Good News Reflection

Pray: Beloved Lord, give me the grace to recognize my constraints, my faults, and my need of You. Thank You for the wonders You always do in my life. Amen.

HOW LOVE HUMBLES US INTO RIGHTEOUSNESS

In this Sunday’s Gospel reading, we see what happens when our primary motivation in whatever we do is not love but self-centeredness. "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled." Sooner or later, self-exalting people get humbled, whether they realize it or not. They are brought down low by their own behaviors. People who encounter them in daily life do not think very highly of them. And certainly, God doesn’t either.

The much better alternative is to let our love for others be what humbles us.

Without love as our motivation, we believe in our own so-called "righteousness," thinking we’re okay when we’re not. But when we do good deeds for others because we genuinely care about them, the pride of our self-righteousness is replaced by holy humility.

We are made righteous by our love for others. Self-righteousness is self-made — it motivates us to do good, but only for the selfish purpose of looking admirable, winning God’s approval, or gaining some other personal benefit. Love, which is true righteousness, motivates us to do good for the sake of others.

Look at the Pharisee in Jesus’ parable. We all behave like that from time to time. Think of someone who is inferior to you because you are holier, who doesn’t go to church as often as you do, or who doesn’t pray like you do. Think of someone who is not worthy of your time and caregiving. Think of someone who is too difficult to love.

The cure for this self-righteousness is to get in touch with God’s concern for them. Once we unite our hearts to God’s love for them, we begin to care about them, too. And the most powerful, most successful way to accomplish such union with God is through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, which absolves us of self-righteousness and empowers us with divine grace to absorb Christ’s own righteousness.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

Think of those who are less spiritually active than you, e.g., family, friends, co-workers, and parishioners who cause you to think: "Thank God I am not like them!" Do you grieve for them because of their sins and blindness? Do you do anything to help them grow closer to Christ? Do they experience Jesus every time they encounter you?

Questions for Family & Community

Faith Sharing:

What are some ways that you show love to those who are not as holy as you, or not as emotionally healthy as you, or not as intelligent as you? Describe a time when you were more self-righteous than righteous. How did you (or how will you) let Jesus turn your pride into love-filled humility?

Each week we feature the stories of “stewards among us” here at St. Laurence. But what is a steward?

A steward is someone who looks after someone else’s property. A steward doesn’t have ownership, but has great responsibility. Through Scripture, we have learned what it means to be a Christian steward. If God created the universe and everything in it, nothing belongs to us, it belongs to God. All we have, including our possessions, relationships, talents, experiences, health – even life itself and our very next breath – all belongs to God. We are but stewards of all God has given us. A good Christian steward receives God’s gifts gratefully, cherishes and tends them in a responsible and accountable manner, and returns them with increase to the Lord. Because our God is all-loving and all-giving, we are continuously being invited (and challenged) to receive, cherish, share and return-with-increase the fruits of God’s generosity. Therefore, stewardship is a lifelong responsibility, a way of life. You recognize this in the way fellow parishioners live their lives – these are the true stewards among us – those who live with gratitude, open and responsive to God’s abundant gifts.

Living as Disciples

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT: HEARTS OF JESUS AND MARY PRAYER GROUP

Since its inception in 1992, the Hearts of Jesus and Mary Prayer Group has helped many people develop a personal relationship with God and grow deeper in faith through constant and consistent prayers, praise and worship.

The group meets every Friday from 7:00-9:00pm in the Chapel of Divine Mercy to pray the Rosary and other prayers, sing, read Scripture, reflect and witness to one another. The evening ends with the recitation of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

Q. Where does the Bazaar money go?

"I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink" (Mt 25,35). Today we ask for the grace of compassion and the capacity to share in the poverty of our brothers and sisters. #EndPoverty

Ask Paula

A.

All the money from the bazaar goes to the everyday general budget here at St. Laurence. The bazaar is not intended to be a big money maker, it’s a community builder, to bring you guys together with other parishioners and neighbors, right? If it was going to be a money maker we would have to charge a lot more for raffle tickets, game tickets and even food, just saying. With that said, we try not to lose money. Typically, we come in between $6,000 to $15,000 profit. Not bad, right?

Since I’m talking about the Bazaar, let me tell you that all the raffle winners have been contacted and most have already picked up their prizes. So basically what I’m sayin is, you didn’t win. But I didn’t either!

SHARE GOD'S BOUNTY

SHARE GOD’S BOUNTY VOLUNTEER SIGN-UPS AVAILABLE ONLINE
STARTING FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1ST.

A SPOOKTACULAR GIFT!

A very special thank you to the St. Laurence Catholic School faculty small group family, Our Lady of Czestochowa, for creating these boo-tiful Halloween bags filled with fun treats for the homeless youth at Parks Youth Ranch.

SHARING YOUR GIFTS THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

We are so blessed to serve our parish and community through the Social Concerns Ministry office. We are inspired and touched each and every day by your overwhelming generosity.

One of the primary goals of SCM is to give parishioners an opportunity to serve those in need in a variety of ways such as donating their time, monetary support & gifts in kind (goods or services). In all, there are over 21 ministries that are a part of the SCM family. Another 20+ agencies are supported financially or by gifts in kind.

Two of our largest projects/drives are just around the corner, our Share God’s Bounty Thanksgiving food drive and Wish Upon A Star Christmas gift program.

Share God’s Bounty provides over 700 meals to families in need throughout the Fort Bend area, plus another 150 to our sister parish, Queen of Peace in Houston. The “turkey tags” will be available on the plaza after all starting next weekend along with information on how to sign-up for the 150 volunteer positions.

The Wish Upon A Star program provides approximately 2,000 Christmas gifts to children, adults and the elderly in need throughout our area. In some cases, this will be the only gift the individual receives. The Wish Upon A Star tags will be on the plaza beginning Saturday, November 23rd.

As you take a Share God’s Bounty or Wish Upon A Star tag, please know that there is a very real family or person that will be the recipient of your generosity. By returning your donation at the appointed time, that person will be guaranteed a meal or gift. The recipients of the meals and gifts provided by St. Laurence are so grateful for the generosity of the parish. When you share your gifts, you touch a life!

May God bless you all this holiday season.
RESPECT LIFE NEWS

LIFE CHAIN IS TODAY! Come join us along Hwy 6 as we pray and proclaim the truth about abortion to our community! Signs and information are available in the Corpus Christi Room after all Masses up to the time of the event: 2:00 to 3:30 pm.

Spiritual Adoption: Two months! The baby is making rapid progress developing all her external and internal organs. During the second month baby teeth form and her fingers and toes are developing. Ears, nose, lips and tongue can now be clearly seen. Even her brain waves can now be recorded. The skeleton changes from cartilage to bone. The central nervous system is now functioning and so forty muscle sets begin their first exercises. By 8 weeks all body systems are present and the baby is called a “fetus”, a Latin word meaning “little one” or “young one”. Ultrasound reveals that this little one can now spring and jump – her first dance steps!

HOPE AFTER ABORTION: One of the Life Chain signs proclaims “Jesus Forgives and Heals.” We are not there to condemn but to state the truth, and “the truth will set you free”. (John 8:32) Women and men often suffer silently with guilt and shame after abortion. But healing ministries like Rachel’s Vineyard and Project Rachel offer hope and healing. Call Julie Fritsch at the Pro-Life office of the archdiocese for information: 713 741 8728. There is also a helpful green booklet in the St. Laurence library called “After Abortion.”

Christian Voices for Life needs Volunteers: CVL can use volunteers to approach churches to offer them help in teaching their congregation about life issues, and to invite them to join us in Life Chain and 40 Days for Life. Other opportunities include representing us at college campuses, selling T-shirts, and updating our database of area churches, pastors, and other contacts.

HALLOWEEN CANDY DEPOSITORY

Once again, Social Concerns will be collecting left-over Halloween candy that we will use for several projects, including Share God’s Bounty. Please drop your donations in the “Halloween Candy Depository” in the Social Concerns office, the parish office or the SCM collection bin in the church narthex.

TODAY'S 2ND COLLECTION

BLACK BAG COLLECTION TODAY!

This Sundays’ black bag collection will be used for our People in Crisis fund which is currently averaging more than $10,000 a month in financial assistance. Because of your generous donations, we were able to assist over 88 families in crisis with rent/mortgage payments, utilities, counseling, medical/cancer costs, and food/gas cards, in August and September. Thank you, St. Laurence parishioners, for your kindness and compassion for our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Join us for a 6-week small-group retreat in preparation for Marian Consecration. This retreat is based on the popular book by Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC, 33 Days to Morning Glory.

Consecration to Jesus through Mary at St. Laurence Catholic Church

Six Popes have testified to the great power of Marian Consecration as the best way to enter into the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Fr. Michael Gaitley MIC, in his book and Video Series 33 Days to Morning Glory, based on the wisdom of St. Louis de Monfort, St. Maximilian Kolbe, St. Teresa of Calcutta and Saint John Paul II takes us through preparation for consecration. You are invited to join us in preparation for consecration to Jesus through Mary on the feast day of Our Lady of Guadalupe, December 12th.

Thursdays 10/31, 11/07, 11/14, 11/21, 12/05, 12/12 at the Ave Maria Center, Room 201, 7:00 PM to 8:30 PM
Tuesdays 10/29, 11/05, 11/12, 11/19, 12/03, 12/10 at the Ave Maria Center, Room 201, 1:00 PM to 2:30 PM
