Pope Francis on what we can learn about prayer from Blaise Pascal

Vatican City, Jun 3, 2020 / 06:00 am MT (CNA).- Pope Francis pointed to an experience of 17th-century mathematician and philosopher Blaise Pascal as an important testimony of how one can sense the living presence of God in personal prayer.

The pope called a small handwritten note that was discovered sewn into Pascal's coat at the time of his death "one of the most original texts in the history of spirituality."

"It begins thus," Pope Francis said. "God of Abraham, God of Isaac, God of Jacob not of the philosophers and of the learned. Certitude. Certitude. Feeling. Joy. Peace. God of Jesus Christ."

Pope Francis said June 3 that in these lines from Pascal's "Memorial," the philosopher "expresses not an intellectual reflection that a wise man like him could conceive of God, but the living, experienced sense of his presence."

"Pascal even notes the precise moment in which he felt that reality, having finally met it: on the evening of November 23, 1654," Pope Francis said.

Pope Francis called Archbishop Gomez to express prayers after death of George Floyd

CNA Staff, Jun 3, 2020 / 02:53 pm MT (CNA).- Pope Francis called the president of the U.S. bishops' conference on Wednesday to convey his prayers and solidarity for Americans during the period of national unrest that began with the death of George Floyd, a black man who was killed May 25 during an arrest by Minneapolis police.

"The Holy Father said he was praying, especially for Archbishop Bernard Hebda and the local Church in Minneapolis-St. Paul," Archbishop Jose Gomez wrote in a June 3 letter to bishops obtained by CNA.

"He thanked the bishops for the pastoral tone of the Church's response to the demonstrations across the country in our statements and actions since the death of George Floyd. He assured us of his continued prayers and closeness in the days and weeks ahead," Gomez added.

The Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus is Friday, June 19th. Adoration will be from 11:00 a.m. to 12 noon. Mass will be at 12:00 noon. This mass will be for the intention of the Covid-19 pandemic. All current directives for attending mass will be required.

Pope Francis says 'listen to the call to mission'

Vatican City, May 31, 2020 / 07:40 am MT (CNA).- Pope Francis urged Catholics around the world to "listen to the call to mission" Sunday.

He said: "Let us ask ourselves: are we prepared to welcome the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives, to listen to the call to mission, whether in our life as married couples or as consecrated persons or those called to the ordained ministry, and in all the everyday events of life?"

"Are we willing to be sent forth at any time or place to witness to our faith in God the merciful Father, to proclaim the Gospel of salvation in Jesus Christ, to share the divine life of the Holy Spirit by building up the Church?"

Are we, like Mary, the Mother of Jesus, ready to be completely at the service of God's will?"
