difference?

Amar no es solo un sentimiento, es un compromiso. Estas y otras lecciones de amor se encuentran en este libro de uno de los más grandes exponentes de la civilización del amor.

En Busca de Mi Identidad
El conocido presentador y autor Hudson Byblow, nos habla sobre su propia experiencia de atracción hacia el mismo sexo e inclinaciones transgénero. En esta charla, invita a experimentar el cumplimiento y la libertad que descubrió cuando se dio cuenta que su identidad más fundamental se encuentra en Cristo. Escuche a Hudson compartir cómo esta comprensión más profunda de su identidad le ha permitido vivir una vida motivada no tanto por las reglas sino por el amor a Dios y a sí mismo.

Men, Women and the Mystery of Love
In Men, Women and the Mystery of Love, Edward Sri unpacks the contents of St. John Paul II’s Love and Responsibility, making it accessible to every reader. He emphasizes the down-to-earth nature of the late pope’s work, giving readers actionable advice on issues such as: How to determine if a relationship is one of authentic love or is doomed to failure; The problem of pornography; The meaning of friendship; And how to achieve greater intimacy in marriage.

God’s Plan for Love
In anticipation of the 50th anniversary of the encyclical Humanae Vitae, Archbishop Aquila explains how Blessed Pope Paul VI’s teaching still serves as a great light amidst a world that is deeply confused about sexual intimacy. He provides valuable insights about how God imbued our sexuality with truths that are reflective of his own divine love. He challenges Catholics to share the liberating truth of God’s plan for sex within marriage and witness this reality as the way of lasting.

I did not choose St. Laurence, St. Laurence chose me. Nothing I had previously experienced prepared me for the amazing outpouring of the Spirit that was the St. Laurence Life Teen Mass and we joined the parish in 2003. In our previous parish, we had been active in ministry, but when we moved to St. Laurence I became even more involved because the parish was very multicultural and there were a lot more opportunities for service and participation. For newcomers, migrants, and refugees, being part of a ministry can be life-saving. When you serve others, you forget your own troubles, build new relationships, and acquire a new family connected by love, not by blood, partners in the journey. In addition to helping with Youth Ministry, Adoration, Hispanic Ministry, and at Mass as a Lector and Extraordinary Minister, our family started a prayer group for Venezuelans living outside their country, Parroquia Virtual Venezolana. We do this as a family and as a couple, which has helped us grow together. We also do it as a community, with other Venezuelan musicians, sharing our culture and traditions to connect and help people know who we are and where we come from. Life changes, and so will your ministries, so try different things until you find that service where you can share your gifts. Because sharing will make you grow in unexpected ways.

The Bible is not just a beautiful book to keep on a shelf. It is the Word of life be sown, a gift that the Risen Jesus asks us to accept in order to have life in His name.

— Pope Francis

Why don’t you print who is celebrating Mass in the bulletin?

A.
If we let parishioners know which priest is celebrating Mass, then people would go to a particular Mass just because “their favorite” priest is saying it. And you know that’s true. Take me, for instance. I only go to 7:15am on Sunday. It doesn’t matter to me WHICH priest is there. I do like other people do, and turn around to the baptismal font to see which priest is saying it. And you know that’s true. Take me, for instance. I only go to 7:15am on Sunday. It doesn’t matter to me WHICH priest is there. I do like other people do, and turn around to the baptismal font to see which priest it is, just sayin. When I first started working here, we used to give out that information. So one day, a parishioner called me on Monday morning, yelling at me because I told her Fr. John was celebrating Mass... and he didn’t. Things change, people. These guys can change their schedule with one another and the office wouldn’t even know about it, right?

Paula Savo has been our Parish Receptionist for 21 years and knows the practical answers to (practically) everything. Call 281-980-9812 or email her at psavo@stlaurence.org.
What is ACTS?

ACTS is an acronym for Adoration, Community, Theology and Service. It is these four themes that are the focus of the weekend’s activities.

ACTS is inspired by the ACTS of the Apostles 2:42-47:

“They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among all according to each one’s need. Every day they devoted themselves to meeting together in the temple area and to breaking bread in their homes. They ate their meals with exultation and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.”

PURPOSE

The purpose of the ACTS weekend is to invite the retreatants into a new or deeper relationship with the Lord and with other faithful women and men through Adoration and daily prayer; Community awareness as a member of the Body of Christ; Theology encouraging more study of our faith and God’s word; and promoting the virtue of Service to our Lord and one another.

GOAL

An ACTS retreat strives to achieve the directives of Vatican II and the goals of the Revised Code of Canon Law of 1983, placing emphasis on “Community and Pastoral Care” within a parish; that the participants experience God’s love and joy throughout the weekend, and return to the parish with a deeper love for each other and a desire to become more involved in the parish faith community.

AUG 8-11: MAKE AN A.C.T.S. RETREAT

TODAY: SOCIETY OF ST VINCENT DE PAUL 2ND COLLECTION

“‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ LK 10:27

In 1833, Blessed Frédéric Ozanam founded the Society of St. Vincent de Paul along with 6 friends. To fund the activities to help the poor, they took a secret collection using a black bag. They passed it from person to person until each one had given their share. Because the Society does not receive DSF funding, Bishop Markovsky allowed us to have our first Black Bag collection in 1970. Forty-nine years later, we continue the tradition of the Black Bag Collection. Please donate to the 49th Annual Black Bag Collection today.

DUE AUGUST 1: REGISTER FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Registration is open now for religious education classes for the 2019-2020 school year. Registration is required for all programs from age 3 through high school, including Sacrament Preparation classes. No matter the age of your children or where they are in their faith formation, we invite you to commit today to helping them grow as disciples of Christ. Please go to stlaurence.org/registration for information and forms. The deadline to register is August 1, but don’t wait! Classes do fill up quickly and the number of classes offered is limited to the number of volunteer catechists available to help. Teaching or assisting in religious education classes is a wonderful way to get involved in the life of this big parish! No experience is necessary, training & materials are provided, and you’ll be a visible model of service for your children. Please stop by the Ave Maria Center to learn more or call 281-265-5774.
Beginning in 2001, the St. Laurence Shoe Drive has impacted the lives of more than 7,500 children in need. Together, we can make a difference in the lives of over 700 children this year. The simple gift of a new pair of athletic shoes helps tackle one of the most visible signs of poverty and helps children attend school in comfort and with dignity, better prepared to learn and play. We hear such positive feedback from the participating agencies about how excited and delighted the children are when they open their new shoe boxes.

With your assistance and generosity, we will be able to distribute shoes to the following churches and agencies:

- ABIGAIL'S PLACE
- BETHEL MINISTRY
- QUEEN OF PEACE CATHOLIC CHURCH (our sister parish)
- ST. JOHN FISHER CATHOLIC CHURCH
- HOLY FAMILY CATHOLIC CHURCH
- HICK'S ELEMENTARY SCHOOL
- FORT BEND RAINBOW ROOM
- RIO BEND FOSTER CARE COMMUNITY
- LOTUS MILITARY PROJECT
- FORT BEND CHILD ADVOCATES
- ST. LAURENCE VILLAGE FAMILIES
- FORT BEND COUNTY BACK TO SCHOOL
- REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT

The Shoe Drive tag line continues this weekend. Shoe tags and monetary donation envelopes will be on the plaza after Mass. In addition to the Shoe Drive, please consider helping us provide necessary school supplies to help ensure that children in need in Fort Bend County are prepared to learn and succeed in the classroom. The rising cost of supplies coupled with the number of items requested has made it difficult for many families to purchase the supplies needed. A complete list of all school supplies will be available on our website and on the tagline. All school supply donations will be distributed to children in need at the Fort Bend County Back to School event on Saturday, August 3.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

See the St. Laurence Respect Life web page or check the parish library for brochures about Natural Family Planning and Contraception, and 2 free CDs: “Contraception: Cracking the Myths”, and “Prove it, God! …And He did!!”. A series of classes on NFP will be offered at St. Laurence on Thursday evenings July 18, Aug 22, and Sep 26. See http://nfpsst.org/ for more information and information about classes at other nearby parishes. You will need to contact the instructor prior to attending.
