

NOVENA OF ST. GREGORY THE GREAT

DAY 1

St. Gregory the Great, you said, “have confidence in the compassion of our Creator.” It is with this confidence that we now ask you to bring our intentions before the throne of our Lord.

(State Your Intention)

Servant of the Servants of God, St. Gregory, you came from a family of politicians and played a role in politics yourself. May the Lord grant me political leaders who resist corruption and the temptations of power as you and your family members once did.

Amen.

DAY 2

St. Gregory the Great, you said, “have confidence in the compassion of our Creator.” It is with this confidence that we now ask you to bring our intentions before the throne of our Lord.

(State Your Intention)

Servant of the Servants of God, St. Gregory, you had a deep love of the monastic life. May the Lord grant me your contemplative spirit, that I may seek out silence and desire to grow deeper in love with God.

Amen.

DAY 3

St. Gregory the Great, you said, “have confidence in the compassion of our Creator.” It is with this confidence that we now ask you to bring our intentions before the throne of our Lord.

(State Your Intention)

Servant of the Servants of God, St. Gregory, you were a great pope and knew the burden of the papal office as one who wanted nothing more than the monastic life. May the Lord grant me your obedient heart to follow His will even when it is not what I desire for myself.

Amen.

DAY 4

St. Gregory the Great, you said, “have confidence in the compassion of our Creator.” It is with this confidence that we now ask you to bring our intentions before the throne of our Lord.

(State Your Intention)

Servant of the Servants of God, St. Gregory, you had such compassion for the poor. May the Lord grant me to see the impoverished through your eyes with the dignity given to them by their Creator.

Amen.

DAY 5

St. Gregory the Great, you said, “have confidence in the compassion of our Creator.” It is with this confidence that we now ask you to bring our intentions before the throne of our Lord.

(State Your Intention)

Servant of the Servants of God, St. Gregory, you had a great gift for administration, which God used to benefit the Church. May the Lord grant me your malleable heart, that my gifts may be used to carry out His will.

Amen.

DAY 6

St. Gregory the Great, you said, “have confidence in the compassion of our Creator.” It is with this confidence that we now ask you to bring our intentions before the throne of our Lord.

(State Your Intention)

Servant of the Servants of God, St. Gregory, you used the Church’s farmland to effectively feed others in a time of famine. May the Lord grant me your generous heart, that I may prudently share what God has placed in my care with those in need.

Amen.

DAY 7

St. Gregory the Great, you said, “have confidence in the compassion of our Creator.” It is with this confidence that we now ask you to bring our intentions before the throne of our Lord.

(State Your Intention)

Servant of the Servants of God, St. Gregory, you are known as the “Father of Christian Worship.” May the Lord grant me your humble heart to devoutly praise God with all my heart.

Amen.

DAY 8

St. Gregory the Great, you said, “have confidence in the compassion of our Creator.” It is with this confidence that we now ask you to bring our intentions before the throne of our Lord.

(State Your Intention)

Servant of the Servants of God, St. Gregory, you established Gregorian chant, which is named for you. May the Lord grant me your prayerful heart that speaks to Him through beautiful song. Amen.

DAY 9

St. Gregory the Great, you said, “have confidence in the compassion of our Creator.” It is with this confidence that we now ask you to bring our intentions before the throne of our Lord.

(State Your Intention)

Servant of the Servants of God, St. Gregory, you were a prolific writer. May the Lord grant me your fervent spirit that desires to share my love for Him with others using all means at my disposal.

Amen.
