Greetings and Attention Graduates and Parents,

Blessing to all:

As we draw near to our high school seniors' graduation, one way we would like to celebrate this milestone in your life is to recognize you. Though we might not yet be able to celebrate Mass together in church (until further notice) we can celebrate Mass through our Facebook Live Mass. Therefore, I invite you to please send us a photo of yourself in your cap & gown or a nice photo. Also include your full name and a short summary about yourself.

For example, you may:

- Share your goals after graduation
- Words of encouragement or advice
- A personal life learning experience during this pandemic
- A favorite bible quote
- A personal life changing Faith experience

Send us your photo and your short summary to: Facebook messenger or to OLSS.youthministry@gmail.com. Submit it before the Deadline of Monday, May 11, 2020. We will have a slide presentation with your photo and summary after the 10:00 a.m. Mass on Facebook on Sunday, May 17, 2020.

We are so proud of you and we wish you a lifetime of prosperity, filled with lots of love, joy and peace.

May God and our Blessed Mother bless you today and always for the love, compassion and generosity you so graciously share with your family and others.

Que Dios y nuestra Santísima Madre las bendiga hoy y siempre por el amor, compasión y generosidad que con tanta gracia comparten con su familia y demás personas.

We offer our condolences to the families of all the faithful departed. May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

VOCATION

Roman Catholics in the United States spend a good deal of time speaking of "vocation" and the manner in which each of us discerns our vocation for life. In today's apostolic letter, however, Peter gives us the "cornerstone" of our vocation, the description of what each of us is called to first and foremost by our baptism. He describes our vocation as "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of [God's] own, so that you may announce the praises" of Christ, who called us out of darkness into light (1 Peter 2:9). All of us, no matter what path our life's vocation may take us down, have been chosen by God, made holy, and anointed as priests in the high priesthood of Christ through baptism. All of this, so that we may announce the praises of Christ. Vocation is given for proclamation at home, in the workplace—wherever life takes us—in service, in word, and in sacrament.

VOCACIÓN

Los católicos en los Estados Unidos pasan mucho tiempo hablando de "vocación" y la manera en que cada uno de nosotros discierne nuestra vocación en la vida. Sin embargo, en la carta apostólica de hoy, Pedro nos da la "piedra angular" de nuestra vocación, lo primero y principal en el llamado de cada uno de nosotros a raíz de nuestro Bautismo. Él describe nuestra vocación como "estirpe elegida, sacerdocio real, nación consagrada a Dios, pueblo de su propiedad para que proclamen las obras maravillosas de aquél [Cristo] quien nos llamó de las tinieblas a su luz admirable" (1 Pedro 2:9). Todos nosotros, sin importar la senda por la cual nuestra vocación de vida nos lleve, hemos sido elegidos por Dios, hechos santos, y ungidos como sacerdotes en el alto sacerdocio de Cristo por nuestro Bautismo. Todo esto, para que podamos anunciar las maravillas de Cristo. Se nos da una vocación para que proclamemos mediante el servicio, la palabra y el sacramento dentro del hogar, en el trabajo y dondequiera que nos lleve la vida.
