Next week, our second collection will be for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. Over 43 million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs to empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to lift themselves out of poverty. By supporting this collection you give a hand up, not a hand out. Learn more about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development at www.usccb.org/charity.

From the Office of the Bishop

Dear Friends in Christ,

On Monday, November 12th, I will join my brother bishops for the week-long assembly of the US Conference of Catholic Bishops. At this meeting, we will make critical decisions regarding the scourge of sex abuse by clergy in our Church. I pray that the Holy Spirit will guide us in that ministry as we work to vigilant guardians of the young and vulnerable in our Church.

Each bishop must confront the past and the shameful history of priests and bishops who betrayed the trust placed in them by the People of God. Children and young people were scarred by horrible and wicked crimes committed by the very people they trusted to lead them into eternal life as spiritual leaders. We must seek atonement for these sins and work continually to be worthy of the trust of God’s people. Only after such atonement can we expect there to be confidence in the measures we take to safeguard the vulnerable in our parishes, schools, and ministries.

To prepare for this assembly, I ask all of you to join me in prayer for three intentions:

*For the healing and support of all victims of the clergy sexual abuse.
*For the conversion and just punishment of the perpetrators and concealers of sexual abuse.
*For the strength of the bishops to be holy shepherds in protecting and leading God’s people from harm.

Thank you for all your prayers. Please know that I am grateful for them, and that I hold in my prayers as well.

Respectfully,
Jalmo Soto, Bishop of Sacramento

Thank you for your support and generosity.

De la Oficina del Obispo

Estimados Amigos en Cristo,

El lunes, 12 de noviembre, me reuniré con mis hermanos obispos durante la semana de la asamblea de la Conferencia Episcopal Católica de las Estados Unidos. En esta reunión, tomaremos decisiones críticas con respecto al abuso sexual, sexuado por parte del clero en nuestra Iglesia. Ruego que el Espíritu Santo nos guíe para actuar como guardián de los niños y vulnerables en nuestras iglesias.

Cada obispo debe enfrentar al pasado y la historia vergonzosa del clero sacerdotes y obispos que traicionaron la confianza depositada en ellos por las personas mismas a quienes se les había enseñado a confiar como líderes espirituales. Debemos buscar la reparación por estos pecados y tratar de hacer la reparación para ser dignos de la confianza del pueblo de Dios. Solo después de tal reparación podemos esperar que haya confianza en las medidas que tomamos para proteger a los vulnerables en nuestras parroquias, escuelas, y ministerios. En preparación para esta asamblea, le pido a todos ustedes que se unan a mi en oración por tres intenciones:

* Por la sanción y el apoyo a todas las víctimas del abuso sexual del clero.
* Por la conversión y el castigo justo de los perpetradores y encubridores del abuso sexual.
* Por el fortalecer de los obispos para que sean pastores santos que guíen y protejan al pueblo de Dios de todo mal.

Gracias por sus oraciones. Estoy agradecido por ellas. También tengan la seguridad de que los tengo en mis oraciones.

Atentamente,
Jalmo Soto, Obispo de Sacramento
