Looking Back...

A History of Our Parish

The ground was broken for this (the current rectory) during the first week of November. In the Lassen Mail of November 3, 1922, it was noted: “Despite the fact that there has been a Catholic Church in Susanville for many years, no attempt was made to provide for a home for the pastor of the church until the arrival of Father McCarthy about a month ago.”... The lumber for the rectory was donated by Purdy, Tim I., Pearson, Bob E., and Zinman, Film & Box Miller, Rocky.
