A History of our Parish

In February 1954 Bishop Armstrong announced that Pape Plus xii had designated seven priests in the Sacramental Diocese as Diocesan Prelates, each would receive the title of Right Reverend Monsignor. One of the group of seven was the Sacred Heart’s Father Moran. While it carried no new administrative duties or authority, the honor made Monsignor a member of the Papal Court and entitled him to wear the distinctive purple garb. At the same time the appointment honored both the recipient and his parish, as well as the Diocese. To look for a banner of the church on the day of the dedication.
