Good News Reflection

Pray: My Lord, may I prepare every day to be Your witness in the most difficult times. May Your Word be always rooted in me to help me be a pleasant temple for your Holy Spirit. Amen.

THE TEMPORARY AND THE DIVINE

In this Sunday’s Gospel reading, Jesus says that the day will come when not one stone of the temple will be left mortared to another, because it will all be torn down. He’s reminding us that everything here on earth is temporary.

Think of what you enjoy here on earth. It’s temporary. What causes you to suffer? It too is temporary. What of this world do you depend on? It’s temporary. What do you admire, trust, save, hope for, spend working hours to achieve and plan relaxation hours for a reward? It’s all temporary — unless we are using it for the Kingdom of God.

We know that we’re supposed to focus on the things of God, things that will last for all of eternity, but we’re uncomfortable with the blind faith that this requires. We are like the disciples who looked for God’s vindication against injustices and immorality in the temporal world: wars, earthquakes, plagues and famines. We wish that Jesus would hurry up with his Second Coming and stop all the evils and hardships.

In our daily lives, we seek God’s help, but we look for something tangible upon which to base our faith. We want to know the future; we don’t like the insecurity of not knowing what God has planned. We depend on what we can see more than we depend on God whom we cannot see, so we ask God to give us signs.

However, the best way to walk forward with God is to raise one foot in air, preparing to take the next step, and — while that foot is still in the air — ask God: "Where do You want me to place my foot next?"

This takes balance; if we don’t remain centered in God, we teeter and fall. If God doesn’t show us immediately where to put our foot down to move forward, we can either fall away or fall into his hand.

God’s hand is never temporary! God’s hand provides true security based only on his endless, all-powerful, all-knowing love. It doesn’t always feel that way, but his love and protection never fail.

QUESTIONS FOR PERSONAL REFLECTION:
What help from God are you currently waiting for? What wars and insurrections are plaguing your life? Do you believe that your problem is temporary or do you fear that it’s permanent? What will you do this week to entrust yourself to the wisdom and guidance of Jesus?

QUESTIONS FOR FAMILY & COMMUNITY FAITH SHARING:
When waiting for God’s guidance, how do you stay centered on God? How do you find and hold your balance while you’ve got one foot waveriing in the air? What if you were to put your foot down in the wrong place and move in the wrong direction? Does God protect you then? How?

PRAYING THE NEWS | NOVEMBER 17, 2019

“O Lord… will rule the world with justice and the peoples with equity.”

PSALM 98:9

O Lord, human ways are not always your ways. Rodney Reed’s case again brought the issues of capital punishment before us. May our state and nation be ever more diligent in determining innocence or guilt before conviction and sentencing. Help us all truly desire to be on the right side of your justice and fairness when you come. And may your mercy save us when we fall short.

Jesus, we trust in you. Amen †

MORE IMPOSTER CLERGY EMAIL AND TEXT SCAMS
There has been an increase in email and text scams from people impersonating a parish priest asking for donations. The most recent is a fake Gmail account claiming to be from Cardinal DiNardo. Do not open or respond to these emails or texts. Rather, simply delete and/or block the sender. Please remember that priests would never make appeals such as this, for gift cards and direct monetary donations. The Texas Attorney General recently issued a warning about these imposters who are trying to make quick money at the expense of people of faith. If you have questions, please contact the parish office or call the Texas Consumer Protection Division at 1-800-621-0508.

Fr. Richard McNeillie is a native Houstonian and a graduate of local Catholic schools. He has been a priest for over 4 years, serving as the assistant at St. Martha in Kingwood. Although his interests growing up were in creative writing and film, he ended up at St. Louis University, pursuing philosophy and finance degrees. There, with the help of some friends, he began discerning his vocation for the first time. After graduating in 2005, Fr. Richard worked in St. Louis for financial advisers, returned to graduate school in philosophy, and finally considered a vocation as a diocesan priest. After two years, he left the program and entered the seminary in 2008. Fr. Richard is currently the director of the Office of Vocations.

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT: WOMEN OF THE CLOTH

Women of the Cloth Want You! Yes, YOU. Imagine sharing faith while sharing talents. See yourself serving others with needle, thread, fabrics and yarns. Our fun and talented group of sewers, quilters, knitters and crafters makes handmade items to sell at our craft sale each December. The Women of the Cloth also create prayer blankets, plus upon request, memory bears and pillows from your loved one’s clothing. We hope these items will be a comfort to you and your loved ones as you remember them.

The funds we raise through these activities help to support other parish ministries and community charities, such as Habitat for Humanity, Mamie George Community Center, Project Gabriel and others.

We are a gathering of friends and “family” – Women of the Cloth. We share our joy in creating beautiful labors of love while “solving” all the troubles of the world—experiencing faith filled community while serving others. We meet Tuesday mornings at 9:30am, in the St. Francis Room. Join us! Bring your positive attitude and willing spirit. We have project ideas and some supplies. Whatever direction your talent leads will be a welcome addition to our group.

Plan to shop our annual Quilt & Craft Sale December 7-8, in the parish hall after all Masses (except Life Teen). Enjoy Wassail and Christmas cookies and shop from among handmade quilts, quilted goods, Christmas and kitchen decor, knit items and much more!

Stop by the Hospitality Desk today or contact Joanne Friday at 281-565-3848, jafridaywindstream.net.

STEWARD AMONG US

CHRISTIE PETERS

I’m Christie Peters and I grew up here at St. Laurence. After college I moved back to the Houston area and taught art at Austin Parkway Elementary for 3 years. During that time I co-created Every Sacred Sunday, the first New American Bible Mass journal containing all of the Sunday readings and Holy Days of Obligation, with space to take notes and reflect, as well as original watercolor illustrations. My personal mission in producing this was to create something beautiful that offered others a space to encounter the Lord and listen to his gentle voice. We originally launched the journal on Kickstarter and reached our goal in just 12 hours (even though we set a timeline for 30 days). God is so good! Since then my life has never been quite the same. I quit my teaching job and now work full time on Every Sacred Sunday where I oversee creative direction and manage social media, digital content and community outreach, plus writing and illustration for other independent projects. My constant prayer is that the Lord grants me a heart that seeks him above all else. I hope that my work as an artist will glorify him in all that I do.

Christian hope, nourished by the light of Christ, makes the resurrection and life shine even in the world’s darkest nights.

Ask Paula

Q. Do our priests get a day off?
A. Yes. Fr. Drew’s day off is Thursday, Fr. Jaison’s day off is Friday and Fr. Truong Son is off EVERY day! (Just kidding, he gets Monday’s off.) They each picked their day when they first came here. Me, I would’ve picked Saturday, just sayin. But they have to work weekends! This is a good segue for my next statement. Mark your calendars: On December 11th there will be no 6:30pm Mass, cause our priests will all be together at the Cardinal’s Christmas party. Nice night off together! (Like how I worked that in, right?) Don’t worry, there will be a communion service that night and one of our deacons will do it. For the person that scheduled an intention for that Mass, we moved it to another day. Please call the office and we can see if that time works for you.

Paula Savo has been our Parish Receptionist for 21 years and knows the practical answers to (practically) everything. Call 281-980-9812 or email her at psavo@stlaurence.org.

NOW HIRING: HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH MINISTER

St. Laurence Catholic Church is seeking a qualified individual to fill the position of High School Youth Minister. The High School Youth Minister collaborates with the Confirmation Youth Minister in the planning of weekly catechetical sessions and other High School events including retreats. This is a full-time position requiring some evening and weekend work. Sundays are regular work days and there are overnight retreats several times per year. Interested candidates should send a resume with a cover letter to Christine Dunn, St. Laurence Director of Religious Education, at cdunn@stlaurence.org. See full job description online at stlaurence.org/parish-job-opts.

DSF: HELPING OTHERS ACROSS THE ARCHDIOCESE

Thank you to the 841 families from our parish who have donated to the annual Diocesan Services Fund so far. The DSF unites Catholics throughout Galveston-Houston in support of over 60 essential ministries that one parish could not support on its own. Six weeks remain in the year for us to reach our parish goal of $495,000, and we are currently at 82% of goal. With every parishioner’s meaningful participation, we can meet our goal and help others across the archdiocese. Please pick up an envelope at the Hospitality Desk or donate online at archgh.org/dsf. Thank you, St. Laurence!

ST. JOHN XXIII RAFFLE TICKET SALES

2ND COLLECTION SOCIAL CONCERNS COLLECTION

Please give generously.
This Sunday's black bag collection will be used for our People in Crisis fund which is currently averaging more than $10,000 a month in financial assistance. Because of your generosity, in September and October, we assisted 83 families in crisis with rent/mortgage payments, utilities, counseling, medical/cancer costs, and food/gas cards. Thank you for your generous support!

A very special thank you to the fabulous St. Laurence National Elementary Honor Society students who had a very successful Halloween Bake Sale, raising $465.00! These funds will help SCM provide Christmas bags filled with goodies to brighten the holidays for the students at our sister parish, Queen of Peace. In addition, they made beautiful Christmas cards for each QOP student. Way to go, NEHS!

Make Share God's Bounty a family service project and go grocery shopping together to purchase the items and deliver your donation to the school this Saturday from 8:00-10:00am. With your help, our parish will provide over 800 meals to families in need! Pick up a tag at the hospitality desk in the narthex.
You can help with these simple donations. Look around the house and see what you have to share and drop off at the parish office or in the SCM Donation bin in the church.
